Resents Question at Senate Inquiry

"I don't think you're fair" ... W. W. Atterbury, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, told what he thought of his interrogators at the Senate air and ocean mail contracts hearing, where he's strikingly pictured here. Testimony at the hearing disclosed that Senator David A. Reed conducted a filibuster to allow time for the awarding of a contract to a steamship line in which the Pennsylvania Railroad was interested.

Harpo's Back

You're wrong, folks. If you think that Harpo Marx, sporting a Russian fur cap, was putting on one of his acts when he arrived in New York from Moscow. Asked how he enjoyed his trip, this was merely how his face brightened up as he reported, "The vodka was good, and at times I was knee-deep in caviar."

Obituaries

When Dillinger Gang Appeared in Court

The courtroom of C. V. Budlong, Tucson, Ariz., justice of the peace, bristled with armed officers when members of the Dillinger gang were arraigned and held under $100,000 bail as fugitives. Left to right in foreground are Atty. J. L. Van Buskirk, and the prisoners, Charles Mackley, Harry Pierpont, John Dillinger, and the three women arrested with them.

Judge's Son Wins Wrigley Heiress

Their friends were surprised, but Mr. and Mrs. Denis Emons Sullivan, Jr., shown here honeymooning on a Honolulu-bound liner, weren't. They'd been planning their marriage for some time. The bride was Betty O'Neil, granddaughter of the late William Wrigley, gum magnate. Sullivan is the son of a Chicago judge.

Traylor Fights Pneumonia

Hear and lung specialists, using an oxygen tent, are fighting to save the life of Melvin A. Traylor, above, noted Chicago banker, seriously ill with pneumonia. Traylor was boomed for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1932.

GENERAL CONTRACT PLAN FOR ARMORY

The entire Klamath armory construction will be handled through one general contract, it was stated Thursday by District Attorney T. R. Gillenwaters upon his return from a conference in Portland with C. C. Hockley, PWA engineer. The general contractor will let sub-contracts. Gillenwaters said he sought information from Hockley as to the reason the armory grant was reduced $4000 from the original application. Hockley was to ask Washington. Procedure necessary in re-adjusting the armory plan to meet increased materials prices was outlined for the armory committee by Hockley. This work is now underway.

Convicts Blamed in Forgery Case

The Ewanna Box company forgery case has been almost definitely fastened on Buck Maxwell and Harlan Adams, now serving time in McNeil's island federal prison for counterfeiting, according to District Attorney T. R. Gillenwaters. Gillenwaters said that the pair were arrested on the federal charges after leaving here, and confessed to counterfeiting. He asserted a third confederate in the local case is in jail in California.

FLUSH KIDNEYS OF POISONS AND STOP GETTING UP NIGHTS

Thousands of men and women wonder why backache bothers them—why they have to visit the bathroom often at night—why flow is scanty and sometimes smart and burns. Any one of these symptoms mean that your kidneys and bladder need attention now before these minor symptoms develop into serious trouble. To flush out waste poisons and acid from kidneys, soothe your irritated bladder and put healthy activity into them, get a 35-cent package of GOLD MEDAL Haarem Oil Capsules and take as directed. This tried and true medicine always works—you'll feel better in a few days, as this supremely effective diuretic and kidney stimulant drives excess uric acid from the body. But be sure and get GOLD MEDAL Haarem Oil Capsules—the original and genuine right from Haarem in Holland. All good things are imitated.—Adv.
