

SCHOOL GLEE CLUBS PRESENT PLAY SATURDAY

By GERENE TIPTON

The last presentation of the Klamath Union High School operetta, "An Old Spanish Custom," was given before a large audience in the school auditorium Saturday afternoon. The first presentation was given Friday evening.

The play was presented by both the advanced and elementary glee clubs under the direction of Mrs. Madge Hampton.

Harry Jones took the male leading part, Ruth Peterson and Lenore McCandless took the feminine lead roles.

Stage settings were attractive and lighting effects upon the players during the choruses brought out the colorful costumes and settings.

Special features in dancing were the "Irish Jig" danced by Audrey O'Neill and Jimmie Richter; the "Spanish Tango" danced by Betty Crawford and Stewart Patti; the "Butler Tap Dance" given by Charles Walker; and "Chinese and Spanish" danced by June Johnson, Peggy White, Irma Wise, and Isabel Stanley. The costumes for dancing were colorful and becoming to the dances portrayed.

The orchestra under the direction of Harry Borel played during intermissions.

Those who were responsible for the success of the operetta were Mrs. Madge Hampton, director; Mr. Harry Borel, orchestra; Miss Dorothy Jones, dances; Miss Edna Fitts and the Home Economic club, costumes; Dolores Martin, accompanist; Ruth Begley, prompter; Bob Richards, and Mervin Smith, advertising; Mrs. B. B. Blomquist, and Miss Virginia West, make-up; Charles Doll and the stage crew, staging; and Phyllis Gates, ushers.

Singers in the chorus were: Marguerite Chase, Helen Cooley, Alice Mae Cornforth, Ferrell Dodson, Eleanor Evans, Geneva Kennerly, Mildred Knapp, Frances Reynolds, Nell Shepherd, Jewell Stallings, Edna May Thomas, Julia Tomlenson, Barbara Wales, Irma Wise, Margaret Yaden, Ardelle Yaden, Patricia Barrett, Donna Blanchard, Marjorie Brown, Dorothy Buchanan, Vivian Carter, Leone Cooley, Leatha Donelson, Lorraine Dunlap, Shirley French, Patricia Foster, Ernestine Gratton, Jean Harvey, Lucille Hetner, Audrey Hill, Marie Lewin, Audrey Lucas, Alice Lyle, Frances Morrison, Neata Nelson, Hazel Richardson, Lucy May Shannon, Hazel Shepherd, Lucille Smith, Doris Steinselfer, Thea Timmons, Bob Anderson, Jim Barnes, Murray Britton, Arthur Brooks, Bob Ellingson, Percy Evans, Hugh Fenwick, Dean French, Harry Goeller, Millard Pedigo, Kenneth Rhoades, Eddie Richards, Julius Sanders, Fremont Stephenson, Burke Yaden.

CHURCH FILLED FOR DUFF TRIO

Sunday evening marked the fourth appearance of the Duff Irish Trio in the union series sponsored by the local Methodist and Presbyterian churches, and the Presbyterian church in which the meetings are held was filled.

A senior chorus of 50 voices filled the space allotted for it. The musical features, which are given much prominence by the Duffs, occupied a large part of the Sunday service period. A juvenile chorus of several score boys and girls entertain nightly.

"It has been clearly demonstrated to those attending," stated Rev. A. Theodore Smith, "that the Duffs present a most attractive and contagious brand of modern day Christianity."

On Monday evening, which the Duffs state is often one of their most popular nights, the entire program will center in music, narratives, anecdotes and reminiscences of the sea. The subject of Walter Duff will be "There Go The Ships." One of the pleasant features of the Duffs is their fund of native and spontaneous Irish wit and humor.

The Duff series is announced to continue this week in the First Presbyterian church, beginning nightly at 7:30 o'clock. Following the service tonight, five young people's organizations will honor the Duffs with a reception and party in the social hall of the First Methodist church.

Word has been received from Ashland that a number of persons will attend the meeting here some evening soon. The committee in charge is faced with the problem of providing seating capacity.

LOST RIVER DAIRY NAMED DISTRIBUTOR

Announcement of the appointment of the Lost River Dairy of Klamath Falls, as Rheinglander beer distributor for Klamath Falls and adjacent territory, was announced yesterday by J. C. Donnelly, general manager of the Century Brewing Association of Seattle. Mr. R. C. Woodruff is manager of the Lost River Dairy. Mr. Woodruff has announced plans for complete dealer, dispenser, cafe and restaurant distribution of Rheinglander beer in Klamath Falls.

The dealers throughout the northwest where Rheinglander has already made its bow are particularly pleased that the beer is being backed by a consistent advertising campaign, the majority of which is being done in newspapers.

The Lost River Dairy has ordered a carload of Rheinglander draught and bottled beer and has complete warehousing and refrigerating facilities for its perfect distribution to dealers.

Return Home — Mrs. Arthur Larson (Helen Abbey) who has been spending the past fortnight with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Abbey at their home on Lincoln street, left Sunday for her home in Eugene. Mrs. Abbey and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Abbey accompanied their guest to Medford where she was met by Mr. Larson. The party spent several hours in Medford visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Abbey and family.
