Turk, Aged 164, Given Proposal by U. S. Woman

ISTANBUL, May 8, U.P.—The hand of Zaro Akha, aged 164, is being sought by an American woman.

Zaro, who professes to be around 164, said today he received a letter proposing marriage from Ellen Hilkman of Milwaukee, Wis.

The Turk, recovering from recent illness in a hospital, said he met her while in the United States a few years ago. He already has proposed to a 40-year-old flapper here, but was plainly interested in the suggestion of an overseas romance. It would be Zaro's 13th adventure in matrimony. He has outlived 11 of his wives, and is separated from the 12th.

RELIEF PERSONNEL REDUCTION MADE

Material reductions in the administrative staff of the local branch of the State Emergency Relief Administration and county relief offices went into effect Monday, May 7, according to an announcement from Will Baldwin, local manager and disbursing agent.

The staff curtailment became necessary in keeping with the reduced allowance of relief funds to the state for the month of May. Baldwin stated.

Three units of relief work are now coordinated, including the relief division, the work division and the personnel and placement division of the program, Baldwin asserted.

HESS AND HENSLEY HEARINGS FRIDAY

Hearings for Grant Hess and Pauline Hensley, charged with violation of one of the sections of the federal revenue law, have been set for 10 o'clock Friday morning before U. S. Commissioner Bert C. Thomas.

Hess was released from custody Monday evening after posting $2,500 bond. Mrs. Hensley failed to produce bond money and remained in jail.

Specific charges against Hess and Mrs. Hensley is cited as removal or concealment of dilapidated property contrary to law. They were arraigned before the U. S. commissioner Monday.

Tolliver Told to Pay Divorce Cost

James M. Tolliver, cited into court circuit court, was ordered Tuesday by Judge Duffy of Bend, to pay $50 court costs in a divorce suit against Margaret Bernice Tolliver, and temporary support to her. The sum may be paid in three installments, but if any payment is missed, Tolliver will be taken into custody by the sheriff and placed in jail, according to the order of the court.

Tolliver was cited into court to show cause why he should not pay court costs and support money previously ordered by Circuit Judge W. M. Duncan when the divorce decree was granted.

DELEGATES TO B. P. W. MEET NAMED MONDAY

At a convention booster dinner given by the Klamath Falls Federation of Business and Professional Women at the city library auditorium Monday evening, which was attended by over one hundred members and guests, delegates and alternates, were elected to attend the state convention of Oregon B. P. W. at Portland, May 25, 26 and 27.

The delegates elected were Jean Porter, Anne Earley, May King Conrad, Olive Cornett, Carol Petty, Martha McCollum and Ella Cummings.

The alternates are Florine Pinnell, Flo Pickett, Della Fahlander, Ethelwynne O'Flaherty, Claudia Lorens, May Tolle and Margaret LaPointe. The Klamath Falls club, which is now the largest in the state and includes the state president, Mrs. Leda E. Parker, in its membership, is expected to have one of the largest delegations at the state meet.

The dinner was served in the form of a dining-car service on a special excursion train enroute to the Portland convention. The train visited the 11 towns where there are B. and P. W. organizations, while six speakers told the excursion crowd of Oregon's benefits and attractions. A conductor and brakeman in uniform made the setting more real, and the colored waiters who served were tipped with pennies for the penny fund.

The state president was the guest of honor for the evening and was presented with gifts from each part of the state.

An Oregon food products dinner was served and donations to the menu were made by the Pine Street Market, Emil's grocery, Wright's Candy shop, Klamath Falls Creamery and the Better Baking company.

The dinner was in charge of the forward committee with Catherine Gayford, chairman, Ruth Baker, Lena Dennis, Gwendolyn Wright and Edna Russell. Others assisting were Carol Petty, Myrtle Heim, Winnifred Pickett, Margaret Uerlings, Flo Pickett, Bonnie Short, Betty Cleveland, Anne Earley, Ella Cummings, Myrtle Robinson, Rose Larson, Isabelle Brinkman, Harriet Wolcott and Margaret Ward.

The program hour was in charge of the convention committee, with Martha McCollum as chairman. At this time highlights of the convention were presented to promote added enthusiasm in the coming event.
