Christmas Spirit Hovers Over City Pervading All Holiday Festivities

The air is full of mystery as Christmas shopping and package mailing take up all the time not devoted to holiday festivity. Many delightful functions are on the social schedule for the holidays, and the first of major importance was to be the A. U. W. benefit dancing party set for Saturday night at the Willard hotel.

The Winter Dancing club has announced its annual Christmas party for Saturday evening, December 21, to be in the form of a carnival, with gifts and favors for all attending.

Clubs and organizations are going "Christmas" and all are holding parties and gift exchanges. With the arrival of the college crowd for the holidays, festivities will swing to their height, and New Year's day with its traditional parties and open houses, will climax the season.

Hamaker-Duffy Rites Solemnized Wednesday At Five o'Clock.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Hamaker, at St. Francis Park, last Wednesday evening, at 5:00 o'clock, when Chester H. Hamaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hamaker, and Miss Marie E. Duffy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vivian Duffy, were united in marriage by Rev. Arthur Charles Bates, pastor of the First Christian church.

They were attended by Miss Marjorie Whitney and Mr. J. C. Hamaker, both of Ashland, Ore. The bride and groom's maid both wore dark blue traveling suits. The bride's corsage was yellow roses, while the bride's maid's was red roses.

Miss Iris Bates sang "I Love You Truly," and Mrs. A. C. Bates played the wedding march. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the following guests: Mrs. Vivian Duffy and son, Rusty, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hamaker, Mrs. Effie Paul, Mrs. A. C. Bates and Miss Iris Bates.

MR. AND MRS. MOSER GUESTS AT DUNBAR HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Moser and baby daughter, Rachael Jane, have arrived in Klamath Falls from Kribi, Cameroon, West Africa, to spend the holidays and enjoy an extended visit at the home of Mrs. Moser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Dunbar, 420 Jefferson street.

Kribi is just north of the Congo in Africa, and Mr. Moser is in charge of all imports and exports of the customs and transportation at this station, a French mandate. They also do missionary work in and about Kribi.

Mr. and Mrs. Moser sailed for the United States on September 28, coming up the coast of Africa, across and past Bermuda and Florida, landing in New York on November 4.

They spent a month visiting in New York and New Jersey, arriving in Klamath Falls early this week.

They plan to remain eight months in the United States, and hope to spend some time in France studying the language before returning to Kribi.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church met for the regular monthly meeting on Thursday, at the home of the president, Mrs. L. N. Haines.

A silver tea followed the business meeting and about 40 members and friends called and enjoyed the excellent musical program.

Mrs. T. J. Evans and Mrs. R. O. Lyon were the assisting hostesses. The program was in charge of Mrs. J. A. Maddox and consisted of the following numbers: vocal solos by Mrs. Glenn Kent, accompanied by Mrs. Fred Coffey; violin solo by Mrs. M. Powers, accompanied by Mrs. J. A. Maddox; piano duet, Mrs. Fred Coffey and Mrs. J. A. Maddox; reading, "Why the Chimes Rang" by Mrs. Arch Procter.

A very interesting talk on South America was given by Mrs. J. A. Maddox.

The Junior Matron's class of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. J. A. Maddox for the regular monthly meeting during the past week with Mrs. Robert Hackland presiding.

After the regular business was taken care of, the annual election of officers took place resulting in the election of Mrs. Mark Morgan, president; Mrs. Mike Howry, vice president; Mrs. S. A. Fulquard, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. D. Jay Good has been the teacher of this group for many years.

The result of the calling contest was given, resulting in the fact that the losers will entertain the winners at the next meeting in January, at the home of Mrs. E. B. Ashurst. White elephants were sold and Christmas gifts were exchanged.

"Punkin Center" school was in session during the afternoon, with Mrs. Floyd Cramer as teacher.

Mrs. Beryl Houston and Mrs. Charles House, Jr., entertained last Thursday at the home of Mrs. House on North Sixth street, with a surprise birthday dinner in honor of Mrs. Nellie Osbourne.

Pinocle was in play during the evening, with high scores won by Mrs. Lottie Agee and low by Mrs. Margaret Hardenbrook. The Christmas motif was carried out in the decoration scheme.

Guests of the evening included Mesdames: Fannie Cheyne, Myrtle Kester, Lottie Agee, Anna-belle Anders, Charles House, Sr., Margaret Hardenbrook, De Vee Sinton, Bert Shuey, Nellie Osbourne, the honor guest and the hostesses, Mrs. Beryl Houston and Charles House, Jr.

A quiet wedding took place in the study of the officiating minister, Arthur Charles Bates, of the First Christian church, Tuesday evening at 8:00 o'clock, when Mr. George Howe and Mrs. Leola Crown were united in marriage. They will reside on West Oregon street, in Klamath Falls.

Woman's Library Club Enjoys Christmas Program.

A program of varied interest was presented on Monday afternoon in the main auditorium of the library when the Woman's Library club met at 2 o'clock for the final meeting of the year and one that fittingly represented the month of December.

A background of pine and evergreen branches, with bowls of holly was used for those who took part in what was considered one of the finest programs which Mrs. A. O. Roencke, program chairman, has offered this year.

Mrs. J. G. Dickey was the main speaker of the afternoon, and she took her guests on a mental travelogue from New York to San Francisco by way of South Africa, India, China and Japan.

Mrs. Dickey's son, Paul Dickey, has served for more than five years as a missionary to the natives of South Africa and many interesting stories were related by Mrs. Dickey in illustrating her discussion of native life in that section of remote Africa. Mrs. Dickey also presented a varied and interesting selection of curios gathered in these travels.

Mrs. Emil G. Dreher presented a fine program illustrating the native music of Africa, the paper read showing a great amount of study and research done in delving into the mysteries of negro music. An interesting point brought out was the effect of native African music on modern American music.

The afternoon's program was opened by Mrs. Bert Thomas, activities chairman, who discussed the scrap book started this year by the club members.

Another feature of the afternoon program was a paper on Oregon writers, read by Mrs. J. Scott Donaldson. Mrs. Donaldson's talk was augmented by a display of books by Oregon writers and dealing with Oregon history and art, this arrangement by Mrs. Walter Brown and Mrs. George Walton.

Mrs. Don - Zumwalt, music chairman of the library club, presented Mrs. Albert Best, concert pianist, who graciously played two selections for the guests, "Liebestraum" by Liszt and "The Juggler" by Tach, a modern composer. Mrs. Zumwalt first read the poem which inspired Liszt to write Liebestraum. Mrs. Best was cordially received by one of the most capable pianists to appear in this city.

During the brief business meeting a vote was taken by the members as to the method of raising money for the Doernbecher hospital fund. It was decided to raise the funds by donation. Mrs. E. D. Lamb, president, presided.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS HONORS Mrs. HORN-SHUB

Mrs. Fred Hornshub was honored recently with a surprise birthday party when the girls of her Sunday school class of the Klamath temple met at the home of Mrs. Paul Stafford at 1602 Delta street.

Many beautiful gifts were presented. The afternoon was spent in games and refreshments were served.

The girls honoring Mrs. Hornshub were Dorothy Stafford, Evelyn Nichols, Helen Blackley, Daisy Konsella, Flora Brown, Ernest Arnett, Nola Jean Arnett, Grace Webber, Ruth Butler, Ruth Brodland, Marjorie Grover, Dorothy Wilson, Helen Hetland and Norma Mae Hetland.

The Idle Hour club was entertained Thursday, Dec. 12 at a 1 o'clock dinner at the home of Mrs. Phil Brick at 921 Prospect street.

Table and rooms were gay with bright flowers and candles in keeping with the holiday season. Those to gather around the festive table were: Mesdames K. M. Peterson, W. M. Carter, G. E. Bellant, W. M. Miller, K. Vaughn, Stanley Pioser, R. A. La Londe and Lee Kennedy, and visitors: Mesdames F. X. Sexton, J. Ronfelt, and W. E. Krueger.

Dinner was followed by giving of Christmas gifts to each. These were bestowed by Katherine Krueger in an angel costume with a Christmas wish for each one.

Next meeting to be at Mrs. Carter's at Upham, third Thursday in January, with Mrs. Barrant as co-hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Maxey of Santa Cruz, California, are visiting in Klamath Falls with friends. Mr. and Mrs. Maxey are former residents of this city. Mr. Maxey will be remembered by his many friends as a former conductor for the Southern Pacific, having retired two years ago.

St. Paul's Episcopal Guild met Thursday afternoon, December 12, at the home of Mrs. O. F. Kerschot on Crescent avenue.

There was a good attendance to hear Mrs. Catlin describe the wedding ceremony of a fourteen year old girl she witnessed at Tunis, bringing out the vast difference in the life of a Moslem woman and that of a Christian woman.

There will not be a meeting of the Guild until January 9, 1936.

Christmas Carnival To Be Given By Winter Dancing Club

December, the twenty-first, has been set for the date of the annual holiday party, a Christmas carnival dance, to be given by the Winter Dancing club at the Willard hotel.

Gay carnival hats, horns and confetti will feature the occasion, and special decorations will beautify the Willard banquet room.

Hosts and hostesses for the evening will include: Mr. and Mrs. Rahlen C. Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Linman and Mr. and Mrs. Leola Oty.

Music for the dancing will be furnished by Dave Totten's orchestra.

DAUGHTERS OF NILE ENTERTAIN HUSBANDS

The Daughters of the Nile entertained their husbands at dinner and bridge Monday evening at the Elk hotel.

Following dinner, Santa Claus entered with a well filled sack and distributed gifts to all.

After a pleasant social hour, bridge both contract and auction, was in play.

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Lester Kimble and L. L. Graham for scores in auction and to Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Chilcote for contract.

The dinner tables, which were artistically arranged, were centered with crystal bowls of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums, and a gaily decorated Christmas tree illuminated one corner of the dining room, while other small evergreen trees and holiday greens were used about the rooms.

Those who enjoyed the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kenschot, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Chilcote, Dr. and Mrs. George Massey, Mr. and Mrs. F. Hill Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Purcell, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown, Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Braden, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Ellington, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Patten, Mr. and Mrs. John Poppy, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Epperson, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Kimble, Mrs. Carl Stenseler, Mrs. Wilbur Arnold, Mrs. Mae Balsager, Mrs. Ruth Hathaway, Mrs. J. H. Carter and Mrs. Laura Willis.

St. Paul's Episcopal Guild met Thursday afternoon, December 12, at the home of Mrs. O. F. Kerschot on Crescent avenue.

There was a good attendance to hear Mrs. Catlin describe the wedding ceremony of a fourteen year old girl she witnessed at Tunis, bringing out the vast difference in the life of a Moslem woman and that of a Christian woman.

There will not be a meeting of the Guild until January 9, 1936.

Klamath Homes To Be Bright With Christmas Lights This Week.

A house without a gay exterior will be an unusual home indeed, if members of the committee on the Christmas lighting projects have their way.

Committee members have worked busily all week calling on residents throughout Klamath Falls and urging them to dress up the porches, windows and even the shrubbery and lawns of their home in keeping with the Christmas spirit that has invaded the city as it hasn't been invaded for many, many years.

Mrs. John Martin, chairman of the lighting committee, announced today that members are receiving excellent response from residents of the city. Mrs. Ralph McCulloch is assisting also on the committee group which includes: Mrs. J. J. Steiger, Jr., Mrs. Fred Shallock, Mrs. Louis Serrano and Mrs. L. E. Sherman.

In addition to a sincere response from home owners has come an equally good response for donations toward the cash prizes which will be given in each zone of the city, as well as the grand sweepstakes prize for entire Klamath Falls.

Speaking of the grand sweepstakes, Mills addition plans to give the rest of the city a good bit of competition as many home owners in that section of Klamath Falls have signified their intentions to decorate the exterior of their houses in splendid style. Motorists who plan to view the lights the opening night are urged not to forget the many homes in Mills addition which will be in gala attire. Mrs. J. E. Sherman is zone chairman of this section.

School children as well as their teachers and principals are co-operating in making the city "light conscious" this holiday season and they will carry their infectious news home to their parents.

HARTLEY-MINER WEDDING SET FOR DECEMBER 16

Miss Norma Miner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Miner of Springfield, Utah, will become the bride of Charles A. Hartley, Jr., of Salt Lake City, on Monday, December the sixteenth.

Mr. Hartley was a resident of Klamath Falls for several years, before being transferred by the Southern Pacific Railroad company to its Salt Lake City office.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartley plan to spend a portion of their honeymoon visiting in Klamath Falls during the Christmas holidays. They will make their home in Salt Lake City.

KIWANIS AND LADIES ENJOY DINNER DANCE

A benefit dinner dance was given at the Elk hotel on Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Devlin for Kiwanians and their ladies.

Proceeds from the evening, amounting to approximately $50, will be turned over to the Kiwanis chorus, which will appear in concert during the winter.

The occasion proved to be one of the most delightful enjoyed by the club during the winter season.

MISS JOHNSON HONORED UPON DEPARTURE MONDAY
