

Season's Record

Klamath High Completes Athletic Year. Basketball Wins Distinct Mention. Track Second. Coaching Staff Is Unchanged. Grade School Work Contributes to Success.

The athletic season at Klamath Union high school comes to a close this week with a record for distinct achievement in 1933-34.

Progress in athletics is measured pretty thoroughly by the abundance of victories. In that respect—as well as many others—the Pelicans teams were considerably successful.

Most notable, of course, was the winning habit of Dwight French's basketball team, champion of this district for the third successive season and runner-up to Astoria for the Oregon interscholastic title.

Track assumes second place automatically. Klamath, coached this season by Leslie Ayvrit, won the Alturas meet, placed second in the district championships at Grants Pass, won the Southern Oregon-Northern California meet on Modoc field, and finished third in the close competition of the state finals at Corvallis.

Bob Leslie, a star in both football and track, was the outstanding athlete of the spring season. He was never beaten in his best events, the sprints, and tied the state record at Corvallis. His time at the Grants Pass running was a tenth of a second better than the record, but will not stand officially.

Football, perhaps the most spectacular organized sport, was by no means a failure, despite the fact the Pelicans carried away no championships. The season was an interesting one well sprinkled with victories.

Baseball, back in the list of high school sports after an absence of several years, brought another outstanding record. Considering that the same really was in its first year at Klamath high, the team contributed exceptionally well to the school's performance for the year. Ashland was the only school defeating Klamath.

The new athletic year will open next autumn with an unchanged list of coaches. These coaches, familiar with the material and general conditions of giving Klamath Falls successful teams, will work again with two main objects:

To give the benefit of organized sport to as many boys as possible.

To coach teams to win—an object necessary for developing ambition.

The coaches in major sports who will head the Pelicans next season will include Dwight French, major basketball, major baseball and Wildcat football; Leslie Ayvrit, major football and major track; Al Sinclair, assistant major football, Wildcat basketball, and major tennis.

Along with his regular duties as instructor and coach, French will again be the director of athletics.

Interesting in the rise of high school sports this year, was the organization of the Businessmen's Athletic committee. This group will strive for improvement in attendance at games, playing conditions and lend general assistance to bringing successful teams to Klamath Falls.

No season should pass by without considering the outstanding work of J. W. Peak as supervisor of physical education in the grade schools.

Peak has brought universal athletic interest to the boys in the city schools and it is there where the future success of the Klamath high school teams can be found.

Basketball shows the correctness of this point of view. Peak had hundreds of youngsters participating in basketball, baseball and track as well as in minor sports.

SAILBOAT RACE PLANS RUSHED

Chamber Calls Regatta Meeting for Next Monday Night.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce pushed forward its plans to complete details for the most beautiful of a series of events for the Upper Klamath lake regatta on June 17.

This is the sailboat race and already an unlimited number of entrants have placed their names in the lists.

Meeting Held Recently
Sailboat racers in the Klamath country met informally last week and outlined preliminary plans for the race. A sketch of the course along the waters of Klamath lake was presented. It was proposed, too, that one or two preliminary races be arranged.

A general meeting for all sailboat men has been called for next Monday evening at the chamber of commerce rooms, 7:30 o'clock. Complete details will be announced at this session.

At that time handicaps will be set, the course charted, starting times, sailing instructions and registration will be completed.

Discussion Is Planned
Boat regatta officials pointed out Tuesday the importance of the meeting and urged all sailboat men to be present. A round table discussion of the event is scheduled.

Bill Connelly and Bob Swenson, members of the sailboat committee, and Ray Pickering, general chairman of the regatta, will take charge of the meeting.

Any one who has decided to enter the race may place his name now at the chamber of commerce office.

The sale of buttons to finance the regatta continued this week with admirable success. Officials of the chamber said they had not reached the desired goal, but were pushing the sale optimistically.

Prominent Racers Coming
Entrant blanks have been sent out to outboard drivers in California, Oregon and Washington.

A large number of prominent racers and well-known owners will be at the starting line on June 17.

The hill above the Oregon Boat company has been tentatively considered as a location for spectators. This area forms a natural "stadium" which will easily accommodate several thousand spectators.

A full and unobstructed view of the racing courses can be had from the point.

Carnera, Baer Hard at Work For Title Go

ASBURY PARK, N. J., May 22. (UP)—Maxie Baer rested at his training camp today, but the rumor-mongers were unusually busy when his manager, Ancil Hoffman, hurried off to New York for an "important talk" with Jack Dempsey.

Hoffman refused to explain his conference, but camp followers said he had been summoned to the city because of Dempsey's dissatisfaction with Baer's condition, and his training methods.

The former Manassa Mauler was a visitor over the week-end. He watched Baer's workouts closely. Dempsey has a financial interest in Baer and wants him to take the title from Primo Carnera on June 14. It is understood Jack will receive seven and one-half per cent of Baer's purse for the title fight.

POMPTON LAKES, N. J., May 22. (UP)—Heavyweight Champion Primo Carnera is in peak condition for his title defense against Maxie Baer on June 14, and lessened his daily training activities to maintain that edge, his trainer Billie Detoe, announced today.

In keeping with this program, one of Carnera's three sparring partners, Arthur De Kuh, was shipped back to New York today.

Carnera wound up Monday's workout by sparring six rounds, three each with Salvatore Pugilillo and Cora Griffin. His road jaunts have been pared down to six miles. He will rest Thursday.

"Curly" Cook, employe of Lamm's camp, was brought to the Hillside hospital Monday afternoon with a broken back. He was badly injured when a tree fell on him at 8 o'clock Monday morning.

Although the injuries will not be fatal, he will be confined for at least four months.

Mrs. Claude Houghton, wife of the superintendent, administered first aid and accompanied the man to Klamath Falls. The ambulance and attending physician made a record run to the camp when the accident was reported.

Ready for Louis Miller of Reno

Difficulties confront Pete Belcastro of Dorris Friday night at the Legion hall when he runs into Louis Miller, heavyweight wrestler from Reno and San Francisco. The two clash in a semi-windup match to the Charley Hansen-Chief Little Wolfe main event.

Miller is recalled as the man who ended the reign of Ray Anderson in Klamath Falls more than two years ago.

Goodman, Fischer Leading Invading American Golfers

PRESTWICK, Scotland, May 22. (AP)—America's golfing Johnnies Goodman and Fischer—today led the invaders' parade in the British amateur championship. Goodman, the U. S. open champion, defeated W. M. Robb of Mosely, 5 and 4, while Fischer conquered Gus Moreland, a compatriot, 3 and 2.

Goodman, the betting odds favorite, played sound but not spectacular golf and won much as he pleased against Robb in their first round match, which was postponed from yesterday owing to the size of the field. The Omaha youngster, who negotiated the first nine holes in 37 to establish a three hole lead, will not play his second match until tomorrow. If he gains the third round he will be forced to engage in another match in the afternoon in order to catch up with the field.

Fischer, the tall and spare golfer-son of a Cincinnati letter carrier, closed out his second round match with Moreland on the 14th green. The two young members of the 1934 American Walker Cup team battled on even terms for the first nine holes, Fischer gaining a lead of one hole at the second and Moreland erasing it with a win at the eighth. The Ohioan reestablished his lead at the 12th and thereafter kept steadily adding to it.

Despite the unique experience of having to play with half a ball at the sixth hole, Jesse Gullford of Boston, a former American amateur titleholder, advanced to the third round at the expense of Lister Hartley of Kent, a member of the 1932 British Walker Cup squad. The big Bostonian won 4 and 3.

Archery Club Holds Tourney Here on Sunday

The archery tournament sponsored by the Klamath Archery club, held Sunday, was won decisively by Mr. and Mrs. Pete Peterson who won six of the sixteen places, each winning two first places and one second place. Complete results of the shoot are as follows:

Metropolitan round for men: Pete Peterson, first, 655; C. I. Roberts, second, 591.

Metropolitan round for women: June Peterson, first, 419; Ella Redkey, second, 405.

American round for men: Pete Peterson, first, 584; C. I. Roberts, second, 511.

Columbia round for women: Ella Redkey, first, 287; Mrs. Cyril Cook, second, 284.

Flight shoot for men: Ray Telford, first, 344 yards; Bill Vaie, second, 311 yards.

Flight shoot for women: Alice Harvey, first, 201 yards; June Peterson, second, 193 yards.

Clout shoot for men: Cyril Cook, first, 157; Pete Peterson, second, 134.

Clout shoot for women: June Peterson, first, 255; Ella Redkey, second, 237.

A meeting of the Klamath Archery club was to be held Tuesday evening at 7:30 at the Roberts and Harvey hardware store. All members are urged to attend and non-members who are interested are invited.

A squirrel hunt is being planned which may be combined with a picnic if possible to find suitable conditions for both events. Mr. Thurlow, of the Thurlow Glove company of Portland, who was a guest of the Klamath Archery club at Sunday's tournament, presented two of the lady winners, Mrs. Peterson and Miss Redkey, with fine leather gloves. He has also offered as a prize a shooting glove to the one bringing in the most squirrels in the squirrel hunt being planned.

Idaho Defeats Beaver Players

YANKS BEATEN BY CLEVELAND

Western Tour Turns Into Disaster for New York Club.

By Herbert W. Barker (Associated Press Writer)
All but invincible in their own ballwick on the banks of the Harlem, the New York Yankees have met with a warmer welcome on their first trip into the west than they had bargained for.

The collapse of Joe McCarthy's pitching staff was further emphasized Monday when the Cleveland Indians hammered George Uhle out of the box in less than two innings, shelled his successor, Russ Van Atta, joyously thereafter, and handed the Yanks their fourth defeat in five games in the west, 9-5. More to the point, the Indians, in second place, shaved the losers' American league lead to 2 1/2 games.

Single Wins Battle.
Once a Cleveland pitching idol, Uhle weathered a three-run attack, climaxed by Earl Averitt's home run with two on, in the first inning but went to the showers with only one down in the second after the Indians had pushed over two more counters. Van Atta was freely peppered the rest of the way, Averitt solving him for a single that drove in one of the two runs the Indians scored in the fourth, and for his second homer of the game and fifth of the season in the sixth.

Manager Mickey Cochrane's single with the bases filled in the ninth gave Detroit a 6-5 victory over Washington and strengthened the Tigers' grip on third place, a game ahead of the Senators.

Foxs Hits Homer.
Three home runs, including Jimmy Fox's eighth, paved the way for Philadelphia's 7-3 triumph over the St. Louis Browns who thereby dropped from fifth to seventh place, the Athletics moving up to the sixth ring. The Boston Red Sox gained fifth place with a 13-10 victory over the Chicago White Sox in ten innings.

Developments in the National League were marked by the return to second place of the Pittsburgh Pirates after they had yielded that post for one day to the St. Louis Cardinals. Arky Vaughan contributed a home run, double and single to Pittsburgh's 17-hit attack which netted an 11-4 decision over the Phillies. Larry French, Pirate southpaw ace, went the route for the first time this season.

Giants Beat Cards.
The Cardinals, meanwhile, dropped a 6-2 verdict to the New York Giants as Joe Bowman pitched effective ball after a shaky start. Summoned for starting duty after Fred Fitzsimmons had been injured by a flying bat during pregame practice, Bowman was picked for two runs and five hits in the first three frames but blanked the Cardinals with three hits the rest of the way.

The Chicago Cubs remained in first place by winning a 10-9 victory over Brooklyn in a game that lasted three hours and 20 minutes. The Boston-Cincinnati duel was rained out.

Badgers Defeat Puget Sounders

FOREST GROVE, Ore., May 22. (AP)—Pacific university gained another notch in the northwest conference standings by defeating College of Puget Sound 6 to 2 here yesterday.

The Badgers bunched six of their eight hits including a homer by Douglas for five runs in the seventh. Sahnaw, Badger pitcher, fanned eight and allowed seven scattered hits.

Webfoots Win Close Struggle From Cougars

PULLMAN, Wash., May 22. (UP)—University of Oregon won a seesaw, loosely played contest from Washington State, 9 to 8. Two hits, including a home run by Gordon, shortstop, two errors and three walks gave Oregon a five run lead in the first inning.

Washington State went ahead in the sixth with four hits, including Sorboe's triple with two aboard.

Houston, giant Cougar hurler, fanned 18 webfoet, but walked five men, each of which scored.

Klamath Boys Defeat Malin By One Score

The Klamath Falls American Legion Junior baseball team defeated Andy Street's Malin combination Sunday afternoon, 6 to 5. The contest was an almost even battle through the full course of nine innings.

In the second frame, Klamath had a two-run lead when Porterfield, Malin first baseman, drove a hard fly to deep left field where Swen Hult, Klamath, made one of the most sensational catches of the season. It was a one-handed catch and probably saved the game for Klamath Falls.

Next Sunday Klamath and Malin open a formal series for the junior championship of the county. It will be a two out of three affair.

The first game will be played at Malin. The second and a third—if it is necessary—will be played the following Saturday in Klamath Falls.

Sunday's summary:
R. H. E. Klamath 6 12 3 Malin 5 8 3 Smith, Rogers and Crapo; Fensler and Kenyon.

SEALS TACKLE ANGEL LEADERS

San Francisco Out to Halt Pennant Rush of L. A.

(By the Associated Press)
Last club of the Coast League to try to halt the pennant rush of Los Angeles, San Francisco opens a seven game series with the champions at their Wrigley field slaughterhouse today.

Manager Jimmy Caveney will have to do without the services of Joe Di Maggio, sensational Seal youngster, in the initial game with the Angels. The slugging outfielder slipped from an automobile running board Sunday night and strained his left knee. He is expected to return to the lineup later this week.

Even with Di Maggio leading the Seal attack, San Francisco's chances of checking the Angels, who already have trounced the other six teams in the league, were regarded as slight. Without him the Seals look like just another meal for the Livelite Lions.

The Angels, now leading the second place Missions, by nine games, were further strengthened last week when Pitcher Dick Ward was returned by the Chicago Cubs. In 1933 Ward won 25 and lost 5 games for Los Angeles.

Badly battered by their second series beating by Los Angeles, the Missions entertained the fast improving Hollywood Stars at San Francisco. Oakland journeys to Seattle for seven games with the seventh place Indians, while Sacramento takes on the cellar Beavers at Portland.
