

EVENTS OF WEEK IN KLAMATH FALLS SOCIETY CIRCLES, CLUB GROUPS AND FRATERNAL ORGANIZATIONS

Tulip Show Promises to Be of Major Interest in Social Life of the City

TAKING advantage of the remarkable early spring which is bringing out blossoms in Klamath Falls gardens, the Women's Library club is announcing the Tulip garden show as the most interesting event of the post-Easter season.

Mr. J. Percy Wells is general chairman for the tulip show, and many prizes are to be offered for various displays.

The iris show, held last year in the spacious gardens of the E. R. Macartney home on Washington street hill, under the auspices of the Library club, was one of the loveliest affairs of the spring, and the tulip show promises to offer even greater scope for gardening enthusiasts.

Committees who will assist Mrs. Wells in planning the tulip show will be announced in the near future.

Many gay spring dances are being planned for the coming weeks, offering a striking contrast to the quietude of the Lenten season.

The last dance of the Winter Dancing club's season is set for April 14, and will be held at the Willard hotel. A light-hearted informal atmosphere with an out-of-doors tang will prevail at this dance which closes a most successful season.

Invitations for the "spring sports dance," as it has been termed, will go into the mails next week.

A number of early spring, and Easter weddings have given added interest to an already interesting social season of varied activity in Klamath Falls and the community surrounding the city.

A floor show, featuring some of the most popular local specialty dancers was planned, and dancing was scheduled to begin at 9:30 o'clock.

Hosts and hostesses for the evening were announced as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Henri Conrad, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Knudson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fulton.
