Stock Market Quotations

NEW YORK, Dec. 21, (AP)—The stock market saw signs of Santa Claus today, and cheerful, but selective, buying prevailed during the brief session.

Aviation issues, particularly, were in demand, and a number of specialties forced ahead. There were many gains of fractions to three or more points at the firm close. Transfers approximated 1,050,000 shares.

Although the confusion surrounding foreign affairs still kept some traders on the sidelines, tension seemed to have lessened. A little more interest in American securities from abroad was noted by commission houses with European connections. Trading gained momentum near the finish.

There was a week-end truce in the silver situation, no price being quoted either in London or New York for the bar metal, and foreign exchanges were slightly mixed.

First Baptist church, corner Eighth and Washington streets.
 "The Church with the Gospel Message and Mission." Rev. Cecil C. Brown, pastor, residence 423 North Fifth street, phone 245R.
 Church school, 5:15 a.m., Sunday, O. Welch, superintendent. Sunday morning, December 22, the Sunday school will render a Christmas program at the regular school hour. This program is under the direction of Mrs. Hunsaker, and gives the boys and girls of the community an opportunity to take part in, and enjoy Christmas. Parents are invited to bring their children and enjoy this event with the Bible school.

Morning worship, 10:45 a.m. Sermon subject, "God's Christmas Gift to the World." B. Y. P. U., 6:30 p.m. Mrs. C. B. Miller, general director. Our B. Y. P. U. is growing in attendance and interest. There is a union for each class. This is the training department of the church. The B. Y. P. U. motto is "We Study That We May Serve." This organization actually trains in Christian service, and is efficient in every way. Evening evangelistic service, 7:30 p.m. Sermon subject, "Our Christmas Gift to God." Dedicated Christmas services are being held on the commemoration of Christmas. Special music has been arranged and at both services the pastor will speak on Christmas. At the morning service he will deal with this holiday from God's viewpoint and at the evening service from man's viewpoint.

There will be no mid-week service on Wednesday night this week. Our big annual Christmas program will be given Wednesday, December 25, at 7:30 p.m. This program drama, "When the Prince of Peace Was Born," is being directed by Mrs. Vania Walker, and like our previous programs, is a stirring drama. Nearly 50 people will participate in the program. Be sure you see "When the Prince of Peace Was Born." Music directed by John T. Brown; pianist, Mrs. Melvin Ostrom. Other announcements will be made from the pulpit. At the First Baptist church you will find splendid Christian fellowship, good old-time singing, sane gospel preaching, and a good place to worship.

On Thursday evening at 7:30 the Sunday school will give their program. A treat will be given to all children present.

First Presbyterian Church—Corner of North Sixth and Pine streets, Rev. Theodore Smith, D. D. pastor, offers an unusually rich program for both the morning and evening services. The morning service at 11:00 o'clock opens with the organ prelude, "Christmas Fantasia" by Calver. The chorus choir will sing as the processional. Mendelssohn's "Nativity." Following the opening sentence the choir will sing "Praise" as a response. The morning anthem will be "The People That Walked in Darkness," by Rogers.

The offertory is an unusually beautiful number, "O Holy Night," by Adams. This will be sung by the guest singer, Mrs. Dortha Elliott Reed of San Francisco. She will be accompanied by both organ and piano. The organ postlude is Mozart's "Gloria."
 The pastor will speak on "What God Has Always Wanted to Do."

In the evening the organ prelude will be "The Chorus of Angels." The procession will be Mendelssohn's "Hark! the Herald Angels Sing."
 The evening program is the celebrated cantata by James H. Rogers, "The Mystery of Bethlehem." This will be rendered by a large chorus choir, directed by Mrs. J. E. Glanham and accompanied by Mrs. George McIntyre, organist. The soloists will be: soprano, Mrs. Dortha Elliott Reed; contralto, Mrs. Augusta Parker; tenor, Mr. Ernest McKinney; and bass, Mr. George A. Myers.

Part 1—
 1. "The Prophecy" choir and tenor solo, Mr. McKinney.
 2. "The Song of Mary," choir and soprano solo, Mrs. Reed.
 3. "The Shepherds," choir and soprano and contralto solos, Mrs. Reed and Miss Parker.
 4. "O Little Town of Bethlehem," contralto solo, Miss Parker.
 5. "The Wise Men," choir and bass and tenor solos, Mr. Myers and Mr. McKinney.
 6. "The Guiding Star"—Choral choir.

There will be an interlude when the offering, which is a special one to be used in the purchase of new hymn books, will be received. The offertory will be "Lullaby" by Guilmant.

Part 2—
 7. "The Prince of Peace," choir and bass solo, Mr. Myers.
 8. "Emmanuel," choir and tenor solo, Mr. McKinney.
 The program closes with the marvelous organ postlude "Hosanna," by Wachs.

Special attention is called to the slight change in the time of the opening of the evening service from 7:30 to 7:45. It should also be noted that no finer cantata has ever been presented than this one. The chorus has been carefully trained and the soloists are outstanding. All lovers of music will be charmed.

In order that the production may be undisturbed by late arrivals, the audience is requested to be in their places early. As heretofore, it is expected that the seating capacity will be taxed to its utmost. However, every effort will be made to care for all so that none will be disappointed.

The public is cordially invited to express its views. Evening service will be held at 7:30 and the subject of Dr. Marshall's inspirational sermon will be "The New Birth," dealing with our entrance into the flesh and our entrance into the spirit. Bible reading from first chapter of St. John's gospel, 1-14 verse.

Immanuel Baptist church—North Eleventh and High streets, J. Clarence Orr, pastor.
 Throughout every service next Sunday, we shall keep the spirit of Christmas. In our Bible school we have teachers who are interested in teaching the Bible and imparting its truths to us and to apply them to every day life. Our superintendent and teachers will be glad to see you on this Christmas Sunday.
 The message of the pastor for this Christmas Sunday will be: "Tributes Paid to Jesus at His Birth." Never in the history of the human race has there been such a tribute given at the birth of another person. And why not pay tribute to Him whose birthday we are commemorating? There is a fear of losing sight of the real meaning of Christmas, for everywhere we see Santa Claus and only once in a while do we see the manger scene. Come to church Sunday morning and see the varied tributes paid to Jesus at His birth. Mrs. L. A. Merrill will sing, "How Sweet the Name," at the morning service.

 The senior and high school groups will meet in a united service Sunday evening at 6:30 for a Christmas message and for a Christmas message and for an interesting meeting. We invite the young people to this service.
 The evening service will continue the Christmas spirit, the pastor will preach on the subject, "The Incarnation of Christ." What is the difference between the incarnation of Christ and the incarnations of the gods of Greece and other nations? You are invited to hear this discussion. Graydon Broyles will sing at the evening service.
 Our Sunday school Christmas program will be given Monday evening at 7:30, on which the public is cordially invited.
 Our mid-week service will be dismissed this week, as it is Christmas.

Zion Lutheran Church—1625 High street, G. W. Hoffmann, pastor.

At the service of worship beginning at 10:55, Mrs. E. S. Yentis will play the "Christmas March" by Merkel and "Cantique de Noel" by Adams. The choir will sing the anthem, "And Thou Bethlehem," and the guest soloist will be Graydon Broyles. The pastor will speak on the theme: "The Word Was Made Flesh. White gift offering in behalf of the local church and world service."

At 6:30 p.m. the Epworth League devotional meeting will be held. At 7:30 p.m. the service will begin with a pageant entitled "The Kings' Gift" by Elizabeth Edlund under the direction of Mrs. J. K. Reno, with the characters—Mary and Joseph. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Putnam; the Pilgrim; George Warrell; the Shepherds: Eston Balsiger, Roland Hutchins, Bill Chilcote, the Angels: Helen Herb, Dorothy Winiger, Audrey Hill; the Kings: Albert Dollarhide, C. H. Barnstable, E. M. Chilcote. The nations of the world will be represented by a group of children from the Sunday school.

Following the pageant, Albert Dollarhide will sing, "Thou Blessed Bethlehem." Benn Soule will sing a Christmas number, and Mrs. B. J. Loftsgaard will sing "O Night Divine." The choir will present the anthems, "And Thou Bethlehem" and "Softly Through the Silent Night." The service will conclude with a brief message by the pastor.

 There will be no Endeavor service Sunday evening, but the Players are to gather at 7:00 o'clock in the church.

 Monday evening at 8 o'clock, the pageant and Christmas frolic. Community church wishes all its friends a Merry Christmas and invites you all to its services and pageant.

Morning Watch: Rev. A. G. Bates of the First Christian church will lead the morning devotionals over KFJI during the week, Dec. 23-25.

Community Congregational Church—The special Christmas exercises will include two programs: First, the Sunday morning service at 11:00 o'clock; second, the Monday evening program, including songs and exercises by the primaries and beginners under leadership of Mrs. William Larson and Mrs. E. P. Black, a pageant, "Good Will Among Men," by the Community Players, assisted by the junior and intermediate departments of the church school. The Girl Scouts of the church decorated the building and members are among the players. As a part of the pageant all attendants are asked to bring "White Gifts for the King," and present them on the platform. The gifts will be turned over to the Salvation Army for distribution to needy ones. Mrs. J. G. Dickey and the girls' robed choir will sing part of the carols, while the audience will join in others. Mrs. Dickey will sing, during the pageant, "Behold a Virgin Shall Conceive," and "He Shall Feed His Flock Like a Shepherd," both from "Messiah."

Following the program there will be a Christmas frolic joined in by young and old, with Santa Claus joining in the fun. There will be treats and a general good time. Due to many working, the program will not begin until 8:00 o'clock.

Mills district people especially are cordially invited to come with the children and enjoy this with us. This local church will be turned over to the Salvation Army for distribution to needy ones. Mrs. J. G. Dickey and the girls' robed choir will sing part of the carols, while the audience will join in others. Mrs. Dickey will sing, during the pageant, "Behold a Virgin Shall Conceive," and "He Shall Feed His Flock Like a Shepherd," both from "Messiah."

Church of Psychic Research, 305 North Eleventh, corner of High street.
 Services will be held in the new quarters, 305 North Eleventh, corner of High street, Sunday, at 7:45 p.m.
 The subject of the deep trance session, attended by Rev. Delia H. Hauser will be "The Christ Child," followed by spirit communications. Other services announced Sunday for the week.
 Everyone welcome to all services.

First Christian church, corner of Ninth and Pine streets, Arthur Charles Bates, minister.
 Bible school, 9:45 a.m. We expect an increased attendance this Sunday. Come with us for an hour of Bible study.
 Morning worship and communion, 11:00 a.m. Organ prelude by Mrs. Albert Nyback. Trumpet solo by Mr. Ray Bigger. Lord's supper. Sermon, "Following the Star."
 Special Christmas program is prepared for the Christian Endeavor hour at 6:00 o'clock. This will be a united meeting—the senior Young People and the senior Intermediate meeting together.

The evening service will consist of a Christmas pageant, "The Promised One," given by the young people of the church.
 The primary and intermediate departments will give a Christmas program Monday evening at 7:30. A tree with treats for the children.
 A Christmas service will be held on Christmas night at 7:30.

Second Heart church, corner North Eighth and Pine streets, Rev. F. L. Geis, pastor.
 The feast of Christmas will be ushered in with a high mass at 6:00 a.m., December 25, and this will be followed by masses at 8:00 and 10:30. The parish choir, under the direction of Mrs. L. C. Offield, will sing the mass of the composer, Lordell. Mr. Warren Cronan will preside at the organ. The choir has been augmented in number, and will render beautiful singing of the liturgical parts and appropriate hymns for the day. Mrs. Offield is an efficient leader of the parish choir, being the daughter of Mrs. Mamie Glacomb of Merrill. She was the organist, and who directed the first choir of the parish nearly 30 years ago.
 Rev. Joseph Chianale, S. J., will be here from Spokane to help with extra work of Christmas. Being a native of Turin, Italy, he will be of special help to Italians of the city. Any one will be welcome to attend the services, and there will be no tickets for admission, as was necessary when the first mass was celebrated at midnight in former years.
