

AUTO EQUIPMENT CHECKING URGED

Motorists who wish to get the most for their money out of their automobiles and tires will find it genuine economy to have a thorough check of their equipment made during April.

While winter weather is not hard on tires, it does work considerable wear and tear on the automobile's finish, top and parts exposed to the weather, according to Elmer Balsiger, local Good-year dealer.

"It is also an excellent idea," says Balsiger, "to establish the habit of having tires checked for air pressure at least once a month. It only takes a minute or two to have tires checked and properly inflated. This service is gladly given free at our station and the customer does not even need to get out of the car."

"At the same time, our trained employes will be glad to inspect the condition of the top, under the fenders and other parts that may have been damaged by the elements.

"We have paints and dressings which can be applied to cracked tops, under side of fenders, or to spots where paint has chipped off, in a few minutes. Many times, the application of a few drops of paint will avoid extensive damage to the original paint job, or rep.

"Automobile owners who deferred buying new tires during the winter will not want to delay much longer. With warmer weather, old tires will begin to fall and the application of new tires now will practically eliminate the danger of embarrassing and inconvenient tire failures during the warm months," Balsiger said.

Canadian Finds U. S. Beer Strong

DETROIT, April 5, (U.P.)—This American beer sure has a wallop, to take the testimonial of Walter Furlong of Tecumseh, Ont., who came to test and remained to learn.

Walter was found lying in a doorway and after sleeping a night in jail went before Judge Arthur E. Gordon in recorder's court today.

"I can drink Canadian beer and it doesn't hurt me," Furlong told the judge. "But I came over here to try out your beer and the next thing I know I'm in a police station and don't feel so good."

MALIN ITEMS

MALIN, Ore.—F. W. Trunkfeld, of Sacramento, is visiting his sister and family, the C. J. Van Orsdels.

R. W. Lewis is in the Riverside hospital, where he underwent a major operation last Monday. He is reported as doing as well as could be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Watson and daughter, Evelyn, spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kenyon and family last Sunday. Their home is in Alturas and Mr. Watson has business here that he was attending to.

Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Kline were Klamath Falls visitors on Wednesday. The Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. Robert Porter, the meeting being turned into a surprise shower for Mrs. Porter. After the gifts were presented to Mrs. Porter, refreshments were served. Mrs. Porter has recently recovered from a short illness.

The Malin baseball team is sponsoring a dance to be at the Broadway dance hall Saturday night, April 7, to raise funds for the coming season.

Louis Kalina, captain, is getting the team ready for the season's work. Miss Emma Kalina is spending a few days visiting at Bend, Oregon, with friends.

Mrs. Zeida Tripe and daughter, Miss Evelyn Collins of Bend, spent the week-end with friends, returning home Monday. Miss Evelyn graduated from the Bend high school this year.

'Out Our Way' Artist Shows Talent as Sculptor

Three States Organize Drive On Transients

LOS ANGELES, April 5, (U.P.)—California, Arizona and Nevada united today in a determined effort to reduce the number of transients crossing state borders and to cut down the influx of needy transients from eastern states.

Dr. George O. Smith, Nevada transient service director; Paul B. Murphy, head of the Arizona transient service, and H. A. R. Carleton, director of the service in California, conferred at the Federal building.

The directors agreed to cooperate in an effort to prevent drifting of transients between various state camps and to work

$1,450,000 Taken On State Income Taxes

SALEM, Ore., April 5, (U.P.)—Payments assessed on 30,400 income tax returns already audited amounted to $1,450,000, the state tax commission reported today, of which over $1,000,000 was in cash.

Many thousand more returns are yet to be audited.

Big Shoe Firm Sold For One Million

SAN FRANCISCO, April 5, (U.P.)—A manufacturing and mercantile deal involving approximately $1,000,000 was announced Wednesday in acquisition by Keckston Brothers, largest leather goods manufacturers in the west, of the entire leather business of Dolliver & Brothers, San Francisco, and the shoe supply business of N. Porter Saddle & Harness Company of Phoenix, Arizona.

Keyston Brothers grew out of a horse whip business established in 1863 by Samuel Keyston, grandfather of the present owners. Dolliver & Brother was established the same year when Thomas Dolliver, after walking across the plains from St. Joseph, Mo., established a custom shoe making shop in San Francisco.

Chamber Delays Transportation Action Wednesday

At the weekly meeting of the directors of the chamber of commerce Wednesday, it was decided to refer the question of amendment of the long and short haul clause of the transportation act to a referendum vote of the membership.

The question, which involves terminal rates to Klamath Falls, came before the directors in the form of a report from the transportation committee recommending opposition to the proposed change. Because of its controversial nature, it was held by the directors that it would be better, from the standpoint of the community, for the entire membership to pass on it.

The referendum ballot will be sent out to the membership under rules provided by the chamber by-laws.

State to Observe 17th Army Day

PORTLAND, Ore., April 5 (U.P.)—Oregon will observe Army Day Friday, with celebrations in many cities.

Governor Meier issued a proclamation calling for a state-wide display of the national colors for April 6, 17th anniversary of the United States' entry into the world war.

NRA Will Help Forest Program

ALTURAS, Calif. — Following out a plan of years standing, officials of the Modoc national forest will construct this year under NRA allotments. A considerable number of natural springs will be improved, a dozen or more livestock watering reservoirs constructed and approximately 25 miles of range drift fences built. According to Acting Forest Supervisor Wm. S. Brown, this year's program of range improvement work will be the most extensive ever undertaken on the local national forest area. A considerable amount of range re-vegetation work and erosion control will also be undertaken.

Likely Choice As Moderator

Next moderator of the Presbyterian church may be the Rev. Herbert Booth Smith, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian church of Los Angeles, shown above. He is regarded as one of the leading candidates at the May 24 election in Cleveland, during the session of the general assembly.

Health Board Asks Exam of Food Handlers

A recommendation that all restaurant employes and others who handle foodstuffs in the city be required to pass a physical examination, was passed by the board of public health Wednesday morning, at a called meeting.

This recommendation will come up before the city council next Monday evening. The board of health also discussed the gallonage tax for milk producers and distributors, and it was recommended that this amendment to the city milk ordinance be more rigidly enforced, and fees collected, with the council and board of health cooperating with the meat and food inspector and the sanitary inspector.

Oregon Pioneer Dies Wednesday

THE DALLES, Ore., April 5, (U.P.)—One of the last survivors of the ill-fated Donner party of 1846, Mrs. John S. Schenck, 90, died at her home here.

Mrs. Schenck, whose maiden name was Naomi Pike, was three years old when she crossed the plains with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Pike in 1846 from Missouri to California. Many in the party died of starvation when stranded in the Sierra Nevada foothills that winter.

Charles Dickens used 1425 characters in 24 books.

The 20th Anniversary KELVINATOR

THE REFRIGERATOR WITH A PLACE FOR EVERYTHING

If you had designed it yourself you would have done just this—made it as orderly as an indexed cook book—everything in its place and easy to get at. You see there literally isn't a useless inch inside the new Kelvinator. And when it comes to getting something out you don't rummage and juggle—the new food "file" and ample shelves have banished that.

The New Food "File" Idea

Think of the convenience and economy of "filing" your foods under the ideal refrigerating condition for each! That's what Kelvinator gives you—the Food File—the Crisper for vegetables and salad greens, the Dairy Section for butter, eggs and cheese, the Thrift Tray with separate covered containers for left-overs—and the Frost Chest with a below freezing temperature where fish or meat can be kept fresh and wholesome—a place for everything, including the Water Cooler and Dessert Set.

It's Really "4 refrigerators in 1"

This new 20th Anniversary Kelvinator does anticipate every refrigerating need of a modern home—gives you "4 refrigerators in 1," each fully automatic. There is one temperature service for food preservation on your shelves. Another for emergency fast freezing. A third for storing fish, game or meat indefinitely. The fourth for ice cubes and desserts. Isn't that your own idea of complete refrigeration?

New Kelvinator Beauty, Too You'll show it proudly—this new Kelvinator. For we haven't stopped with the utmost usefulness and convenience. We have given you a Kelvinator that is lovely to see—gleaming, spotlessly white porcelain cabinets that have smartness and modernity in every line. Lustrous, sanitary, chrome-fronted trays that are easily kept clean and bright. Be sure to see the 20th Anniversary Kelvinator before you buy any refrigerator.
