MARTIN ASSAILS F. D. R. CRITICS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8. (AP) Declaring he was "fed up" on republican criticism of the administration's recovery program, Congressman Martin of Oregon arose in the house chamber Thursday to state that "I know President Roosevelt's program is a success in my state of Oregon and in the Pacific northwest."

"It has benefited the agriculture and lumber industries 50 per cent," Rep. Martin declared. "Wool growers are getting more than double the price a year ago."

"Wheat is now being worked off at more than 70 cents a bushel, whereas a year ago it was selling for 30 cents."

"The fruit industry has received $10,000,000 more for the crop this year than a year ago."

Gas Consumption Shows Increase

SALEM, Feb. 8. (AP)—Gasoline consumption for 1933 showed a slight increase over that used in Oregon a year before, with each of the past six months showing a large increase over corresponding months in 1932, a report of the secretary of state today showed. The total was 158,905,848 as against 158,199,327 gallons in 1932. The first half of 1933 showed a large decreased consumption.

Amusements

Vox—Now playing, Edmund Lowe in "Bombay Mail."

Pelican—Now playing, "Wild Boys of the Road" and new program.

Pine Tree—Now playing, Tim McCoy in "Hold the Press."

Rainbow—Now playing, Yvone Grey's "Heritage of the Desert."

RUTH CHATTERTON

Ruth Chatterton will play a new and unusual role in her latest screen vehicle, "Female," which arrives at the Pelican theatre tomorrow.

This glamorous star has had a long, unique and varied list of roles in her stage and screen career—ranging all the way from the touching, tearful "Madame X" to the ultra-sophisticated and indolent heroine of "The Rich Are Always With Us," and from the picturesque but hard-boiled "Prize Jenny" to the helpless rich woman of "The Crash." But never before has she appeared in the guise in which "Female" will present her: an efficient big business executive at the office and a woman who has her own love code at night.

AT THE PINE TREE

All the action of "Fog" Columbia production which opens at the Pine Tree theatre tomorrow, takes place aboard a transatlantic steamship immersed in mist—and the result is enough to make even the most stubbornly flat head of hair stand on end!

Fourteen characters, assembled from all walks of life, play important roles in "Fog." They are brought vividly to life by Donald Cook, Mary Brian, Reginald Denny, Helen Freeman, Robert McWade, Samuel S. Hinds, G. Pat Collins, Greta Meyer, Maude Eburne, Edwin Maxwell, Wallace Clarke, Montague Shaw and Reginald Barlow.

AT THE RAINBOW

Graham Green's best-selling novel comes to the screen of the Rainbow theatre tomorrow under its original title "Orient Express." Produced under the Fox Film banner, the picture is reported as being even more sensational than the book. Fox has reconstructed on an exact scale the deluxe train with its coaches and thundering engines, its cosmopolitan dining cars, and the milling crowds and noisy stations of Europe.

AT THE VOX

Bing Crosby, who appears with Marion Davies in "Going Hollywood," which comes Sunday to the Vox theatre, was born in Tacoma, Wash., on May 2. He was educated in Spokane and upon completing school took up a singing career. From orchestra he graduated to radio and more recently has appeared in motion pictures, among them being "The Big Broadcast," "College Humor" and "Too Much Harmony."

Six new song hits are introduced in Marion Davies' new starring picture, "Going Hollywood," written by Nacio Herb Brown and Arthur Freed, they include:

"Our Big Love Scene," "Going Hollywood," "We'll Make Hay While the Sun Shines," "Temptation," "Cinderella's Fella," "After Sundown."

Settlers of the Western Reserve in Ohio were so adept at cheese making that this section of the state once was called "Cheesedom."

A NEW LINE ON NECKLINES

New necklines allow for the greatest individuality. Sylvia Sidney wears an informal afternoon frock of wine red velvet with which a high rolled collar held in place about the neck by a wide tie of self material. Her matching beret has an intricately stitched crown.

Society News

ENDEAVORERS HONOR SOCIETY'S FOUNDERS
Klamath-Lake Christian Endeavor union held its regular rally on Thursday evening in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church. A program was held in the main auditorium followed by a social time. The rally was in observance of the founding of Endeavor fifty years ago. Many old-fashioned costumes were worn in keeping with the theme.

Those in attendance were: Patty O'Dell, Thelma Evans, Eleanor Evans, Olive Clapp, Lucille Arthur, Sue Merseaux, Estella Tunnel, Nettie Tompkins, John Luscombe, George Metcalf, Arthur Brooks, Gene Robinson, Iris Bates, June Cunningham, Thelma Parrish, Elwood McKim, Bill Colt, Everett Esgate, Pearl Jean Wilson, Ed Fredrick, Wanda Colt, Mildred Young, Violet Myers, Charles Uhlis, Harold Van der, Jackie Lane, Henry Landers, Cecil Green, Marvin Bailey, Carolyn Collier, Robert Yancey, Donna Pite, Mary Merseaux, Gretchen Hurn, Betty Esgate, Ruth Metcalf, Alice Landers, Beulah Smith, Gail Clapp, Zola Mae Perrin, Lawrence Spencer, Dorothy Uhlis, Glen Miller, Harold Uhlis, Robert Evans, Eldenia Smith, Viola Landers, Lavena McCollum, Bessy Hosley, Amy Williams, Gene Tipton, Marjory Johnson, Mr. A. Three tables of pinocle were in play, with high score going to Myrtle Donaldson, second high to Margaret Orr, and consolation to Georgia Collins.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Maymie Johnson on Upland street, February 15.

OLD DRAB COLORS SPURNED BY MEN

CHICAGO, Jan. 31. (UP)—The well-dressed gentleman's cravat should match, not his sex, but his lady companion's dress this year.

This and many other interesting innovations in the correct attire for men were revealed tonight by style experts at the joint convention of the National Association of Merchant Tailors of America and the Merchant-Tailor Designers' association.

Other novelties include the cocktail suits and the "new deal" leisure suits, the latter with trousers which do not take kindly to a shine. Tails on formal dress suits will almost reach the floor.

More than 300 of the nation's leading tailors and designers were present to display the new styles, many of which were imported from European capitals. It was the most extensive style show for men in America.

Styles for 1934 feature more color than at any time in 20 years. Shorts reveal an especially bright range of colors, and suits may be found all the way from wine colored to canary yellow. The trend is toward match-

LITERARY TEA

It isn't as the glamorous social figure of Washington that you see Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth, but as a new-comer to the world of letters. Author of a popular biography, Mrs. Longworth is shown as she appeared at a literary tea in New York.

served to 28 members and guests at 1 o'clock, and a business meeting and social hour followed.

ROCK CREEK—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hansberry, pioneer residents of the Rocky Point district, celebrated their ninetieth wedding anniversary recently when they had as week-end guests, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stuart and son, Rodney, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stuart and children and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Nowell and family, all of Klamath Falls.

The Fairhaven P-T-A card club met at the school cafeteria Thursday afternoon when six tables of bridge were in play. Dessert was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Galassy, Mrs. Britt, Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Boor. High score for the afternoon was won by Mrs. Percy Cook and low by Mrs. E. C. Schultz.

WEATHER

The Cyclo-Stormograph at Underwood's Pharmacy shows that the barometric pressure has been falling, very slightly, for the last 43 hours, but there is no indication of any great change in weather conditions. Aside from some cloudiness, Sunday gives promise of being another beautiful day.

The Tycoos recording thermometer registered maximum and minimum temperatures today as follows:

High 49; Low 27.

Forecast for next 24 hours: Fair with moderate temperatures.

The United States weather bureau reports no precipitation for the 24 hours ending Friday at 5 p. m.; 5.21 for the season to date; 6.65 normal; 4.08 last year.
