High School Stars Compete on Modoc Field Saturday.

The long weeks of preparation were completed Friday and the 20-30 club of Klamath Falls was ready to hand over the third annual Southern Oregon-Northern California Track and Field meet to nearly 150 youthful inter-cholastic athletes.

Finals in the big event, listed

Pinals in the big event, listed as one of the most important in Oregon, will start on Modoc field Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Records in Danger Coaches and officials Friday predicted that no end of records would be endangered. Fine weather, improved track conditions and highly qualified athletes were expected to shatter as many marks as the 1933 event saw go into the discard.

Only three marks set in 1932, the first year of the meet, still stand untouched on the list of events. These are the pole vault, the discus and the mile run.

Pelicans Rated Highly
The Klamath Falls Pelicans, one of the favored combinations for the team championship, stood ready Friday for the detense of the title. The Pelicans, coached by Dwight French in 1922 and 1932, hold two successive triumphs.

Leslie Avrit has taken charge of the Klamath athletes this season and has a strong enough team to carry on the tradition for victory.

Grants Pass and Bend are among the outstanding challengers for the Pelican crown.
