

WINTER SPORTS DIRECTORS TO MEET SUNDAY

Final plans for the snow carnival at Crater Lake March 18 will be made at a meeting of representatives of the six sponsoring organizations, to be held at Government camp Sunday. The organizations are the chambers of commerce of Bend, Klamath Falls and Medford, and the Rogue Snowmen, Crater Lake Ski Club and Bend Skyliners.

Invitations to send entrants to participate in the March 18 events have been sent to all Pacific northwest ski clubs from the local chamber of commerce. Both jumping and racing events are planned.

The events will be held on a hill near Government camp. Those who have seen the place say that it is a natural jump, and that an expert could leap 200 feet there.

Complaint Filed in Money Charge

A complaint was to be filed by the district attorney's office Thursday afternoon against Raleigh Hoylman, arrested by city police officers on charges of obtaining money under false pretenses.

Hoylman is accused of having stolen discharge tickets from Dunn and Baker Construction company. Authorities said the discharge tickets are honored by the company with checks when presented properly signed. Although Hoylman failed to obtain a check from the company, he is accused of having obtained money on the ticket from another source.

Democrats Lead in Registration

The democratic party continues to claim the cream of new registration at the county clerk's office.

Last week's new registrations totaled 68 democrats and 43 republicans.

AMUSEMENTS

Vox—Now playing, "Dinner at 8," with all-star cast.

Pelican—Now playing, Walt Galloway's band and vaudeville numbers on the stage; and "Once to Every Woman," with Fay Wray, on the screen.

Pine Tree—Now playing, "Straightaway," with Tim McCoy.

Rainbow—Now playing, "Night of June 13th," with Clive Brook, Charles Ruggles and Lila Lee.

AT THE VOX.

"Fugitive Lovers," the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer melodrama coming to the Vox theatre Sunday, brings a new and exciting form of entertainment to the screen.

At Richard Boleslavsky's brilliant direction, the story of romance and adventure aboard a great Greyhound bus bound west from New York city is thrilling from the first "shot" to the last smashing sequence.

Robert Montgomery has never given a truer performance than he does as the escaped convict, Madge Evans, singing more beautiful with each picture, again proves herself an exceptionally fine actress. The rest of the brilliant cast deserves equal praise.

AT THE PELICAN.

With an entirely new unit vaudeville show, Walt Galloway and his 10 Happy Band Boys come to the stage of the Pelican theatre again Friday night. Featured among the various acts are Bert Davis, singing more beautiful with each picture, again proves herself an exceptionally fine actress. The rest of the brilliant cast deserves equal praise.

ON THE SCREEN.

On the screen, Ralph Bellamy and Fay Wray are featured in "Once to Every Woman."

AT THE PINE TREE.

Roaring around the motor ovals at a thrilling speed, Tim McCoy puts plenty of thrills and excitement into his latest picture, "Straightaway," opening today at the Pine Tree theater. Many actual race drivers from nationally known tracks are seen with McCoy who drives the racing car that won the Indianapolis Sweepstakes in 1933.

AT THE RAINBOW.
Clive Brook, Charles Ruggles, Lila Lee, Gene Raymond, Frances Dee, Mary Boland and Adrienne Allen constitute the featured cast of "Night of June 13th," an interesting murder mystery which opens at the Rainbow theater today. The story entwines itself in the lives of four families and the complicated result makes excellent entertainment.

Editorials on News

(Continued From Page One) his hearers will yawn for it that among the representatives of the learned professions he did not make a bad showing for the man of business.

Dutch is a philosopher, and in addition he possesses a sense of humor.

That's a combination that's hard to beat.

YOU'VE wondered, in all probability, as to the answer to this question: "What are we going to do with all the young people who are coming out of the high schools and the colleges; how are they all going to find a place for themselves in the world?"

Well, Dutch answered that question on Thursday night. He said: Remember, for every baby that is born, some old buzzard kicks off. For every boy who hammers at the gates of business, or the professions, demanding admittance, some older man passes out by the back door of retirement.

"People don't go on living forever, you know. And when they die, somebody has to take their places. The one job this world has been doing with unflinching regularity, for thousands of years, is to absorb, in some way or other, the younger generations as they come along."

THAT tells the story pretty well, doesn't it? So, if you are young, don't worry lest there be no place for you when you grow up. There'll be a place, all right.

Your job will be to find it and FILL it.

AND don't, in your youthful arrogance, scorn the job of business man.

The world needs business men—can't get along without them. In fact, especially does it need HONEST business men: men who hold valiantly to the faith that for every dollar of profit earned or service must be given.

About every time the world has got into serious trouble, such as the depression we have been going through and still aren't out of, it has been because business men have become so greedy that they forgot this fundamental law that for every dollar of profit an honest dollar's worth of goods or service must be given.

And every time the world has been PULLED OUT of its troubles, it has been by honest business men whose fair dealing, straight thinking and hard work have made good the destruction wrought by greed and dishonesty. Don't forget that.

Lobbyists Estimate World War Benefits

Lobbyists for war veterans at Washington have figured out that the state of Oregon would receive $22,976,704 if the soldiers' bonus, or adjusted compensation, were paid in full.

The Klamath county figure is $750,684. Lake county veterans would get $116,426.

The Pope Toledo, a car manufactured in 1904, with no windshield, would go 100 miles on five gallons of gasoline.

DUFF EVANGELISTS DRAW LISTENERS

One of the problems which the Duff Irish trio of young evangelists has been facing for several months in Oregon cities has been to secure churches with auditoriums which would accommodate growing attendance, according to Rev. J. B. Coan, pastor of the First Methodist church, and chairman of the joint committee which has the official leadership of the series of union services sponsored by the Methodist and Presbyterian churches.

Mr. Coan conferred with several pastors last week in Grants Pass in whose churches the Duffs have been recently. He stated that in Ashland more than a thousand people crowded into an 800 capacity church.

was well attended and a fine interest was noted by the local pastors. The Duffs were given full charge of the evening programs and are getting their organization well under way.

There will be no Saturday evening service, but the committee is preparing to take care of the large attendance expected for Friday and Sunday evening. Efforts will be made, stated Rev. Smith of the Presbyterian church, to accommodate all who attend, though early arrival is urged. The services open promptly at 7:30.

A fine musical program is developed daily. Two choruses are organized and participate in each service. The Duffs themselves are instrumental and vocally with local talent to the service.

The first president to ride in an automobile was McKinley, in November, 1899.

The United States has a mile of good road for every seven cars in operation.

ONLY THE CENTER LEAVES FOR Luckies

1 Luckies do not use the top leaves... because top leaves are underdeveloped... they are not ripe... They would give a harsh smoke.

2 Luckies use only the center leaves of the finest tobacco plants... because the center leaves are the mildest, tenderest, smoothest.

3 Luckies do not use the bottom leaves, because bottom leaves are inferior in quality. They grow close to the ground, and are tough, coarse and always sandy.

This picture tells better than words the merit of your Lucky Strike. Luckies use only the center leaves. Not the top leaves, because those are underdeveloped—not ripe. Not the bottom leaves, because those are inferior in quality—they grow close to the ground and are tough, coarse and always sandy. The center leaves are the mildest leaves, the finest in quality. These center leaves are cut into long, even strands and are fully packed into each and every Lucky—giving you a cigarette that is always round, firm, completely filled—no loose ends. Is it any wonder that Luckies are so truly mild and smooth? And in addition, you know, "It's toasted"—for throat protection, for finer taste.

Lucky Strike presents the Metropolitan Opera Company

Saturday at 1:50 P. M., Eastern Standard Time, over Red and Blue Networks of NBC, Lucky Strike will broadcast the Metropolitan Opera Company of New York in the complete Opera "Lucia di Lammermoor"
