Nelson Leading Pitching List; Medford Men Tie

With Medford and Grants Pass inactive last Sunday due to a bye in the schedule, no important changes were seen in the Southern Oregon league batting averages.

Al Droulette, Grants Pass catcher, continues to lead the league with a mark of .524, followed by Ogle, also of Grants Pass with .418.

Paul Hoffer leads the Medford players by pestering opposing pitchers for a .357 average. Wakeman continues to lead the Shaw-Bertram regulars with a mark of .333, while Kiger jumped into a tie with Wheeler to top the Grants Pass, each hitting .330.

Revised pitching averages show Nelson, Grants Pass, atop the league heap with three wins and one loss to his credit.

Revision of averages came when it was found that Earhart, instead of Nelson, lost the game at Medford April 29. Leaving the game in the fourth inning with the bases loaded and the score 4-3 in favor of Grants Pass, Earhart should have been charged with the loss, as Medford finally won, instead of Nelson, who relieved him. As it happened, Earhart left the game with the tying and winning runs on base, which runs scored that inning when Santee dropped Hoffer's long fly. As Earhart was responsible for all men on base at the time of his departure from the game, he is therefore charged with the loss.

Official Southern Oregon league pitching averages follow:

Nelson, G. P. 3 1 .750

McLean, Med. 2 1 .667

Hughes, Med. 2 1 .667

Earhart, G. P. 1 1 .500

Excellent combination of star, story, author and director is responsible for the entertaining qualities and success of "Ace of Aces," thrilling air drama starring Richard Dix. Powerful fare is provided in the theme, which is an emotional analysis of a war hero's reaction to his own prowess as a slaughterer of foemen whom he personally does not hate. "Ace of Aces" opens at the Rainbow theatre tomorrow.

Although they play in all the scenes, Norma Shearer and Herbert Marshall are not seen in the opening reels of "Riptide." Miss Shearer's new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer starring vehicle now at the Vox theatre.

This unusual opening is the contrivance of Edmund Goulding, who wrote and directed the new picture. The central characters are introduced to each other wearing grotesque costumes, only their voices betraying their identities to audiences.

In the supporting cast is seen Bald eagles have been known to retreat at the attack of the plucky kingbird.

Baer's Petition for Delay Reduces Battle to Comedy

BY EDWARD J. NEIL

Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK, June 7 (AP)—This heavyweight title duel of Max Baer and Primo Carnera that once could summon up thrilling visions of high drama at the mere mention of their names has taken on a kind of comic opera aspect—and pretty low comedy at that, if you ask the huge Italian champion.

The date has been set for months—one week from tonight, 15 rounds in Madison Square Garden bowl on Long Island. The fighters have been training for almost two months. And now Baer, the challenger, to the absolute consternation of the Garden and the champion, asks for a week's postponement so that he may get in better condition.

Baer and his manager, Ancil Hoffman, and his adviser, Jack Dempsey, will appear at the New York state athletic commission offices Friday to plead for the delay, with Carnera and his handlers, the Garden and possibly a few legal lights, objecting just as strenuously, and just a little panicky.

"Either we fight June 14 or we do not fight at all," stormed Carnera in his training camp. The monster man is in such perfect condition right now, browned a light chocolate and weighing only 258 pounds, that any delay now would wreck his training.

"We can't do that," said Col. John R. Kilpatrick, a trifle agitated. "All the people have arranged so that they could be there that night."

But placidly down in Asbury park spoke William Harrison Dempsey, who has a 7½ per cent interest in Baer and learned about ballyhoo from the master, Tex Rickard.

"Baer has seven days left to get in shape and that's not enough. The public is entitled to plenty of action for their money and they should see both men at their best. Carnera is ready, Baer isn't."
