Kingfish Ready to do Battle at Solon Probe

WASHINGTON, April 5, (AP)—Senator Huey Long invited Edward Rightor, attorney for D. D. Moore of New Orleans, to "step outside" today during a heated exchange before the senate finance committee about New Orleans horse racing.

Order was quickly restored, however, and questioning resumed.

The verbal duel started when William C. Grace, a Washington attorney, testified he had made bets at a New Orleans race track on the advice of officials and all his selections won.

Rightor broke in to say Grace was at a spring meeting and the Louisiana jockey club, in which Colonel John P. Sullivan and Colonel E. R. Bradley were interested, did not have a meeting at that season. The track Grace visited, Rightor said, was Jefferson.

"That's your track, senator," he added.

Long shot back that Rightor's statement was an "infamous falsehood and there's not a word of truth in it." "I have never been in a race track in my life," Long added. "I never played a bet on a horse race." "I'd just like to say you wouldn't say 'at if there weren't a lot of policemen here,'" he told the senator.

Long then invited him to step outside.

Shaking his fist, Rightor said, "you wouldn't do a thing to me, old man."

Long has charged that Sullivan dominated the internal revenue office in New Orleans since Moore became collector. He is fighting confirmation of Moore's appointment.

Divorce Motion Argued in Court

A motion to quash service by publication on the defendant in the divorce case of Jennie Louise Duke versus Thomas P. Duke, was argued before Circuit Judge W. M. Duncan Thursday. The motion was made by the defendant's attorney.

Duke, it is reported, has established a six weeks residence at Reno, Nevada, and also is suing for divorce.

— what it means

—to keep on hand
350,000 bales of Turkish tobacco to add something to the taste

So important is Turkish tobacco in the Chesterfield blend, that we maintain a modern up-to-date tobacco factory in the far-off city of Smyrna.

Turkish tobacco adds something to the taste and aroma of a cigarette that no other tobacco can give.

It means something that Chesterfield always has in storage upwards of 350,000 bales of this aromatic Turkish leaf.

This Turkish tobacco is blended and cross-blended with ripe mild home-grown tobaccos to give Chesterfields a taste and aroma that is not like other cigarettes.

Everything that money can buy is used to make Chesterfield the cigarette that's milder, the cigarette that tastes better.
