

LOCAL FUTURE FARMERS BACK FROM BIG TOUR

Seventeen Future Farmers from the Henley and Bonanza Smith-Hughes agricultural departments, accompanied by their instructor, Jens F. Smith, have just returned from a 1100-mile trip to the Willamette valley where they spent considerable time visiting and observing other agricultural departments in action. The trip was made in a truck equipped for camping out and cooking while on the trip.

Places visited were the Smith-Hughes agricultural departments at Amity, Woodburn, Canby, Newberg, Gresham, Albany, Silverton, Lebanon and Corvallis. While at the Oregon State college, the agricultural engineering department gave the boys some wonderful information on up to date makes of tractors and also arranged for the boys to have a swimming party in the big college swimming tank.

Many student projects, hip-yards, bulb farms, poultry farms, hog farms, hatcheries and turkey farms were included in the places visited during the six days required for the trip.

The following Bonanza boys

made the trip: Willard Keller, Donald Ross, Ab Burns, Ernest Brethaupt, Tom Bray, Carl Burns, Ray Arnett, John Scott, Clifford Peppie, and Edwin Scott. Those from the Henley high school departments were Burton Dawson, James Graham, John Grizzle, Don Wells, William Cheyne, David McComb, and Walter Croft. J. S. Johnson, instructor at Merrill, also made the trip.

Death Laughed At; Greeted by Two in New York

PELHAM, N. Y., May 25. (UP) Death walked in Pelham today, walked through them as boys entered into for raising money during the past school year at both schools and was made both as an outing as well as an educational trip.

In the Zimmerman home they had a gay party for death. Across the way Kurtzman sat before a gas stove, one of the burners hissing.

Zimmerman, a retired restaurant man, knows that he is to die within six months from a heart ailment. He called in about 75 friends for a farewell party. His attractive daughter, Ruth, stood by his elbow and alternately cried and laughed as her father saluted death with a foaming stein of beer.

Across the street Mrs. Christina Kurtzman smelled gas when she awoke. She went into the kitchen and found her husband sitting in a cane-bottomed chair. The gas still hissed from the stove burner. She had come too late. He was dead. He had been invited to the Zimmerman party.

Indian Held for Murder of Mother

TOLEDO, Ore., May 25. (UP) Leo Umata, 30-year-old Indian, was held today as state and local police officials delved further into the brutal slaying of Mrs. Mary Umata, his 30-year-old mother.

The elderly woman was found beneath a second story window by passersby, beaten over the head. A small hammer which possibly might have been used in the killing, was found in an upstairs room.

Texture and structure of bread found in excavations in the ruins of ancient Pompeii was the same as that of bread baked in modern times.

Vending Machines Stolen from Lodge

Thieves broke through a window in the rear of the Elks lodge some time Wednesday evening and made away with three gum vending machines loaded with dimes, nickels and quarters. Nothing else in the building was molested, according to attendants.

A vaccine against spotted typhus, which is said to cure after one inoculation, has been discovered by Professor Melnik of the Ukraine Bacteriological Institute.

...because KRISPY Crackers are baked extra flaky!

Make this test for yourself! . . . Gently press those dainty puffs on a Krispy Cracker! You'll find them crisp . . . fragile . . . tender in texture! It's your proof that Krispy Crackers are flakier . . . And that's why Sunshine Krispy Crackers make soups, salads, cheese and all sorts of good-things-to-eat taste much better!

Take a Tip

Two factors contribute to our prediction of an early rise in sugar prices: Increased consumption during the canning season and a PROCESS TAX to take effect early in June. Our advice is to buy now and buy plenty!

*Geef my S.W. Koffie!

Java, an island possession of Holland, is so famous for its coffee that a "cup of Java" is widely understood for a "cup of coffee."

However, no matter how good a single variety of coffee may be, it fires the taste just the same as one note, constantly repeated on the piano, fires the ear.

That is why Holland is sending all the way to the Pacific Coast for tons of S & W Mellow'd Coffee, a blend of many varieties of the finest green coffees. One new tire of the full mellowness and sheer deliciousness of S & W Coffee.

And so the Dutch send 12,000 miles for the same S & W Coffee you can get locally at your grocers for about one-half the cost thirty Hollanders have to pay.
