Archie Huff, Mills Youth, Pitches Perfect Ball Game

Archie Huff, 14-year-old pitcher for the Mills grade school team in the Senior League, hurled a no-hit, no-run contest against Riverside, Thursday afternoon. His team won 14 to 0.

J. W. Peak, director of physical education in the city schools, said it was the first time in the history of the league such an event had occurred.

Young Huff considerably aided his team on the way to victory by cracking out a home run in the first inning. He walked but one man and the only other Riverside player to reach first went there automatically when hit by a pitched ball.

Mills scored its 14 runs on six hits. Bob Leisl was catcher for Huff. Roy Son pitched for the losers with Cecil Green catching.
