National and Local Markets

PORTLAND EGG MART QUOTED STRONG TODAY

PORTLAND, March 8. (AP)—A strengthening in tone of the egg market here was apparent today in the comment of the trade. One large dealer said the call for Oregon eggs to go into storage for eastern buyers is increasing. This organization did not reduce its buying price when local values were cut a few days ago.

The action of the produce exchange in quoting and selling only on the basis of government grades was regarded as a distinct move for the better. Oregon standards are now being ignored, except for the marking of cases, and a demand is being made that the state standards be exchanged to conform to U. S. grading rules.

Extra grade butter was considered no better than either standard or prime first cubes. If the quotations on the produce exchange reflect sentiment. All three are now quoted alike. There
