Winter Mildest in Sixty Years

ALTURAS, Calif.—Old timers say that the present winter is the mildest in over 60 years. Rain instead of snow has featured the precipitation even in the highest mountain sections. Covered wagon pioneers, settling in the valleys here shortly after the Civil War experienced the same kind of winter. Two years later and very cold weather came and heavy snows fell they saw their livestock swept away because of their failure to put up hay. Pansies have been blooming here the winter long and even in the Lava Beds region, rock roses are sprounting.

To Our Many Good Friends and Acquaintances:

Thanks, oh, many thanks to you all for your gracious kindness and good thoughts in our behalf during our recent misfortune. We believe that not a malicious thought was against, all of which helped us so much to recover.

We are all somewhat disfigured, but soon up and coming, and haven't lost our grit. Our hope is that some day we can in a measure return your kindnesses and good service.

The goodness of our hearts go out to the strangers who were also injured.

Cheerily,

LEW ARENS
AND FAMILY.

National, Local Markets

BUTTER MARKET QUOTED WEAKER FROM PORTLAND

PORTLAND, Jan. 29. (AP)—Further betterment in the eastern cheese trade situation and some advance in the price were reflection of the week's market.

Locally there have been several recent advances in the price on Oregon cheese, Tillamook excluded, on the produce exchange. Tillamook was not quoted on the exchange because it establishes its own market, and at a higher point than obtained by any other section of the world for like type.

Prices Mixed.

Butter market appeared a trifle weaker. The trade here, so eager to follow the California trade upward, has forgotten the declines and especially those of San Francisco.

Egg market prices continued badly mixed with quotations meaning little or nothing at the moment. Retail sales continued as low, if not lower, than what some were quoting at wholesale.

There was a good demand all through the live chicken trade. In general prices were unchanged but most purchases were being made at the higher point. Ducks were in call with few arriving.

Price on lambs continued to gain straight here for country killed with most sales of quality stock up to 14c pound although few arriving were really of top grade.

Potatoes Slow.

Steady to firm prices were suggested for the better grade country killed veal and hogs with late receipts somewhat below needs of the trade. Last week's supply was entirely cleaned.

Turkeys were showing a strong tone for dressed stock with offerings spasmodic and quickly snapped up within the price range. Most of the large toms are going into store.

Quiet trading tone was showing for onions at Oregon primary points. Growers continued to ask $2 generally for No. 1 stock net but distributors report a lack of buying orders.

Potato sales locally were slow and not generally at the high mark.

Some rather good spinach from Imperial valley. Car of Texan due tomorrow.

Hothouse rhubarb prices were cut to the quick with extra fancy $1.10-1.15 and fancy $1.00 for 15s.

Some fancy local hothouse cucumbers offering $3.50-3.75 box for 4½ dozen.

In-between sizes and small oranges were lower. Large ones higher.

Chicago Livestock

CHICAGO, Jan. 29., (AP)—(U. S. Dept. Agr.)—Hogs: 48,000; active, 10 higher; 180-210 lbs. 3.75-80, top 3.85; sows 2.85-3.10.

Cattle: 12,000; yearlings and light steers 15-25 higher, trade uneven, upturn more than 25 in instances; yearlings 6.50-7.00; yearling heifers to 6.50; weighty bullocks 4.75-5.50; cows steady to strong; bulls strong to 10 higher and vealers largely steady, but slow at 6.00-7.00.

Sheep: 15,000; slow indications around steady ton slaughter lambs bids and occasional sales on good to choice offerings upward to 8.75; best held above 9.00; nothing done in limited supply fall shorn lambs and yearlings, asking shade higher on aged sheep.

If Huey Long doesn't take back every word he said about me, I'll follow him to' Washington and cram those words down his cowardly throat. — Mayor T. S. Walmsley of New Orleans.

NRA Field Man Will Lecture Here Thursday

Frederick Vining Fisher, national field representative of the national recovery administration will arrive in Klamath Falls Thursday for a series of discussions on the recovery program, according to announcement received by O. D. Mathews, administrator of the NRA.

Fisher has been conducting a series of meetings in California and has been ordered into the Pacific northwest for a similar series.

According to the information received by Mathews, it is the custom of Fisher to address a convocation assembly of all high school children in one meeting and the combined service clubs and chamber of commerce in another meeting. He will also be available for a combined meeting of women's clubs.

Mathews was arranging his program Saturday evening and expected to have the routine program for discussions arranged here Thursday. The public will be invited to his lectures.

Huge Wool Sale Brings High Price

CEDARVILLE, Calif.—Times are looking up in this section to a remarkable degree with the report that L. E. McCulley, leading flockmaster of this section has sold his clip of wool, amounting to approximately 40,000 pounds, for 25 cents per pound. This is the highest wool price for several years. A good deal of wool in this section has already been sold on consignment.

SPUD SHIPMENTS TOTAL 940 CARS

Carlot shipments of potatoes Saturday and Sunday totaled 940 cars. Oregon loaded 38 cars, Washington 33 and Idaho 125. Maine loaded 269 cars and Minnesota 132.

At Presque Isle, Maine, demand was slow and the market dull. No. 1 green mountains brought mostly $1.48 a hundred, sacked, in carloads f.o.b. shipping point.

At Idaho Falls, demand was good and the market stronger. No. 1 Idaho russets brought mostly $1.30 to $1.35 a hundred sacked, in carloads f.o.b. shipping point.

In the Twin Falls Burley district, the market was also stronger, with prices the same as at Idaho Falls.

At Yakima and nearby points, demand was fairly good with prices slightly lower than last Saturday. No. 1 russets brought $24 to $25 dollars a ton, sacked, in carloads f.o.b. cash track.

The terminal market at Chicago reported the market nominally unchanged, but there were no sales on account of weather conditions. Supplies were heavy. On the Fort Worth market, No. 1 Idaho russets were being held for $2.20 a hundred, sacked, brokers carlot sales.

At San Francisco demand and trading were limited, although supplies were moderate. Sales were too few to establish reliable quotations.

BOSTON WOOL

BOSTON, Jan. 29, (AP)—(U. S. Dept. Agr.) — Increased demand for medium quality fleece wools recently has come largely from knitters who for some time have been out of the market for raw wool. An improvement in the market for knitted goods has been reflected in a revival of interest in wool suitable for knitting purposes, but purchases as yet have been rather light.

Estimated receipts of domestic wool at Boston, reported to the Boston Grain and Flour Exchane during the week ending Jan. 27, amounted to 421,500 pounds compared with 171,700 during the previous week.
