Colonial Inns, Taverns Discussed at D.A.R. Meeting Monday

A delightfully interesting paper on Old Colonial Inns, Taverns and Ordinaries, illustrated with quaint pictures, was presented at the regular meeting of Eulalona chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Alfred D. Goble on Joyjoy street. Mrs. Goble was the speaker of the evening, and held her audience in rapt interest during the address. Mrs. Goble carried on a great deal of research work in preparation of this talk, all of which dealt with pre-revolutionary times.

Mrs. Lloyd D. Goble was assistant hostess for the evening, and Mrs. F. C. Adams, a special guest.

The state conference of D. A. R. of Oregon will be held in Portland on March 25, 26 and 27, and it is expected that a large delegation from Eulalona chapter will be in attendance.

All sessions of the conference will be held in the Woodmen of the World hall, with Willamette chapter, D. A. R., as hostess, and Mrs. John V. Richardson, regent for Oregon, presiding.

At the last meeting of Eulalona chapter, Mrs. Thomas Hampton, regent, appointed a committee consisting of Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg, Mrs. Harry Ackley and Mrs. Wilbur Jones to represent the chapter in Americanization work in the community.

Anyone wishing to obtain information relative to this work is asked to call any member of this committee.

RECENT BRIDE HONORED AT BRIDGE AND SHOWER

Mrs. Glenn W. Palmer, (Christine Johnson) was honored Wednesday evening by a shower at the home of Miss Helen Holbrook on Alameda street.

The evening was spent in playing bridge, after which the hostess served lovely refreshments. Mrs. Palmer received many beautiful and useful gifts.

Those who honored the recent bride were: Misses Estelline Bell, Audrey O'Neil, Mayme Lawson, Alyse Hector, Edrie Pernell, Audrey Dyer, Jerry LaMeir, Jean Morrison, Agnes Croker, Marie Gaskins, Mrs. Howard Pernell, Betty Crawford, Marion Olsen, Jean Krausberg, Gertrude Olsen, Ethel Mae Driscoll, Pearl Jean Wilson, and the hostess Helen Holbrook.

PAST NOBLE GRAND CLUB HOLDS LUNCHEON

The Past Noble Grand club met at the I. O. O. F. hall March 6 for the regular monthly 1:00 o'clock potluck luncheon, with Mrs. Margaret Biden and Mrs. Lulu Hill as hostesses.

Covers were laid for 18 around a table gaily decorated with yellow jonquils, pink carnations and violets.

Following luncheon a business and social afternoon was spent in the lodge parlors, the members being engaged in needlework for the I. O. O. F. home in Portland.

Members present were: Mesdames H. E. Jones, Frances Boyd, Lulu Hill, W. M. Wohlauer, E. L. Palmerton, Lee Bean, J. P. Goulet, Charlotte Martin, Imogene Hampton, Margaret Biden, C. B. House, W. J. Steinmetz, A. Langer, Katharine Ess, Myrtle Kester, John Uerling and Pear Hugo, a visiting member from Washington.

Mrs. W. J. Steinmetz and Mrs. Albert Langer will be hostesses to the club April 3.

PLANS COMPLETE FOR ST. PATRICK'S DANCE

Invitations to the St. Patrick's Dance to be given Saturday evening, March 17 at the Willard hotel by the Winter Dancing club, will go into the mail early this week, according to an announcement from the committee.

A number of clever novelties and favors, all carrying out the spirit of the day and its verdant color, will be features of the dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Junior Daggett, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Martin and Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd D. Goble will be hosts and hostesses for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Sigmund Gross of San Francisco were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Wescher at their home on North Ninth street on Thursday evening. Mrs. Gross was formerly Miss Harriett Sugarman.

Approximately 175 members of the personnel of the Safeway stores in Klamath Falls, with their friends, enjoyed a party and dance last Sunday evening at the Willard hotel.

The hours of the party were from 5:30 until 9:30 o'clock, and a delightful program was presented during the evening. Music for dancing was furnished by Roy Clark's orchestra.

SPECIAL SERVICE FOR SCOUTS SET

Twenty-two years ago on March 12 the Girl Scouts were organized in this country in Atlanta, Georgia. The movement was largely inspired through the Girl Guide movement of England, a companion organization to the Boy Scouts, and under the leadership of Lady Baden-Powell, wife of the founder of the Boy Scout movement.

In these 22 years a great organization of 318,757 active Girl Scouts has grown up in this country under the leadership of 21,629 captains and lieutenants, in 12,022 troops.

Klamath Falls has an active organization of 120 Girl Scouts with a strong local committee of interested women. The local organization is steadily growing. On Sunday the 22nd birthday will be observed with a service to be held in the Community Congregational church in which all the troops will participate. An interesting program has been planned which includes slides and talk on bird conservation by Hugh Worcester. A "living" birthday cake will be lighted and the ceremony of the laws enacted. The service starts at 7:30.

Balsiger, Moore Back From South

Elmer Balsiger and Vernon Moore, of Balsiger Motor company, returned to Klamath Falls Friday night after spending several days attending Ford dealer meetings in San Francisco.

The meetings were under the leadership of W. C. Cowling, general sales director of the Ford Motor company.

"Ford sales are further increasing their lead in the automobile field," Moore said, "especially on the Atlantic coast."

Petition Filed—Claude McCollough has filed in probate court a petition for letters of administration to administer co-partnership assets of his deceased partner, Ralph W. Horan, who was shot and killed February 12.

Tourist Season Gets Under Way

Opening of the tourist season was heralded at the chamber of commerce Saturday with receipt of a letter from San Diego, where six persons want to spend a vacation in this area.

The group is particularly interested in Diamond Lake, and the chamber dispatched information about the lake and its surroundings to San Diego immediately. The party expects to spend a month vacationing here.

SHORTER WORKING HOURS

The short day of the "New Deal" has brought a problem to the "office," the unproductive end of the business, with the necessity for more and complete records.

If you are to keep ahead of your competitors it is imperative that the work of the office be planned so as to more quickly and accurately handle the increased work.

It is much easier to get through your work in a modernly equipped office. Get the notion out of your head that YOU can get by with the old methods. Things have changed and you will either have to adjust your business to the new system, or else drop out of the picture.

We are at your service and will be glad to make recommendations toward improving your office layout and equipment without any obligation to you whatever. Get acquainted with the many different appliances and methods for reducing the overhead cost.
