

VETS MAY JOIN IN NATIONAL LEAGUE

Affiliation with the National Veterans' league will be considered by the Klamath Veterans Political league as a result of a visit here Wednesday night of Commander I. G. Shaw of the national group. The league may decide the question at its meeting June 12, in the county court room. Verne Schortgen was elected treasurer of the Klamath league. A telegram was sent to Senator McNary, asking him to support the veterans on the bonus bill due to come on the floor of the senate Thursday. It was reported that Nobel Carter, active veteran, was elected congressional committeeman at the meeting of the democratic central committee Tuesday night.

CELEBRATION SET FOR LA GRANDE

LA GRANDE, Ore., June 7. (Special)—What promises to be the greatest, most colorful celebration of its kind ever staged in eastern Oregon will take place in La Grande on July 19, 20 and 21 when the semi-centennial Union Pacific celebration will be held in commemoration of the coming of the first railroad to eastern Oregon in July, 1884.

Sponsored by the La Grande Union Pacific Old Timers club, three days chock full of entertainment—pageantry, athletics, parades, music, fireworks, drum and bugle corps contest, pioneer meetings, dancing, coronation of a queen, etc.—are being arranged for by a committee of 300, headed by J. B. McLaughlin, general manager.

Just preceding the celebration, the western union meeting of the Locomotive Engineers, embracing territory from Arizona on the south to western Canada on the north—will convene here July 17, 18 and 19. This is the annual western convention of this organization.

Stage Personalities Visit in Klamath

Mr. and Mrs. Abbie Green of Hollywood were in Klamath Falls this week, visiting Green's mother, Mrs. Myrtle Duffy and also his brother, "Babe" Green. Mrs. Green, a noted dancer, will join Rube Wolff in San Francisco after a short vacation here. Green is a well-known pianist. Mrs. Green teams with her brother to form a famous Aragio dance combination. They have recently closed an engagement at Loew's Warfield theatre in San Francisco.

Klamath Caravan Goes to Medford Jubilee Wednesday

A caravan of about 50 cars from Klamath Falls, sponsored by the chamber of commerce, motored to Ashland Wednesday morning to join caravans from other cities of southern Oregon and northern California within the domain of the Shasta Wonderland association and continued to the Diamond Jubilee celebration in Medford.

With the caravan of cars from Klamath Falls was the American Legion drum corps and the Royal Neighbors' drill team.

The drum corps and drill team paraded through Ashland as well as through the streets of Medford during the day, set aside as "Trail day."

E. B. Hall, president of the Cascade Wonderland association, presided at a luncheon at noon at the Medford hotel.

Wednesday was the opening day for the rodeo. Today will be Pioneer day.

Friday the chamber of commerce will sponsor the Klamath Union high school band showing at the celebration.

Mary M'Comb Is Named Librarian By County Board

Miss Mary McComb, a member of the city library staff, was elected county librarian at a meeting of the county library board Wednesday afternoon. Miss McComb has been with the city library for several years, and is a graduate of Oregon State college. It is understood her salary will be $112.50 per month. Selection of Miss McComb took place at the first meeting after the county library board was completed with the appointment by the county court of Fred Fleet to succeed Roy Nelson, resigned. It is understood leading candidates for the position were Miss McComb and Mildred Olson.
