

20-30 HEARS SCOUT LEADER ON WEDNESDAY

Dean Miller acted as chairman at the regular meeting of the 20-30 club held Wednesday evening at the Willard hotel, introducing W. L. Hayward, pro tem regional executive of Boy Scouts of America and Dr. Calvin Hunt, dairy and meat inspector for the city of Klamath Falls.

Hayward explained the principles of the Boy Scouts, and announced that he planned to hold a court of honor at the courthouse during his visit here.

He stated that there was only one registered troop of Scouts in Klamath Falls. This is sponsored by St. Paul's Episcopal church and directed by Dr. D. J. Rees. The executive is trying to interest all service clubs of the city in sponsoring scout troops.

In response to his request, Roy Preme, president of the 20-30 club, appointed the following committee to take charge of scouting for the organization: Dr. D. J. Rees, J. Scott Donelson and Howard Jabson.

Dr. Hunt presented an interesting talk on dairy and meat regulations as enforced in Klamath county.

In keeping with the club's policy of having regular talks from every member explaining his business, Jack Riggs gave a short talk on "Undertaking" Wednesday evening.

Newton and Bill Nelson provided entertainment for the evening, and guests of the club included: Roy Porter, Portland; Jim Campbell, Salem; and Barney Fish, Richard Dark and Arthur Fratas of Klamath Falls.

TRY, PLEASE, THIS ONLY TRUE WHISKEY test

The only way to test a whiskey's quality and flavor is either in a highball or straight. Cocktails conceal a whiskey's true worth. That's why many whiskeys that "get by" in cocktails fail in the highball test.

Hiram Walker's TEN HIGH is a highball whiskey—a straight whiskey that needs no "dressing up" with other ingredients.

And you'll find that the way to make a perfect cocktail is to use a good highball whiskey. TEN HIGH!
