MILLS ATTACKS NEW DEAL PLANS

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., May 19. (AP)—Ogden Mills, secretary of the treasury in Hoover's cabinet, charged today that the new deal disguised measures "constituting definite steps in a major program" for government control of industry and regimentation of the people.
"A study of the writings and speeches of the most influential group in the administration," he said, "together with the events that have taken place since the 4th of March, 1933, present an almost conclusive case."

"It is equally true that this revolutionary process must end in the destruction of individual liberty, for individual liberty cannot long survive the death of economic freedom."

June Brewster, former Earl Carroll "Vanities" beauty has been signed by Charles R. Rogers for a leading feminine roll in "Private Scandal" which he is producing for Paramount.
