HERALD SERVICE

paper by 6:50 p. m. are requested to call the Herald business office, phone 1900, and a paper will be sent by special carrier.

The Evening Herald

Local Forecast

Generally fair. High 65; Low 43. OREGON: Cloudy, unsettled.

Day's News

THIS writer, dropping in Walt Waggoner yesterd Warroner yesterday, found him washing mushroomsnot a ticky little handful, but s good two-bushel lot.

'Where'd you find them?" was the prompt query.

"That's for you to find out." Walt answered, "but it wasn't more than three blocks from the Herald and News office."

FANCY that!

Two bushels of mushrooms right here in the center of the fourth largest city in Oregon and the biggest city east of the Lountains' in Oregon or California.

him over 15 minutes to dig the two bushels.

THESE particular mushrooms, agaricus variety—if that means anything to you.

They are of the pink-gilled type, and mushrooms with pink gills are presumably safe. They ranged in size from buttons about the heft of a small walnut to big. umbrella-shaped ones weighing s pound or more.

The biggest mushroom Walt ever heard of, in this country, was found several years ago by Doc Westerfeld, and weighed TWENTY pounds. He himself has found them as big as 12 pounds.

The big ones, he says, are just as good as the little ones.

THE Klamath country, so far as Walt knows. produces mushrooms more prolifically than anywhere else in the country.

Back in 1922, he relates, a young fellow here got a smart idea and cashed in on it. He made a deal with the St. Francis botel, in San Francisco, to take all the mushrooms of a certain specified mushrooms of a certain specified time as required by law." quality he could ship.

And boy! how he did ship mushrooms! He poured them in on the St. Francis in boxes and barrels and crates—anything he could find to ship it. But the appetites of the hotel's customers were equal to the strain, and they took all he sont.

He cleared $3,000 in one season and bought him a hig truck Brown of Marion county several servers and bought him a hig truck From and Marion county several servers.

HOLLYWOOD, March 29 .-Editor The Evening Herald: Mr. Wrigley, the chewing wax man, did a thing today that will eventually become universal. He set aside a sum of money for unemployment insurance. He put by a million dollars. On April first steel will raise wages 10 per cent. No April fool's joke out of that.

Funniest thing in this controversy over a bill to regulate Wall street. Wall street now wants to write their own bill. They are pleading guilty, but want the privilege of pronouncing their own sen-

Wonder who the brain-trustor was that wanted us to go

Yours, This Rojeren

Price Five Cents

KLAMATH FALLS, ORE., THURSDAY, MARCH 29, 1934

Number 6079

ELI VETO DEFEA State Treasurer Out For Governorship

Rufus C. Holman to Seek Election on G.O.P. Ticket

And Walt swears it didn't take Brief Statement of Candidacy Issued From Salem Office.

> SENATOR BURKE WILL WITHDRAW

Brown's Intentions of Continuing Unknown; Thomas Removed.

SALEM, March 29, (A)-Rufus C. Holman, state treasurer, an-nounced today that he would be a candidate for the republican nomination for governor.

Holman was in Portland to-day, but his announcement was released through his office in Salem. In his brief statement he

"I am persuaded that it is my duty to the progressives and to the members of the republican party of the state and to all those who labor for their daily bread, who have favored me with nomi

tion as secretary of state. It was stated here authoritatively that if Shell runs, P. J. Stadleman, incumbent, will not, but that if Snell decides he will not have a try at the office, Stadel-man will file for the republican and dance to be held at the Willard hotel Thursday night have been announced.

BASKETBALL TEAM

They are Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kerns, Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Paul T. Jackson, Dr. and Mrs. Paul T. Jackson, Dr. and Mrs. Waltor Locke, Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Molatore and L. Orth Slæmore.

The K. U. H. S. basketball team's advance to the finals of the state tournament prompted the event tonight, which will be held from S to 11. Members of the team are Darrell Miller, Howard Scroggin, Carl Exchloff, Nello Glovanini, Edward Wakeman, John Pastega, Horace Hodge, Walter Johnson, The coach is Dwight French and manager, James Kaler.

The sponsoring organizations for tonight's reception are the senior and junior chambers of commerce, Rotary club, Twenty-Thirty club and Willard hotel.

Primary Race Takes Shape; Deadline Near

Representatives (2)
Henry Semon and Harry
Bolvin, democrats; Charles R.
Williams and W. C. Van
Emon, republicans. Circuit Judge

Arthur Schaupp, Wi Ganong, D. E. Fletcher, District Attorney William George Chastala, democrat, and Hardin Blackmer, J. C.

and Hardin Blackmer, J. C.
O'Nelli, U. S. Balentine, Fay
Morris, republicans.
Commissioner
Roy Taber, Jack Almeter,
W. H. Hawkins, Emil Dreber,
democrats; R. H. Anderson and Ed Dunham, republicans.
Assessor

W. T. Lee, democrat; Sam Miller and Alva Lewis, repub-

Samuel's Ship Puts in At Turkish Port of Istanbul.

CHICAGO, March 29 (A)— Martin J. Insuli emerged from a county jail cell today to be led before the bar of justice he had striven 17 months to evade.
Standing silent while his counsel deferred a formal plea to the two indictments, alleging the petites of the hote's customers were equal to the strain, and they took all he sont.

He cleared $3,000 in one season, and bought him a big truck with the money.

SAN FRANCISCO, by the way, still eats mushrooms, but the bulk of them are new grown in captivity—in tunnels, they say, up above Santa Rosa; the tunnels of old abandoned mines, the story goos.

That's taking a new kind of gold out of the ground.

SPEAKING of the way mushrooms grow here, Walt recalls that a few years ago some friends came down from Portland and craved mushrooms, in bulk—the bigger the bulk the better.

So they climbed in the car and started out, Half an hour later (Continued on Page Four) Sandiar W. E. Burko of Xanhill Standing silent while his counsel detorn. Burko would decide to run. Burko would parks a candidate.

Burke and State Senator Sam Brown of Marion county several backs ago announced their Intentions of seeking the governorship on the 'True progressive republican platform.

Inasmuch as Burke declared he would parks a burke declared he would pursue. Those who direct was seen today that course Brown of Marion withdraw in party interest.

Holman's announcement of $364,000 from his former utilities companies the elderly defendant quickly gained his freedom under $50,000 honds and was told he might go be hould of the Mould step aside if Holman should run, there was considerable speculation here today as dwhat course Brown of Marion with factours and the would pursue the would p

EXPECTED HERE

An end to widespread show HONORED TONIGHT An end to widespread snow-ers over the Klamath Basin which have prevailed since Sat-Patrons and patronesses for the basketball victory reception and dance to be held at the Williard hotel Thursday night have been announced.

LAST MINUTE RUSH NEARS FOR PRIMARY

Van Emon Announces for Republican Post in Legislature.

JUDGE DUNCAN'S INTENTIONS WAIT

Van Vactor Believed Considering Entering for Prosecutor.

By Malcolm Epley
Approach of April 2, deadline for candidacy filing, is forcing the issue with hold-out candidates and the next few days will see the lines of conflict definitely drawn in the 1934 pri-

Prospects at this time are Prospects at this time are that a contest in the state representative race will be postponed until fall. W. C. Van Emon announced his candidacy on the republican ticket Thursday, making it an even four candidates for the four selections to be reade by source of the two parmade by voters of the two parties.

Judge Not Announced

Those now in the race are Van Emon and C. R. Williams, republicans: Harry Bolvin and Henry Semon, democrats. Unless somebody comes in at the last minute, fireworks will be unlikely in this situation until next fail.

Van Emon is a local attorney and active republican. There are now two attorneys, a farmer and a county commissioner seeking legislative honors from this county.

Judge W. M. Duncan has yet

Judge W. M. Duncan has yet to announce for circuit judge, but his cards and advertisements are out. John Irwin, recall leador, is reported having said the recall fight had given him A-1 publicity for a judgeship cam-

Van Vactor Undecided The district attorney candidacy lay-out appears to be about complete, unless D. E. Van Vactor decides to run. Van Vactor is deputy district attor-(Continued on Page Six)

JORDAN PETITION

SALEM, Mar. 29. (AP)-Fol lowing the supreme court opinion yesterday, refusing to grant a re-hearing to Theodore Jordan, Negro, sentenced to hang by the Klamath circuit court for the murder of Pullman car steward, members o Pullman car steward, memoers of the international Labor Defense league began an effort to commute the sentence to life imprisonment through intercression with Gover-nor Julius L. Meier.

Its appeal to the supreme court carrying the matter to the state legislature through speakers and "Jordan must not hang" banners. Hundreds of pamphlets and postal

O. S. C. Boy Gun Victim

PAUL KUTCH, 21, KILLED IN FRATERNITY HOUSE

TRAGEDY.

CORVALLIS, Ore., March 29, (P)—Paul Kutch, 21, of Albany, a student at Oregon State college, was killed here today when a room-mate, Robert Veale, 20, of Alameda, Calif., accidentally discharged a revolver he was cleaning. The bullet passed through Kutch's head.

Coroner A. L. Keeney said Max Rothenberger of Portland, who was in the room at the time of the tragedy, stated that Kutch rethe tragedy, stated that Kutch re-turned from a dance shortly af-ter midnight, and found Veale cleaning the revolver. There was considerable bantering, Rothen-berger said, and the two young men suggested a mock duel, Kutch picking up a small caliber rifie. Rothenberger said he paid no more attention to the pair un-til he heard a shot and saw Kutch fall.

An inquest will be held follow-

Administration's Bill Is Passed and Sent on to Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 29 (P)

The administration's reciprocal tariff bill carrying amendments limiting its authority to three years and preventing foreign debt cancellation was passed today by the house and sent to the senate.

WASHINGTON, March 29 (P)

The house today placed a three-year limitation on the administration's reciprocal tariff bill.

It was proposed by Chairman Doughton (D., N. C.), of the house ways and means committee, who explained it was offered to meet criticisms as to the constitutionality of the measure.

It has the approval of the administration.

SINO FISHERMEN

the sentence to life imprisonment through interceasion with Governor Julius L. Meier.

Representatives of the league called at the sovernor's office yesterday afternoon with the plea that Jordan not hang.

The league took up the case upon its appeal to the supreme court from the elements, said Chinese reports from the south.

A number of survivors were reported to have been saved by a Chinese customs cruiser.

The latest report said the ty-cards have been received at the governor's office and by members of the supreme court.

The latest report said the typhoon struck in the vicinity of Waiang Monday night.

City Prepares for Easter; Church Services Announced

Easter rabbits in hutch and in woods are preparing themselves for the annual egg-laying phenomenon, while shop windows are burgeoning with colors as gay as the bunnies' eggs to tempt maid and matron into stepping out and buying new costumes for the big day.

Factor rabbits in hutch and in parade will not be ruined by rain.

Lenten church services which have been continuing throughout the past few weeks at various with Good Friday and Holy Saturday services before Easter day.

the bunnies' eggs to tempt maid and matron into stepping out and buying new costumes for the big day.

Many have already purchased Easter finery, which is hung away in the closet and only displayed a few dozen times each day to admiring and envious friends.

Anxious eyes scan the weather forecasts and many a fervent heart is hoping that the Easter (Continued on Page Six) churches will come to a climax to think and at various with Good Friday and Holy Saturday services before Easter day.

Solemn and impressive masses and result of the murder of her daughter-in-law, Rheta.

Solemn and impressive masses still too feeble to walk, as a result of the heart attacks which once stopped her trial, Dr. Wyne-knucly, the chief of the churches, and heart is hoping that the Easter illies will be featured in all of the churches, and heart is hoping that the Easter (Continued on Page Six)

NAMED TODAY

Group Will Have Authority to Settle Disputes.

COMMITTEE WILL VIEW COMPLAINTS

Number of Members Limited to Six; Regional Groups Planned.

Kutch fall.

An inquest will be held following the arrival of Veale's father from Alameda. The tragedy occurred in the study room of the Lambda Chit Alpha fraternity. Veale is the son of C. A. Veale, superintendent of the Southern Pacific system at Oakland.

Kutch was the son of Alice J. Kutch Albany widow.

Veale is an expert marksman, his friends here said, and owns two rifles and a piatol found in the room. He had just finished cleaning the pistol as Kutch came in. He had reloaded it, but apparently did not realize he had done so.

WASHINGTON, March 29. GP, —Approval of a national labor complaints committee for the lumber industry, to settle workers' allegations of violation of the NRA administrator. Half the members will be nominated by the code authority, and the other half by President Roosevelt, on recommendation of the NRA labor advisory board.

To Settle Complaints.

An administration member of the code authority will serve on the committee with no vote, but the power to veto its actions pending review by Johnson.

Seven regional committees of two to six members will be established.

The national committee for the present will have six members, though it may later be enlarged Johnson has authorized the Na tional Lumber Manufacturers as-sociation, industry code author-ity, to settle labor complaints and trade practice disputes.

PORTLAND, March 29. (19) A forest conservation program was discussed here today by timber owners, loggers and foresters of the Portland district at a meeting designed to bring conservation methods under the servation methods under the terms of the national lumber code. The meeting here was one of several scheduled this week in the Douglas fir region.

GRANTS PASS, Ore., March 29, (P)—Sheriff's officials sta-tioned themselves at the junction of the Redwood and Pacific highways here this afternoon on receiving a report that a man be-lieved to be John Dillinger was heading toward this city from Rogue River, just over the line in Jackson county. The call came from a state po-lice officer. The sheriff and his force left hurriedly. No details were immediately available.

Police were agog Thursday, when a report came from St. Francis Park, that a huge yellow sedan, carrying five men and two machine guns, was headed toward the city. the city.

Heavily armed investigating parties were sent out to meet the suspicious automobile, but by the process of natural shrinkage the machine had become a small yellow coups, carrying no machine guns, and only two men, by the time it reached the outskirts of the city, according to police re

WOMAN PHYSICIAN

CHICAGO, March 29, (A)— Calm and dry eyed, Dr. Alice Lindsay yWnekoop began her trip

Government Seeks Source of Revenue

Senate Action Wednesday Night Brings First Major F. D. R. Overthrow;

WASHINGTON, March 29, (AP)-The administraquery of government heads after the turbulent capitol scenes that accompanied the break between congress and the chief executive.

open. Early speculation had it that either new taxes would be suggested or a deficiency appropriation voted to expand the budget by the needed amount.

much more.

Democratic Leader Predicts New Measure to Meet Cost.

WASHINGTON, March 29, (P)
—Representative Byrns, the democratic leader, told newspaper men today it was "entirely possible" that President Roosevelt would ask new taxes to meet expenditures caused by passage of the independent offices hill over his veto.

his veto. The measure, providing additional appropriations for war vet-erans and government employes, was enacted into law last night when the senate joined the house in over-riding President Roosevelt's wishes. Budget Will Be Exceeded It was estimated by the president in his veto message that the expenditures authorized by the legislation would exceed budget estimates by $228,000,000.

legislation would exceed budget estimates by $228,000,000.

"I do not know the president's plans," Byrns added, "but in view of the position he expressed in his veto message, it is entirely possible that he will ask congress to provide additional revenue."

Tax Bill Charge

Gallery Turns Noisy.

Announcement of the vote by Vice-President Garner brought cheers, shouts and applause from the chair there had been previous outbursts both on the senate floor and in the crowds above.

Washington

"Why," he asserted, "only four years ago last June, the house passed 290 to 14 a Spanish war veterans pension bill over President Hoover's veto.

votes; President Roosevelt got 72." Cash Bonus Vlewed Now that congress has gone contrary to the president on dis-ability compensation, leaders of (Continued on Page Six)

"President Hoover got only 14

STARTS LONG TERM President Roosevelt anchored to-day off Settlement Point in the warm waters of the grif stream

for Vets Benefits

228 Millions Needed

tion pondered without immediate answer today on where to get another $228,000,000—the cost of a surprising overthrow of President Roosevelt's first major veto. "What'll we use for money?" that in effect was the

There was no quick reply. Several courses were

The latter course alone, without providing new revenue, would mean swelling the public debt just that

The senate's action last night, after seven hours of furious debate, did not cause quite the surprise engendered when the overwhelmingly democratic house defeated the veto.

By a three-vote margin of 63 to 27, the senate engraved on the statute books the $330,000,000 independent office appropriation bill.

G. O. P. Ranks Solid.
In it were the increased payments for veterans and government employes which had been the bone of contention.

the bone of contention.

Republicans—33 in all—stood in solid phalanx for the bill. They were joined by 29 democrats and the lone Farmer-Labor member. Shipstead of Minnesota. All 27 voting to sustain the president came from the democratic side.

Stirring scenes accompanied the vote. Opponents of the veto ignored all pleas by the democratic leaders that such action might shake confidence in President Roosevelt at a time when it was needed.

Gallery Turns Noisy.

Tax Bill Charge

It was pointed out, however, that new taxes or increased rates might be added to the tax bill already passed by the house and now pending in the senate.

Byrns laughed at republican statements that President Roosevelt has suffered the 'worst defeat in recent years' on the independent offices bill.

"Why," he asserted, "only four E. R. Remains Silent.

F. R. Remains Sflent. While official Washington listened for Mr. Roosevelt's answer, it recalled that he had declared the bill went $228,000,000 beyond his budget estimates with no pro-vision as to how this sum would be obtained. be obtained.

In his veto message he invelghed chiefly against the principle of a vetorans' "service ponsion." This he said the bill set

Now that congress has gone contrary to the president on disability compensation, leaders of (Continued on Page Six)

YACHT NOURMAHAL

RESTS OFF COAST

MIAMI, Fla., March 25 (P)—

President Roosevelt anchored today off Settlement Point in the warm waters of the grif stream to begin his vacution with some fishing and swimming.

Settlement Point commonly is known as West End on the great Bahama Island, about 55 miles northeast of Miami.

Vincent Astor, owner of the yacht Nourmahai that is carrying the president, sent the following message early today to Marvin H. McIntyre, presidential secretary, located here:

"Hal fine aight. Now anchored off Sandy Cay, northwest of Settlement Point, The prosident without review of their cases to determine if the disabilities were of service origin.

Observers found much to talk about on the possible political repercussions of the vote. They were trying to decide whether the 230 limits the president and 210 in the house who voted against the president had more liberal veterans' provisions than to begin his vacution with some fishing and swimming.

Settlement Point commonly is known as West End on the great Bahama Island, about 55 miles northeast of Miami.

Vincent Astor, owner of the yacht Nourmahai that is carrying the president, sent the following message early today to Marvin H. McIntyre, presidential secretary, located here:

"Hal fine aight. Now anchored off Sandy Cay, northwest of Settlement Point, The prosident with his opposed the money policies of the president was the chief battle ery of the administration.

Elections Will Count.

There was complete silence when Carter Glass, the Virginia democrat who has opposed the money policies of the president was the chief battle ery of the administration.

Hal fine aight. Now anchored to the service origin.

Observers found much to the president was the president at a time when confidence in him was the chief battle ery of the administration.

Elections Will Count.

There was complete silence when Carter Glass, the Virginia demo