Undergrade Butter Cut at Portland

PORTLAND, April 26, (AP)—Cut of 3c per lb. in undergrade cube butter during the late season of the produce exchange was not out of line with conditions, which suggest an unusual volume of that character. Prime firsts again lost 3c per lb. on the exchange, while firsts and the two top scores were unchanged. There was likewise no change noted in the buying price on butterfat.

Weather conditions have been a trifle scarce and the supply of standard has not been more than sufficient to take care of immediate needs of the trade here. Storage demand likewise was favorable.

Market for eggs continued to reflect a steady but active tone. There was no change suggested in either buying or selling prices for the day. Much hot weather stock was showing up.

General chicken market situation was steady and without price change here. Recent advance in the buying price in brokers in face of low priced selling by Puget Sound interests has caused some concern among killers who buy for cash.

Demand for dressed turkeys at the low price recently put into effect, has taken care of a very liberal supply and especially here. The best were not above 16c. Storage was materially lower than heavy hens.

Advancing prices on California strawberries here were due to the late scant supply and liberal demand. Small increase was of locals, but these were not yet available in supply to affect values.

New potatoes were showing reduced prices generally with liberally increased offerings to whites from Shafter. Old potatoes, however, were in improved movement, but little was shown in the country.

Market for country killed calves continued to reflect strength for quality, although late receipts have been rather liberal. Hogs and lambs were steady, with mutton just holding. Beef was in call.

First carload of cantaloupes of the 1934 season appeared on the market during the day and was priced from $5.00 for Juneau down to $2.00 for flats. Quality was considered good and demand fair.

New California wax onions were offered at $1.50 per lug for white, and 75c per lug for yellow. Old onions were moving well at full prices.

Artichokes were 25c per box higher for 5s and 40c higher per box for 4s.

Asparagus market was active and fully steady.

Local peas were being offered around 6c per lb. Californian selling 2c to 4c per lb.

The Dalles lettuce was expected in quite fair offering, the first of the week. Californian was firm here.
