thing like this: "Mr. Noon?" "I said yes." "Will you pay seventy-five grand?" "Why, yes, why—yes." "Well, make up your mind." "All right." "Now you follow the instructions, and everything, and you will be all right," the man told me.

Then, said Noon, there was some reference to an automobile, and the line was cut off.

"By reference to an automobile, I mean that the man began talking something about a car some place."

"I couldn't quite get the drift of it when the line was cut off. We are now waiting for another call from this party."

Leaves Office

Two and a half hours after this telephone call Noon suddenly left his office. Whether or not he had the ransom money with him was not revealed.

Noon returned to his office again shortly before noon, and announced there was no statement to make, but that he expected developments soon.

WOMAN HELD

LOS ANGELES, May 11. (AP)—Twenty-four hours after William F. Gettle vanished from his $50,000 Arcadia estate in the hands of two masked kidnapers, the sheriff's office struck upon its first concrete development today, the detention of a woman whose statements caused one of the search leaders to say the crime might be solved "within five hours."

The woman, described as a brunette about 30 years of age, plump and fairly well dressed, fell into a police dragnet early this morning along with six other persons, who also were questioned.

After apparently examining the woman at some length, Capt. Norris Stensland, sheriff's office extortion expert and a figure behind the solution of a number of other kidnaping cases here, made this statement:

"It looks hot, boys! I think we have something. It is possible that we will have this solved within five hours."

CALLS ALL-BRAN NATIONAL NATURAL LAXATIVE

Delicious Cereal Checked His Constipation

Here is an unsolicited letter from Mr. Daniels:

"For many years I have been habitually constipated, and have used all sorts of laxatives. So, in fairness to Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, I heartily claim it to be a most wonderful remedy for constipation."

"Need I tell you that I have long since ceased using laxatives? Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is the National Natural Laxative. If it were used by every family in the United States for breakfast, we would have a much healthier race of people."—Mr. John Daniels, 1090 Third St., North Bergen, N. J.

Tests show Kellogg's ALL-BRAN furnishes "bulk" to exercise the intestines and vitamin B to help tone the intestinal tract. ALL-BRAN also supplies iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that in leafy vegetables. Isn't this food much pleasanter than raking pills and drugs? Two table-spoonfuls daily are usually sufficient. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Get the red-and-green packages at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Starting Drive for Husband's Election

By campaigning in a one horse open sleigh for her husband's candidacy for the U. S. Senate, Mrs. Gifford Pinchot, wife of the governor of Pennsylvania, hopes to snow under the opposition. With jingle bells on her horse and rollers on her sleigh, Mrs. Pinchot is shown emphasizing her appeal to voters that they should not let Senator David A. Reed, Pinchot's opponent, take them for a "sleigh ride."

To Stensland's declaration, Blayne Mathews, chief of the district attorney's investigators, added that their inquiries gave "promise that we might have something important."

and filed motion to suppress evidence upon the grounds that it was seized from the defendant's residence, some distance away from the plantation inn, without a search warrant. The inn, and the cabin said to be Hess' residence, are owned by two different companies.

L. L. Moon, federal officer who conducted the raid, was sworn as a witness, and testified that he had no warrant to search the cabin, but that the procedure was unnecessary since Hess was willing that he make the search. He testified that only legal liquor was found in the plantation inn.

Moon testified that he searched Hess' personal property and found three bottles of tax unpaid liquor purported to be rum which the defendant stated he had purchased last winter from a boot-legger.

This testimony, as well as testimony from Franklin L. Weaver, agent for defunct building and loan companies in this locality, was taken during argument on the motion for suppression of evidence charging that an illegal search was made by the federal officer.

Weaver testified that the cabin where the liquor was found had been rented by Hess from him as representative of the defunct Western Building and Loan company. The plantation inn is the property of the U. S. Mortgage company of Portland, which he does not represent here.

Commissioner Thomas overruled the motion upon the grounds that Hess had not objected to the search, and that the officer was within his rights in visiting the cabin which was temporarily occupied by the owner.

Hess at liberty.

Moon, the federal official, was again sworn as a witness in the hearing proper, and denied having promised Hess any leniency if he would direct him to a number of persons making liquor in this locality.

Hess, who posted a $2,500 continuing bond for his release after the arrest was made, will remain at liberty. No date for the meeting of the federal grand jury has been set, but it is believed that it will be called within the next fortnight, according to the federal officer.

Mrs. Hensley was unable to post the $2,500 bond and will be held in the county jail until she is taken to Portland to appear before the grand jury.

REASONS FOR RUM PAY BOOSTS GIVEN

SALEM, May 11. (AP)—Requests that the state board of control reverse its action taken at a recent meeting here and authorize salary adjustments for eight employees of the state liquor control commission were received by letter today by members of the board.

The letters to the board members outlined the case of each salary adjustment. In the case of George Sammis, administrator of the liquor control act, the commission stated the increase from $400 to $500 a month was justified for the reason he had taken over the duties of Aaron Holtz, who had been purchasing agent at $5000 a year.

The salary increase of Eugene Kelly, from $152 to $246 was explained on the basis he was promoted from the position of assistant supervisor in the store division to special investigator in the license division.

A. S. Montgomery's raise from $163 to $201 was for promotion from chief clerk in the Salem office to collecting the privilege tax and auditor of the accounts of the tax and license departments.

Other proposed raises were explained.

manner, it will become necessary for the government to intervene," he declared.

"I am not in favor of government ownership of private industry unless private industry fails to perform its obligations to the public. The public should not be penalized for the failure of industry to proceed on account of strike conditions or for any other cause.

"If strike conditions exist, the parties should be forced to arbitrate so that industry might proceed without penalizing the public."

PORTLAND WORRIED

PORTLAND, May 11 (AP)—While transportation machinery was held on dead center by a strike of waterfront workers, fear was expressed today by dealers in staple commodities that a shortage of certain foods may result if relief is not soon forthcoming.

Pacific northwest canneries and burling plants expressed alarm because the longshore strike has stopped their supply of sugar and other materials needed at once for the opening of the season for berry and other early fruit operations. Strawberries are ripe and ready to can.

Cereal interests here have stopped shipments of wheat from the country because strikers will not permit unloading at the mills. An advance of 25 cents a barrel in bakers' flour was shown for the day.

Alarms of violence at various docks today and excursions of police to find out what it was all about, were the only other disturbing elements today. Employers were generally unsuccessful during the morning in their attempts to get relief workers signed up and on the job.

THIRTY COUNTY SCHOOLS CLOSE

Thirty county unit schools will complete their school year and closed for the summer vacation on Friday, April 11.

Three schools, Crescent Lake, Swan Lake and Howard school near LaPine, have a few days' more work to be done, and will close sometime next week, according to an announcement from the office of the county school superintendent.

The county unit schools operated only during an eight and a half month term this year, which accounts for the early closing.

Eight grade graduates from the rural schools number 213 this year, and Elizabeth Boor, of Fairhaven school holds the record. She completed her eight elementary grades in seven years with high scholastic standing, and has been neither absent nor tardy during that time.

Summer plans of the rural school teachers have not yet been announced. Some are planning to attend summer school, some to visit their families in other states and cities, and others to remain where they are for the vacation period.

payments consistently, were received with a storm of protests today.

Both morning and evening newspapers criticized such action as unfair and Sir John Simon, British foreign secretary, spoke in Manchester on the subject of the war debts.

While disclaiming that he was making any announcement of government policy, the foreign secretary said there seemed to be some commentators on the other side of the Atlantic—"irresponsible ones"—who overlook the fact that any argument for British payment based on the fact that Great Britain has a budget surplus was entirely fallacious as far as the American debt is concerned.

ROME, May 11. (AP)—Italy may not make any war debt payment at all in June, said official circles today, in consequence of the United States' notification that it will accept a token payment but that countries paying "tokens" will be considered in default.

LONDON, May 11. (AP)—One British newspaper, the London Evening Star, in its first edition today headlined President Roosevelt's decision that token war debt payments mean default as "highwayman act of U. S.," but abandoned the streamer in subsequent editions.

The Star's first edition carried as a subhead under its banner the words: "Pay Up in Full or—" bankruptcy charge, however, entered their pleas of not guilty, and Judge Sullivan, without discussing the value of Insull's contention, postponed the hearing until next Tuesday.

INSULL GIVES LARGE BOND, LEAVES JAIL

For the first time since Insull left Chicago two years ago for a hop, skip and jump across the Atlantic and Europe, he came face to face in the court with his former associates.

Immediately upon the calling for the hearing by Judge Sullivan, Attorney Thompson offered the plea on jurisdiction to the court, preventing his client from making any acknowledgment that he was legally held.

Contention Made.

The plea contended that detention of the Greek freighter Matolis in port at Istanbul was improper, his arrest, detention and finally delivery to an American diplomatic officer all without due process of law and tantamount to kidnaping.

Judge Sullivan received the plea without comment and summoned Insull's former business friends to the bar.

At noon a surety bond for $200,000 already signed by Insull, was approved by U. S. District Attorney Dwight H. Green and signed by Federal Judge Sullivan. The bond was furnished by the Fidelity and Casualty company of New York.
