

KLAMATH PICTURES SHOWN IN BAY CITY

Attractive pictures and information about Klamath county will go on display May 1 in a San Francisco window passed by 125,000 persons daily.

The display, prepared by the Klamath county chamber of commerce, will be part of an exhibit of the Emporium, large Market street department store, arranged by the Shasta-Cascade Wonderland association.

Crater lake, Klamath lake and the lumbering industry will be featured in Klamath's part of the exhibit.

After it is shown at San Francisco for a week, the whole exhibit will be moved to the windows of Capewell's, in Oakland, and from there will be taken to Los Angeles, where more thousands will be informed of the scenic attractions and economic advantages of this area.

Plans for the display were made at a meeting of the community advertising committee of the chamber of commerce, Friday morning.
