National, Local Markets

REDUCTION IN PRICE OF EGGS MADE TUESDAY

PORTLAND, Jan. 30, (AP)—A reduction of one cent a dozen in the selling price of eggs was made here at noon today, it was said by George C. Keeney, general manager of Pacific cooperative poultry producers.

The new price made extras 17c, standards 15c, and mediums 14 cents a dozen.

Butter prices were held intact during the late session of the product exchange with all cube values unchanged. This showing of near strength was made in face of the much weaker California trade and large sharp price losses at San Francisco.

Demand Growing

Because of the manipulative influences at work at Portland, this city was attracting much more butter from out-state points than recently, a condition that was expected to upset storage influences which continued chiefly responsible for the higher price on fresh stock.

There was a growing demand here for something to protect not only the trade but the consumer against the sale of cold storage butter of inferior quality as top fresh goods. Return of the old Oregon state brand was suggested.

Livestock Steady

Hog and calf markets show a rather steady tone along the wholesale way for country killed offerings. There was no change from recent values, which were generally maintained.

California lettuce deal has been straightened out. Imperial Valley shippers took a layoff of a half week and made no shipments.

Market for live chickens continued aggressive at recent prices here with demand from the outside favorable. All sorts were in favor.

Speeds Slower

Only a limited local call for dressed turkeys was showing and this consists chiefly for hens or very small toms around 28 cents a pound to retailer. Outside demand remained good for large toms.

At 14 cents the price on lambs was now so high here for country killed offerings that it does not take more than the nominal supply now in sight to take care of demand. Yearlings and ewes continued scarce and firm.

Much slower trade was suggested in the market for potatoes at Pacific Northwest sources although prices there were being held nominally at the former high point. Sales at consuming points were unusually limited.

Onions were slow in the country with only 2's moving here.

Hothouse rhubarb market was unchanged.

Cheese trade was more active.

Hothouse tomatoes holding steady for limited offerings.

Hothouse mushrooms were being held as low as 30 cents a pound.

Cranberries unusually depressed and as low as $2 for quarter barrels.

London Wheat Action Delayed

LONDON, Jan. 30, (AP)—Hopes that the international wheat commission would reach a decision on a minimum price fixing scheme before tomorrow went up in smoke of oratory today when more than a score of government envoys insisted on a chance to air their views.

A determination that the minimum price scheme must be tied up with other and more permanent measures for recovery frustrated the efforts of the Americans and others of the group of export nations represented to steer the scheme to a conclusion tonight.

Presses War Against Nazis
