

BROTHERHOOD HOLDS MEETING THURSDAY

The Men's Brotherhood of the First Methodist church gathered around the dinner table in the social hall of the church on Thursday evening. An address was given by Rev. A. C. Bates, pastor of the First Christian church.

After a brief business meeting the members of the men's chorus went to the parsonage for rehearsal in preparation for the program of Christmas music which will be given in the church on Sunday evening.

R. E. Patterson will have charge of the chorus and the arrangement of the program, which promises to be a most interesting one.

Old Fort Grocery Number 2 Opens

Opening of Old Fort Grocery Store No. 2 at 921 East Main street on Saturday, December 14, has been announced by H. M. Mallory, owner and manager.

Mallory has operated the Old Fort dairy and grocery on Oregon avenue for several years, and states that his business has grown to such an extent that expansion is necessary.

He will feature a good quality of groceries and merchandise in his new store, and will follow the same policies as those adhered to by the Oregon avenue store.

ALTA MONT SUNDAY SCHOOL CONTINUES

The Altamont Sunday school, with Alvin Olson, superintendent, meets regularly every Sunday morning at 9:45 o'clock. Some have been under the impression since the leaving of the Rev. J. C. Whitsett for Lakeview, that the services have been discontinued. Such is not the case. There are competent teachers of classes for all ages. All those in the vicinity, men, women, children, are cordially invited to attend this helpful school.
