

Dunsmuir Beats Klamath in Fast Game, 19-16

Hobson Sets Brilliant Record

Oregon's New Coach, Who Brings His Team Here Thursday, Has Remarkable Career.

Few young coaches have made such a rapid rise in collegiate competition as Howard Hobson.

Starting as head coach at the University of Oregon this season, Hobson's future is still to be shaped.

Here is a resume of his career as a player and coach: Howard Hobson first broke into the athletic spotlight at Franklin high in Portland.

After leaving Oregon, Hobson played and led the Multnomah club quintet of Portland and in 1929 was the leading scorer of the Montclair, New Jersey, Athletic club.

Hobson's coaching records at Benson, Kelso, and Southern Oregon Normal, before coming to Oregon, were unusually brilliant.

From Benson Hobson moved up to Southern Oregon Normal school at Ashland, where he turned out the greatest teams in that school's history.

Twice, in 1933 and 1935, Southern Oregon was invited to participate in the National A. A. U. tournament and last year accepted.

Several of Oregon's outstanding athletes have come from Southern Oregon. They were Willard Jones and Budd Jones, hoop stars for the past two years.

Hobson's basketball coaching record is as follows: W. L. 1927 Kelso, W. H. S. 6 0 1928 Kelso, Port. 14 5 1931 Benson, Port. 23 6 1932 Benson, Port. 25 2 1933 S. O. N. S. 19 5 1934 S. O. N. S. 23 5 1935 S. O. N. S. 25 5

Other data: Took B. A. degree at Oregon in 1926 those Master's in P. E. at Columbia, New York, in 1929. Member of Columbia chapter of Phi Delta Kappa, national honorary scholastic educational society.

Southern Oregon Coaches Defeat Sons, 40 to 30

ASHLAND, Ore., Dec. 21. (P)—A team of five southern Oregon coaches, playing together for the first time, surprised themselves and their opponents last night by defeating the Southern Oregon Normal quintet, 40 to 30.

Coach Jean Eberhart of the Normal school played against his own team. Other members in the lineup included Bill Bowerman, Medford high; Russell Achison, Medford junior high; Don Faber, Ashland high and Earl Rogers, Ashland junior high.

CLOSE GAME PLAYED HERE

First Home Tilt Lost by Pelicans; Play Tonight.

Dunsmuir of northern California, holding stubbornly to a small lead piled up in the early minutes of play and keeping its opponents at bay with a puzzling zone defense, eked out a 19-16 victory over the Klamath high quintet last night in the Pelican youngsters' first home game of the year.

Three points divided winners from losers at the end of the fray, the same three-point margin which, with only momentary lapses, was maintained throughout nearly four full periods of as fast and thrilling action as the Klamath gym floor has ever witnessed.

No player on either squad stood out from his teammates in a game in which each one was called upon to perform to his utmost. Forward Beck and Center Paletta of the Californians tallied seven points each to share high-scoring honors.

In a preliminary tussle which nearly matched the top game in excitement, the Klamath Wildcats nosed out Halsiger, much-defeated member of the city league, by a score of 17 to 16.

The Klamath-Mt. Shasta game, which was to have been played here tonight, was cancelled Friday afternoon. The Pelicans will go up against Lost River of the city league in a substitute contest.

Summary: Dunsmuir FG FT T Sexton, f 0 0 0 Beck, f 3 1 7 Van Lindt, f 1 0 2 Powers, c 0 0 0 Palka, c 3 1 7 DeYarmis, g 1 1 3 Reginato, g 0 0 0 Rubens, g 0 0 0 Totals 8 3 19

Summary: Klamath FG FT T Durbin, f 1 3 5 Reginato, f 0 0 0 Giovannini, f 1 0 2 Saunders, f 1 0 2 Musselman, c 0 0 0 Atkins, s 1 1 3 Putman, g 2 0 4 Totals 6 4 16

Summary: Wildcats FG FT T Young, f 1 0 2 Crapo, f 1 1 3 Stride, f 2 0 4 Dudley, f 0 0 0 Bellotti, c 3 0 6 Yancy, c 0 0 0 Huff, g 0 0 0 P. Green, g 1 0 2 A. Green, g 0 0 0 Totals 8 1 17

Summary: Halsiger FG FT T Dudley, f 0 1 1 Hall, f 3 0 6 B. Richey, c 2 0 4 J. Richey, c 1 1 3 Pape, g 1 0 2 Vogel, g 0 0 0 Totals 7 2 16

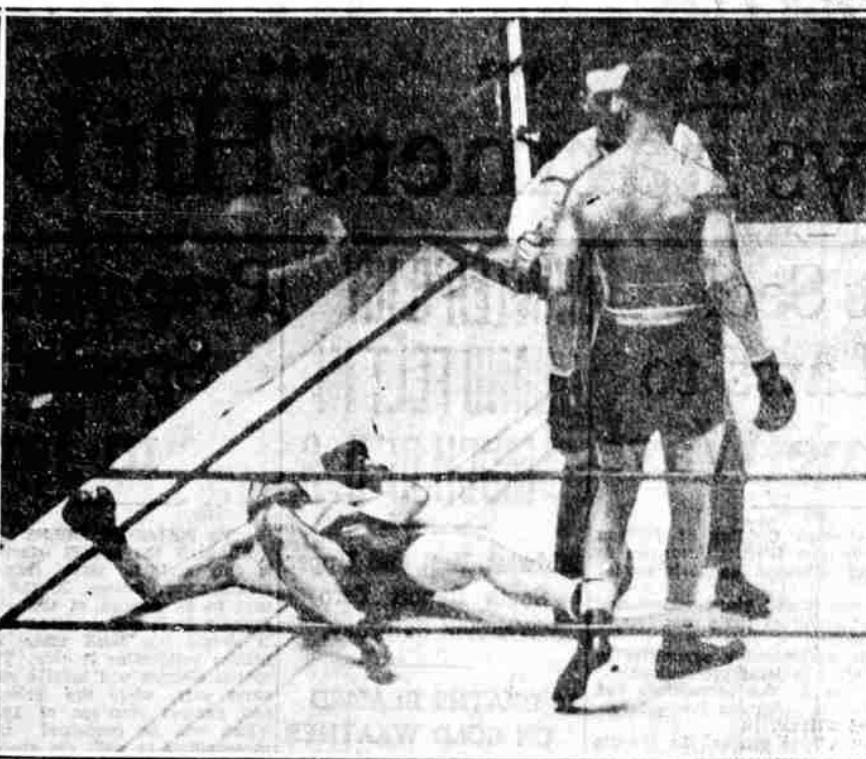

Telegraph wires in East Africa have to be carried on exceptionally high poles owing to the inability of giraffes breaking the cables.

TAKE THIS WITH PINCH OF SALT

"Snow use, there's no snow," Hannea Schroll, international ski star, said when asked to display his capabilities in San Francisco.

Camera Records Another Brown Bombing

Battered mercilessly for three and a half rounds, Paulino Uzcudun, veteran of the Detroit Negro's, was pounded to the canvas by Joe Louis with a jarring right uppercut for a count of eight, rose to his feet defenseless and was toppled into the arms of Referee Arthur Donovan.

Sixteen years and a poorer fighting equipment proved too much of a handicap for the bounding Basque of the ring, so here you see Paulino Uzcudun being led to his corner, the victim of a technical knockout at the hands of Joe Louis, Detroit negro, in the fourth round of their bout at Madison Square Garden in New York. Knocked down for the count of eight, then toppled into the referee's arms by another blow, his dazed expression is an index of the terrific beating he took. Louis was in command from the first blow.

Mike Mikulak, Bill Morgan On Professional All-Stars

NEW YORK, Dec. 21. (P)—The New York Giants and Chicago Bears furnish three players each to the national professional football league's all-star team.

The only repeaters from 1934 were Morgan, Giants' tackle; Mel Hein, Giants' center; Joe Kopcha, Bears' guard, and Earl (Dutch) Clark, ace quarterback of the champion Detroit Lions.

Pelicans-CCC Game Scheduled as Preliminary

A contest between the Klamath High Pelicans and the Camp Bonanza CCC quintet was scheduled Saturday as a preliminary to the Oregon-Southern Oregon Normal tilt to be played at the armory next Saturday night.

CUBS, IRISH SPLIT HONOR

Baseball, Football Offer Chief Surprises for Last Season.

(This is the fifth of a series detailing the results of the annual Associated Press sports poll.)

NEW YORK, Dec. 21. (P)—To the experts peering intently from the sidelines, the sports campaign of 1935 seemed to have involved a rapid succession of surprising results, topped off by the dizzied college football season in history.

The biggest surprise of all, based on the returns tabulated today in the fifth annual Associated Press poll, was the sensational stretch drive of the Chicago Cubs to baseball's pennant victory.

James J. Braddock's victory on points over Max Baer for the world heavyweight boxing championship topped the individual surprises of the year.

Points totaled in the poll, based on a 2-2-1 tally of preferences listed by sports editors and writers, showed the Cubs' victory at the head of the list with 92 points.

Braddock's victory over Baer took second place from Notre Dame's football triumph over Ohio State by a single point. The totals were 83 to 82.

While football contributed 14 episodes or developments to the list of surprises, the poll covered a wide range of upsets.

The second straight collapse of the New York Giants was considered a bigger surprise than the defeat of the world champion Cardinals at finish of the National league baseball race.

"Unknown Winston's second knockout by Jack Sharkey, on the same night, belongs among the most surprising events," commented one sports editor.

PORTLAND WINS —Portland university's basketball quintet downed Fresno State's notorious breaker-downer, builder-upper team 40 to 31 here last night.

Status Restored—She'll Compete

Her citizenship restored by the German Government, Helene Mayer, famous German Jewish fencer, has announced that she will compete for Germany in the 1936 Olympic Games.

STRIKES TO SPARE

The Weyerhaeuser crew had their night Friday evening on the Bowlers' Garden alleys, with Bill Martin's Planing mill five defeating the league leading factory team in three straight games.

As the players' and Bill Martin's cutters taking two out of three from the shipping department, Gallipoly of the cutters rose to great heights by crashing the maples for a 186 score which accounted for a win in the final and deciding game.

Weyerhaeuser League Scores: Floetke 176 132 150 458 Woods 152 159 128 439 Anderson 115 114 122 351 West 194 156 152 504 Thornton 193 151 150 494 Handicap 139 139 118 396

Cutters: Harshberger 147 208 145 513 Young 148 140 121 409 Gallipoly 127 132 186 445 Radcliff 138 162 127 427 Ward 169 207 153 529 Handicap 123 123 123 369

Factory: Savage 195 142 98 345 Shelley 143 122 124 393 Cartwright 156 126 138 420 Woods, L. 159 161 185 505 Strong 187 200 160 547 Handicap 111 111 111 333

MHI: Deering 119 153 136 399 Peck 168 125 171 464 Martin B. 186 165 135 486 Haight 189 192 194 575 Martin, C. 181 197 159 538 Handicap 90 90 90 270

Total: 861 962 855 2682

JACK McAVOY WHIPS RISKO Middleweight Champion Takes Beating from Englishman.

By ANDY CLARKE Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Dec. 21. (P)—The British, who have preferred to discuss cricket these many years, are talking of fighting and English fighters again.

Shades of Jim Driscoll and Ted Kid Lewis were in Madison Square Garden last night as Jack McAvoy, middle and light heavyweight champion of the empire, unleashed a torrent of leather against Babe Risko of Syracuse, N. Y., world middleweight champion, and knocked him out in 2:48 of the first round.

A fidgety fighter whose face drained white as he leaped from his stool at the opening gong, McAvoy sent Risko to the canvas with his first right hand punch.

That punch was the beginning of the end for the Syracuse boy who gained his title, which was not at stake last night, from Teddy Yaroz about three months ago.

Risko, started, climbed back to his feet without a count. The Englishman, his arms flailing like a windmill in a gale, looped over left and rights that sent Risko staggering backward and finally down again for a count of six.

Risko waited for the count on one knee, on his face was the sardonic half-grin of a champion who finds himself on the floor before he has had time to throw a punch.

He arose to meet another storm of leather, lefts that came in under and over his wobbling left hand defense and finally induced him to lift his chin for the right hand smash that was the Briton's objective.

The American went down three times for counts of three, five and eight before McAvoy plied him against the ropes and sledged him to the floor for the final count.

Risko, who had climbed to his feet five times, made one futile gesture to rise again, as the crowd pleaded with him to get up. He couldn't make it, however, and he settled back as the referee counted him out.

OREGON SEEKS HOOP HONORS

Darkhorse Contender Will Play Here on Thursday.

A new coach, a new system of play and a large number of new players cannot point to anything but a dark horse rating for Oregon this winter, states Howard A. Hobson, former Webfoot hoop star now back on his old stamping grounds as head basketball and baseball coach.

"I can't see anything but Oregon State and Washington fighting it out for conference honors," Hobson declares. "With Oregon, Washington State and Idaho about on a par close behind."

The Oregon varsity will be in Klamath Falls next Thursday night to go up against Jean Eberhart's powerful team from Southern Oregon Normal school. The game will be played at the Klamath armory.

Oregon will have six lettermen from the 1935 team in Willard and Budd Jones, Roland Rourke, Sam Liebowitz and Bill Harcombe. From Hobson's great Southern Oregon Normal team of last year come Charles Patterson, Cliff Courtney, Ward Howell, Bill McLean, Bob Braddock, Ray Jewell, Wayne Scott and Oliver Hughes.

Outstanding prospects from freshman ranks are Dave Silver, tall southpaw center, Jack Stafford, forward, and Bill Dick, guard. Kenneth Purdy, ball-hawking transfer from Long Beach junior college, is another promising candidate.

As the players scramble for positions the leading forwards are Willard Jones and Dave Silver, converted centers, and Ken Purdy, Cliff Courtney and Roland Rourke. Centers are Ward Howell, Chuck Patterson, Bill Harcombe and Ray Jewell, while guards are Sam Liebowitz, John Lewis, Wayne Scott, Bill Courtney and Budd Jones.

Oregon Beaten by Willamette by 29-21 Score

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 21. (UP)—University of Oregon's basketball team started an ambitious barnstorming trip inauspiciously last night by losing to Willamette University.

Willamette beat the Webfoot 29 to 21, holding a lead throughout except for a few minutes in the first half when Oregon tied the score at 11-11, then moved one point ahead.

Willamette led at the half, 14 to 13. Twenty-nine fouls were called in the game, with Patterson, Oregon center, and Anton, Willamette center, going out on personals.

Oregon failed to score in the first six minutes of the game while Willamette was netting seven points. Oregon players followed to follow in after long shots, snapped at the basket too quickly and handled the ball sloppily. Willamette carried the attack continually and most of the game was played under the Oregon basket.

U. S. C. BEATEN UCLA WINS

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 21. (UP)—U. S. C. L. A.'s Pacific coast conference basketball team, playing its first major opponent on its 1935 schedule, took an impressive 42 to 33 victory over Santa Clara University here last night in Clive Auditorium.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 21. (UP)—Stanford University displayed an overwhelming offensive in its first major basketball game of the season to defeat Utah State 73 to 34.

Rushing the ball down court to Angelo "Hank" Luisetti, star forward, the Stanfords scored repeatedly with apparent "set-up" shots that left the visitors flustered.

HUSKIES TRIUMPH SEATTLE, Dec. 21. (UP)—University of Washington scored an easy victory over the traveling Drake University basketball team from Des Moines last night, 45 to 25.

The Huskies led throughout, displaying a tight defense. Drake scored nearly half its points on free throws. Washington led 28 to 14 at halftime. High scorer was Wagner, Washington guard, with 12 points. Orebaugh collected 10 for Drake.