County Prohibition?

OVER in Lane county a movement for county prohibition is underway. They have an association there, known as the Lane County Dry association, which has voted to circulate petitions to put a county liquor prohibition measure on the November ballot.

The Knox law has been put into effect at great expense and effort. Undoubtedly, the law can be and should be strengthened and changed. More strict enforcement is advisable. But it seems to be the consensus of informed opinion that such a plan is the best answer to the peculiar liquor problems in Oregon as affected by the sentiment of the people of the state toward liquor.

Make Them Uniform

A MODEL traffic ordinance, proposed for general adoption by American municipalities, is to be considered at a national conference on street and highway traffic to be held in Washington, D. C., this month.

Recall Names Void

IN the rush of pre-election interest, the fact was probably overlooked that on May 13 the names on petitions in the county offices recall movement became null and void.

The law provides that the names must be filed with the county clerk within 90 days after the original declarations are filed. In this case, the originals were filed on February 13.

News Behind the News
The Inside Story From The Capital
By PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON, May 23.—You cannot believe all you hear from Washington. As an instance, it now appears that the wrath of the administration will not descend, as advertised, upon the heads of all rebellious democratic congressmen.

Speaker Rainey has, in fact, quietly been striking names off his secret black-list so fast that there are few left. One of the names on it was that of a semi-southern Democrat.

Recently he paid tribute to the Gr-r-r-rat Rainey-Byrnes generalship in a speech from the floor. Soon thereafter, Floor Leader Byrnes wrote him a letter strongly approving him for re-election.

HOOPLA! The backslapping has replaced backbiting so extensively that Mr. Rainey recently appeared in the sound movie news reels with a first-term Democrat from Montana.

Floor Leader Byrnes wrote another letter covering four pages of the Congressional Record (cost to the government estimated at $55 per page) praising a Gulf states democratic congressman.

A Texas representative is using letters from both Rainey and Byrnes saying how good he is. In answer to an inquiry from the middle west, Rainey also publicly approved a congresswoman, although she had "opposed the administration on veterans' legislation."

Such tactics are extremely unusual in advance of the primaries. These congressmen are "not" running for re-election yet, but only for renomination as Democrats.

participation of Mr. Byrnes is even more extraordinary because he is chairman of the democratic congressional campaign committee, which keeps out of the primaries and acts only after democratic nominations have been made.

CO-OPERATION The reason for it is not hard to find. When the house was in revolt on veterans' restoration, pay cuts and other matters, an impression was created by the party leaders that the revolvers were going to be made to suffer.

SIDE GLANCES—by George Clark

"Remember, we're calling on the Conways this evening, so don't order anything that will make you hiccup."

From The Candidates

FROM MR. LEWIS KLAMATH FALLS.—I extend my most sincere appreciation to my host of friends who stood by me with their influence and votes during the primary campaign.

I also wish to thank the News-Herald for their fair and impartial attitude during the campaign which was in direct contrast to the stand taken by some other agencies having control of public intelligence distribution.

Klamath Falls—I wish to take this opportunity of thanking and showing appreciation to my friends and the democratic voters who supported me in the recent election.

It is scant satisfaction to the mothers of today to be remembered by the gesture of a flower on Mothers' Day, but to be forgotten and ignored in their travail.

Nothing will be done about the Darrow charges of malfeasance against the coal code authorities. The government takes the position that, inasmuch as it will be a party to the price and market arrangement made by the code authorities, it cannot prosecute even if it wanted to.

The Darrow board was privately amazed at the public response to its recommendations. Members thought they did a splendid job.

SILVER The Silverites were not as enthusiastic about their new silver bill as they pretended, although it was exactly what Mr. Roosevelt promised them weeks ago.

FORTY-FIVE TO ATTEND STATE B. P. W. MEET

Nearly 45 members of the Klamath Falls Federation of Business and Professional Women are leaving within the next two or three days to attend the annual convention of the state federation which opens in Portland, Friday.

Members from here who will be registered at the state meet will be Mrs. Leda E. Parker, state president; Mrs. Dena D. Backes, state corresponding secretary; Mrs. Isabelle Brinkner, president of the local club; Mrs. A. J. Voys, director of the club; Mrs. Florence Finnell, Bonnie Short, Betty Cleveland, Norma Uerling, May King Conrad, Mary Tolle, Flo Ann Pickett, Ella Cummings, Martha McCollum, Hester McPhail, Winifred Otoy, Emma Carter, Ann Avery, Florence Rehner, Ethelwynne O'Flaherty, Delphia Hoyt, Carol Petty, Olive Wilson, Augusta Parker, Etta Farr, Olive Cornett, Mary App, Imogene Nye, Claudia Lorenz, Ruth Eyerly, Gwendolyn Wright, Maude Melton, Grace Lytle, Agnes Arfstrom, Ida Nordine, Edna Russell, Florence Walker, Muriel Moore, Mrs. Sharp, Madeline Long, Wilma Husard, Ane Earley, Lemolme Savages and Ruth Patton.

The glee club will complete in the contest Saturday night when the outstanding gle club of the state will be selected. Among the reports of special committees will be one on the officers' training class to be given by Mrs. Brinkner, a report from Mrs. Backes on the national biennial chairman, and one from Olive Cornett on Alaskan cruise.

Various Klamath members are entering exhibits in the competitive art exhibit and the Klamath county chamber of commerce is sponsoring a community exhibit to advertise the Klamath lake boat race in June. The Klamath club will present door prizes, consisting of a tray and magazine rack made of knotty pine, at the Saturday noon luncheon.

trouble with the railroads has been that their passenger rate price levels had been boosted too high already, because of high operating costs, so that the automobiles were getting all the travel business.

BRITISH DOWN FRENCH PARIS 8, May 23.—(AP)—Victory in final match gave Great Britain a 9 to 8 triumph over France in their annual tennis meeting. Pat Hughes and Fred Perry turned back the French doubles team of Jacques Brugnon and Antoine Gentien, 5-7, 7-6, 6-3.

WE'VE HEARD a lot in the past year or so about boosting up price levels. But the kind, it is more than the story of one town. For it is the story of thousands of similar towns all over the country.

AT THE PELICAN If it's genuine comedy you like in a picture, you'll find it in looking for 'Trouble,' which stars Spencer Tracy and Jack Oakie as the newest team of film funsters and is the attraction at the Pelican Theatre today.

AT THE RAINBOW Lionel Atwill and Fay Wray, co-stars of "Dr. X" and "Wax Museum," are seen together again in the leading roles of another thriller, "The Vampire Bat" at the Rainbow Theatre showing today.

AT THE VOX Ladies—how certain are you of your men? Get some pointers from "Uncertain Lady," Universal's gaily sophisticated comedy which has been booked into the Vox theatre starting Thursday for three days.

AT THE PINE TREE Pine Tree—Now playing, "Doctor Bull," with Will Rogers. Pelican—Now playing, "Looking for Trouble," with Jack Oakie, Spencer Tracy and Arline Judge. Rainbow—Now playing, "The Vampire Bat," with Fay Wray and Lionel Atwill. Vox—Now playing, "Mystery of Mr. X," with Robert Montgomery, Elizabeth Allan, Lewis Stone and Ralph Forbes. Tomorrow, "Uncertain Lady," with Edward Everett Horton and Genevieve Tobin.

Will Rogers has returned to the Pine Tree in "Doctor Bull." It is the screen presentation of the famous novel by James Gould Cozzens, "The Last Adam," best-seller and recent Book-of-the-Month selection. It is one of the most powerful vehicles the popular philosopher-comedian has had on the talking screen. The film does not present the story of one character. Like "State Fair," the last of the Rogers screen plays, it deals with many characters, each typical of...

Editorials on News (Continued from Page One) welcome the opportunity to get them going AT ONCE, without further delay, and so provide jobs for those who have no jobs? Isn't that what the whole thing is for? BUT LET'S get away from these alphabetical organizations, which are inclined to give one a headache when he tries to figure them all out. The Burlington railroad announces that the total fuel cost of running one of its crack new passenger trains, powered by Diesel motors, from Denver to Chicago, will be about $22. If you ever tried to drive an automobile from Denver to Chicago on $22 worth of gasoline, you will realize that this will be quite an achievement.

NAVY RECRUITING STATION OPENED The United States navy has established a recruiting station at Medford with Chief Petty Officer A. P. Walker, C. M. M., as officer in charge. The district assigned to this station is composed of Jackson, Josephine, Curry, Coos, Douglas and Klamath counties. The office is located in the postoffice building, second floor and the office hours are from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. Applicants for enlistment must be not younger than 17 and not older than 25 years on date of enlistment, must be American citizens, have authentic evidence of birth, be of good moral character, pass a rigid physical examination and be above average mentally. If under 21 must have the written consent of parents or guardian. Married men or men with dependants can not be considered for enlistment. Upon enlistment recruits are transferred to the naval training station located at San Diego for three months training before being assigned to a combat ship of the U. S. fleet. The U. S. navy offers an opportunity to the men who can qualify for enlistment. It offers training in 59 different trades, world wide travel, good pay, free medical and dental care, free board, lodging and clothing, and after 20 years of honorable service a generous retirement pay. Any young man interested may call or write to Chief Walker at the above address and be assured of receiving proper consideration.

Something Funny About That Outfit

BOY SCOUTS SPEND WEEK END ON TRIP
Accompanied by Scoutmaster Robert Hough and Elwood Isted, the scouts of troop 118 spent Saturday and Sunday of last week at Jenny creek. Fishing, hiking, swimming were enjoyed by all. Every scout cooked his own breakfast over an open fire and several scouts passed the second class cooking tests. This test requires that a fire be built using only two matches and a paper or straw, and two potatoes and a steak be cooked over same without cooking utensils.
