LONDON, April 27.—A British authority's answer to the "Asia for Asiatics" doctrine came today from a source close to the British Indian administration.

Japan, the authority said, may dominate China by force and may gain some influence in Siam through intrigue—though this latter is doubtful—but she will never exercise even minor influence in India and other areas of Southern Asia.

"Asia for Asiatics" is rapidly becoming the slogan of all Eastern peoples, he added, "but only the Japanese conceive of this new Asia as being run by Japan."
