Daring Return of Hapsburg Gets Forecast

(Copyright 1934 by United Press)
BRUSSELS, April 5, (UP)—Action in the daring plot to restore the Hapsburgs to the throne of Austria was seen presaged today by word that young Archduke Otto and his mother, the former Empress Zita, were evacuating their exile castle at Steenockerzeel before July 1.
The United Press learned on reliable authority close to the long exiled pair that Otto, Zita and other children in the erstwhile imperial family of Austria and Hungary were already removing some of their effects preparatory to departure.
It was explained to tradesmen and servants long faithful to them in their unhappy life away from their fatherland that they were forced to vacate their commodious quarters because the son of the Marquis De Croix, owner of the castle, is planning to marry and occupy it himself.
The future residence of Archduke Otto and the Empress Zita—as she is still known to her friends throughout the continent—remained a secret.
Many believed that they would be permitted to return to Austria, where a strong monarchist movement in recent months has been tending toward making Otto's dreams, and those of his ambitious and beautiful mother, come true.
This view was lent credence by the fact that last month numerous tenants at the Hapsburg former imperial residence in Vienna, were handed notices to vacate the premises not later than August 1. The official explanation in Austria was that various ministries in the government of Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss needed the space in the old palace for offices and other uses.

Golden Miller Jumps to Lead to Win Grand National

The turning point in the classic Grand National Steeplechase at Aintree that more than 250,000 spectators cheered, is strikingly recorded here as Golden Miller (left) overtook Delaneige (right) at the last jump and sprinted home the winner by five lengths. Golden Miller's time for the four and one-half mile course (world's most difficult) was 90:20 2-5, fastest ever made in the almost 100 year history of the Grand National.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE PELICAN

Pelican—Now playing, "Son of Kong." Tomorrow, "Ann Vickers," with Irene Dunne and Walter Huston.
Pine Tree—Now playing, "Bedside." Tomorrow, "Hold That Girl," with James Dunn and Claire Trevor.
Rainbow—Now playing, "Night World." Tomorrow, "Deluge."
Vox—Now playing, "Day of Reckoning," with Madge Evans and Richard Dix.

AT THE PELICAN

With women constantly enlarging their sphere in life, the question of whether or not a career other than that of wife and mother is compatible with feminine happiness is often a subject for controversy.

This question is said to be treated fearlessly and frankly in "Ann Vickers," latest and most sensational of Sinclair Lewis' best selling novels, the screen version of which has gone into edition after edition since it was published in 1932. "Ann Vickers" has aroused discussion such as few works of fiction ever have.

Irene Dunne and Walter Huston are co-starring.
The leading supporting parts are in the hands of such outstanding favorites as Conrad Nagel, Edna May Oliver and Bruce Cabot.

AT THE PINE TREE.
Love-making and wise-cracking in a fast and merry pace, James Dunn and Claire Trevor appear together again in Fox Film's latest release "Hold That Girl!" which opens at the Pine Tree theatre tomorrow. The smart repartees of the two screen sweethearts in this brisk and breezy comedy romance will keep the large audience constantly laughing.

AT THE RAINBOW.
For the sake of thrills the imagination is swept wildly skyward in "Deluge," opening tomorrow at the Rainbow theatre. "Deluge" is the screen version of the destruction of civilization by a tidal flood that sweeps around the entire world destroying all of the handwork of man. The highlight in the picture is the crumbling of New York's giant skyscrapers by a terrific earth shock.

AT THE VOX.
When a man goes to prison his wife may wait one year, even two, but seldom more than three. All of the romancing and sentimentality that has been woven about the families of men in the "big house" can be reduced to just that iron formula.
Such is the basis for "Day of Reckoning," one of the most unusual prison stories ever to be brought to the Vox screen, opening today. It was recently completed by the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios.

Richard Dix heads the notable cast of players assembled to portray leading roles in the story. Supporting him are Madge Evans, Conway Tearle, Una Merkel, Stans Erwin and Spanky McFarlane.

long connected with the efforts to restore the ancient Hapsburg family in Austria openly voiced their convictions, that this explanation was merely a blind for concealing plans in Vienna official quarters for Otto's return.
The fact that Otto and the former Empress are evacuating the Steenockerzeel Haven also was linked with the move in Austria to promulgate a new constitution revising the government along Italian Fascist lines, but with strong monarchist leanings among the leaders.

GROVE'S ARM CAUSES WORRY

Lefty Hurls Down Glove in Dismay After Bad Workout.

BOSTON, April 5 (AP)—Eddie Collins, Boston Red Sox general manager today refused to become alarmed about the reported flareup of Bob "Lefty" Grove over his $100,000 southpaw pitching arm.
"When two such capable trainers as our Doc Ebbings and the Athletics' Doc Ebbings without having talked to each other, coincide in their diagnosis of Grove's sore arm, I am confident it will right itself in time," Collins said.
"We have no intention of trying to call off our dog with Connie Mack. It was made in good faith and it is merely one of the breaks of that game that Grove should have contracted a cold or injured his shoulder muscles in some way."
Grove, according to reports from Orlando, Fla., suddenly threw down his glove yesterday while warming up with Coach Tom Daly. He had been cutting loose and became so excited when his arm twinged that he cried out, "to hell with it. I guess I can't do the club any good. I might as well hang up my spikes."
"My arm is terrible," he said later, when he calmed down. "I don't know what to make of it. Maybe it will come around when we hit the cold weather. If it doesn't—well, I don't know."
Collins has been informed by what he regards as competent authorities that "Lefty" has a sore muscle in his upper arm and that the pain will gradually disappear under hard work.

Mat Tourney in Semi-Finals

PORTLAND, April 5 (AP)—Forty-six matches were completed in last night's preliminaries of the Pacific northwest amateur wrestling championship tournament at the Multnomah Athletic club. Tonight the semi-finals and finals will be staged.

Last night's matches were full of action from start to finish. Dick Bieberforf, Central Y. Portland, defending champion, won his opening bout in the 135-pound division when he defeated Delbert Anderson, Salem, in the opening round. Bieberforf is favored to repeat. Bieberforf also defeated Verne Rierson, Camas high, in his second match of the evening.

SALT LAKE CITY, April 5, (AP)—Frank J. McGanney of Salt Lake City announced today that official sanction for the western zone trapshoot in Salt Lake City May 31, June 1, 2 and 3, has been obtained from the amateur trapshooting association.

Mickey Cochrane Fully Recovered

LAKEWOOD, Fla., April 5, (UP)—Mickey Cochrane, player-manager of the Detroit Tigers, took part in Wednesday's morning workout, apparently fully recovered from his recent indisposition.
"I never felt better in my life," Cochrane said.

Wolfe, Hansen Will Settle Draw From Medford Match

Leslie Wolfe and Charley Hansen, heavyweights, will renew a wrestling dispute here Friday night which started just a week ago at Medford. These two huskies struggled through a one-hour main event to a draw.
Hansen, the Dane from Seattle, is in high favor with the Legion hall spectators as a result of his draw with Ted Thye of Portland last week. The match was one of the most outstanding of the season.
Wolfe returns to Klamath Falls after an absence of several weeks. This popular wrestler from Texas expects to leave for Los Angeles in the near future, and his match against Hansen will be in the nature of a farewell appearance.
Hansen extended his run of victories at Portland Wednesday night by downing Harry Demetral of Chicago.
Bob Kruse, Oswego, will tackle a newcomer in the 45-minute semi-windup. Big Bob's opponent will be Ed Helwig of Oakland. Helwig replaces Jack Forsgren who was ordered to return to his Vancouver, B. C., home by U. S. immigration authorities.
Billy Newman, Denver Pole, will meet Swede Anderson of Medford in the curtain raiser.
Ray Friable, Medford, will be referee for all bouts, according to Mack Lillard, promoter.

Malin's Team Scores Victory Over Bonanza

Malin high school's undefeated baseball team added another victory to its string when it defeated Bonanza high school 9 to 1 in a conference game played at Bonanza Tuesday. The Malin team has already defeated Merrill and Tulllake high schools and will play Henley at Malin to complete its schedule with county teams outside Klamath Falls.
Clayton Reber, Malin's ace pitcher, kept Bonanza's few hits so well scattered that not a single run crossed the plate until the last inning when two Malin errors and a hit pushed a Bonanza runner across for the only score. Reber has been on the mound in all the Malin games so far.
Led by "Lanky" Walter Staton, Klamath county's 1933 Legion team first baseman, the Malin sluggers hit the offerings of Bray and Burns quite freely.
The Malin lineup was as follows: Kamara, catcher; Clayton Reber, pitcher; Staton, first base; Kenyon, second base; Layman, shortstop; Long, third base; Ehle Reber, Orv Kirkpatrick and Jack Ratliff, outfielders.
There is a possibility that Malin will play a game on Medford field in the near future.

Buffalo School Names VanBibber

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 5, (AP)—Buffalo University officials today announced the appointment of George VanBibber, former Purdue tackle and now a member of the faculty of the Mount Pleasant Michigan Teachers college, as head football coach.
Van Bibber, a 1932 graduate of Purdue, received all American mention in his last football year and played on the east team in the annual Pacific coast game. He succeeds Jimmy Wilson.

Jones' Score Low Against Swatter

ATLANTA, Ga., April 5, (UP)—Bobby Jones, carding a 24, had low score in a nine hole foursome here with Babe Ruth, Sam Dewey Byrd, Yankee outfielder, and Hal Simms, a bridge expert.
Playing over the East Lake course, Ruth shot 39, Byrd 37, and Simms 41.

German Player Defeats Hoppe

CHICAGO, April 5, (UP)—Erie Hagenlacher, Germany, defeated Willie Hoppe, New York City veteran, 4 to 2 in six innings to retain his first place position in the world's championship 18.2 ballline billiard tournament.

Browning Draws With Montreal Man

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 5, (UP)—Jim Browning of Missouri, claimant of the world heavy-weight wrestling championship, was held to a draw by Henry Deglane of Montreal. It was advertised as a title match.

ANGELS DEFEAT BEAVERS AGAIN

Los Angeles Single Unbeaten Team in League.

(By the Associated Press)
Generally picked as the club to beat in the 1934 Coast league pennant race, Los Angeles Thursday was the only undefeated team in the circuit as the season entered its third day.
Although home runs were plentiful throughout the league, fewer hits and fewer errors showed fighter baseball after a lonesome played opening day.

Grade School League Opens Next Saturday

The city grade school baseball league will get underway this Saturday, according to J. W. Peake, director of physical education. In the Playground Ball League the schedule will be as follows:
Pelican vs. Fairview, 9:00 o'clock.
Riverside vs. Roosevelt, 10:00 o'clock.
Mills vs. Fremont, 11:00 o'clock.
The following games will be played in the Official Baseball League:
Pelican vs. Fairview, 1:15 o'clock.
Riverside vs. Roosevelt, 2:15 o'clock.
All games will be played on the Roosevelt school field.
