

PELICANS HOLD CHARITY BALL HERE TONIGHT

Preparations for a grand charity ball, sponsored by the Pelicans for the benefit of under-nourished and under-privileged children, were nearly complete this morning. The event is scheduled for the armory tonight.

A special stage show as an added attraction was announced Thursday by the committee in charge of the ball. The show will be presented at 9 o'clock, with the dance starting immediately thereafter.

Mayor to Speak

Included on the special program will be music by a 15-piece orchestra; special vocal numbers; a whirlwind dance act under the direction of the Helen Thiermer school; a feature by Adolph and Elmer, the famous Pelican duo; and a grand finale by the Gay Nineties orchestra. Mayor W. E. Mahoney will speak briefly in commendation of the Pelican undertaking.

Advance sale of tickets was running beyond expectations. Pelicans reported Thursday, thus assuring success for the organization's program of providing hot lunches and mental and medical care for children in families of small means. A large block of tickets, however, was being reserved for sale at the armory door to those who had not had an opportunity to buy from an agent.

Letters to Santa

The Herald-News is rapidly becoming a major clearing house for letters addressed to Santa Claus. The newspapers promise to do their utmost to see that Santa gets the notes.

Dear Santa: I'm trying hard to be a good girl. Will you please bring me a doll, some dishes and a story book? Please bring my little baby sister Dotty a duck. My little brother Buzz wants a wagon if you have one and a car and some blocks. Wallace stays with us. Would you please bring him a pocket knife and a game?

I'm not big enough to write Santa so Mama is writing for me.

Good-bye Santa,
