Stock Market Quotations

NEW YORK, Nov. 6, (AP)—Stock market prices were swept upward today in the heaviest buying movement witnessed in more than a year. New highs since 1931 were scored by numerous issues.

Industrial favorites led the booming advance, with gains of one to around five points. The rails found a following and the utilities were somewhat firmer.

The close was strong. Transfers approximated 3,000,000 shares.

With the election past, bullish forces took command of the market and hoisted all sails for a run before the wind. During the first and last hours trading was so lively the ticker tape dropped behind floor dealers.

A 23,700 share block of Warner Bros. Pictures changed hands at a small advance, and General Motors opened with a single transfer of 15,000 shares, up more than two points. Many other large blocks also appeared on the upside. Profit taking was in evidence at times, but it was easily absorbed.

Just how much the various elections had to do with the rally was a matter of opinion. The news, generally, was "good" from a market standpoint.
