Meets Dillinger Gang; Regrets It

Patrolman Harry Wayland of Bellwood, Ill., is convinced that the Dillinger gang is rough. As evidence he offers his patched head. Wayland started to quiz four members of the gang when they ignored a stoplight in Bellwood, Chicago suburb, and was given his answer with a gun butt, the outlaws escaping.

National and Local Markets

NOTABLE GAIN IN OUTPUT OF BUTTER NOTED

PORTLAND, Ore., May 8 (AP)—Greatly increased output of butter within the local territory suggested that the flush production period will be the current week. Quality of butter was likewise at its height, with the market fairly steady.

Market for eggs was without change in either price or demand for the day, receipts were now holding up fairly well with the movement since the first of the year ahead of the like period in 1933.

General chicken market was without visible changes for the day insofar as live weights were concerned. The demand was excellent from the south.

Trade was again seeking turkey supplies for movement to outside points, this being an unusually late date for such demand. It suggested that storage holdings were comparatively light. Prices were fully steady.

There was a good deal in the lettuce market, with fair increase of local offerings. Quality in general was good and demand was favorable, with prices maintained.

Excellent trading tone was suggested for green peas, with the movement chiefly confined to local offerings because of sheer quality. Most sales were around 6c to 7c per lb., according to quality.

Country killed calves were sediously depressed, but other lines were steady to firm.

Spinach was a trifle scarce, with a reflection in the higher price.

Mate Doesn't Like Her Type

Olive Hatch, southern California swim star, above, liked to pound her typewriter at night, while her husband, Hubert L. Voight, preferred to pound his ear. So they naturally disagreed. Charging that his sleep was ruined, Voight, studio publicity manager, has filed a divorce suit in Los Angeles.

Ten Men Burned in Grain Blast

ST. LOUIS, May 8. (AP)—Ten men were burned, six of them seriously, in a violent grain dust explosion today in the Missouri Pacific elevator at the foot of Primm street.

The blast shattered all of the windows in the huge structure, broke long cracks in the upper portion of the building and caused a fire in 1,600,000 bushels of grain stored there.

The fire burned half an hour.

Mothers' pension laws are in force in 45 states and the District of Columbia.

WHEAT PRICE AT CHICAGO TAKES JUMP

CHICAGO, May 8, (AP)—An outburst of aggressive buying of wheat in the late dealings today lifted prices briskly, and much more than overcame preceding downturns of the market.

The fresh soaring of wheat values ran quotations up to a new high point unequalled since the middle of April.

Washington advices regarding President Roosevelt's silver policy were construed as decidedly stimulating as to grains. Besides, official advices indicated rainfalls were as a rule insufficient to be of any material assistance to wheat crops.

Wheat closed strong at almost the day's maximum, 1¼-1⅝ above yesterday's finish, July 84-84¼, corn ⅝ off to ¼ up, oats unchanged to ⅛ higher, and provisions unchanged to a decline of 2 cents.
