Deadline Nearing For Applications On Rye Program

Applications for rye adjustment contracts covering the years 1932 to 1935 must be made in the near future, according to G. W. Hinkle, assistant county agent, and also secretary of the Klamath county AAA control program.

The rye control program is similar to that for wheat production control, according to Hinkle, who urges all rye producers to call at his office within the next 10 days to obtain full information relative to the program, and to fill out applications if they so desire.

Any farm which has been growing rye in one or more of the years of 1930, 1931 and 1932, and on which rye has been harvested as grain in the years 1933, 1934 and 1935, is eligible for government benefit payments on reductions.

The contracts require a producer to harvest not more than 75 per cent of his base acreage determined on the years 1930, 1931 and 1932, depending upon the amount of rye harvested in the years from 1933 to 1935.

A grower must produce at least 54 per cent of the farm base in order to comply with the contract.

Production of rye will be estimated and calculated on the basis of yield per acre by the county allotment committee. This method does away with "evidence of production" necessary in previous years and required in the wheat production control program.

The rye allotment is figured at 30 per cent of the average amount of rye produced during the base period, of which the producer will receive 25 cents per bushel on that allotment.

Twenty cents of this amount will be paid in the first benefit payment soon after it is decided the number of acres will be harvested for 1936.

The remainder will be paid in a second installment in the fall of 1936, as soon as possible after proof of compliance has been made.

Adjusted acreage is considered by the secretary as acreage to be used in some other method than the production of rye for grain. A grower may produce rye, but he cannot feed it to stock, or harvest it for grain.

Rye may be grown only for soil improvement, soil erosion prevention, summer fallow or reseed.

Only a few applications for rye control contracts have been received by Hinkle to date, and he urges producers to make applications as soon as they know how many acres they intend to plow for grain in the spring.

HITCH DISCOVERED IN SEWAGE PROGRAM

MERRILL, Ore.—Recent unexpected developments in the campaign for a sewage disposal plant here came before members of the Merrill Service club this week following receipt of information by club officials that the original draft for plans for the system, drawn up several months ago by state engineer E. L. Pray had never been sent to the board of health for approval.

The original survey, calling for septic tank disposition of sewage from the city was believed to have been vetoed by the state body because of inadequate filtration before the run off was turned into Lost river.

On this advice a second survey was made last fall by an engineer employed by the city council. This survey to include gravel filtration and addition of a pumping system to raise the run off into the river. This plan was accepted by state health officials. Details of both surveys were supposed to have passed through the district offices of the PWA at Medford as well as offices of the state board of health.

A spread of $5,000 in construction cost was estimated between the first and second projects, the original plans calling for expenditure of $7,000. The addition of a pumping system would raise the cost of the system to $12,000 a sum which will levy too heavy a tax burden.

In an effort to straighten out the difficulty and to keep construction cost of the project within the financial limit approved by the city council an adjourned council session and mass meeting will be held next Monday evening in the city hall at which time F. D. Fletcher, Klamath Falls attorney, employed by the city council will also be present to report on his finding relative to a bond election which will be held as soon as the present difficulty is straightened out.

The council hopes to have plans for a septic tank system approved. The original plans call for a two tank disposal and in event this type is proved not adequate for public safety, a three compartment tank can be installed. A tank of this type is now being placed at Fort Klamath. Run off from this type system is entirely clear and would in no way be detrimental to waters of Lost river.

The entire meeting of the club was devoted to discussion of the city problem with the exception of receiving nominations for officers who will serve during the coming year. Election of officers will be held at next Thursday's session.

New York Arrests Artichoke King on Vagrancy Charges

NEW YORK, Jan. 6, (UP)—Ciro Terranova, one-time artichoke king of New York, must appear in police court next Friday to answer to vagrancy charge.

He was hardly a typical vagrant case for police were forced to pull him from his limousine to arrest him and when he was arraigned Saturday afternoon, he was flashing diamonds and dressed in the height of what racketeers consider good taste.

But, in Mayor Fiorello LaGuardia's recent and supposedly successful war on artichoke racketeering, Terranova was told to stay out of New York City. He violated that order when he motored into the city from his mansion at Pelham Manor and police found "no visible means of support," a handy charge on which to jail him.

"You've been arrested 15 times, once for rape," an inspector said to Terranova, while he was being booked. "You're nothing but a cheap push-cart peddler."

"I never was a push-cart peddler," answered the racketeer.

Could the naming of that New York City bridge as "Triborough" be subtle propaganda for the Idaho senator?

Guilty Lawmaker Fails to Assume Seat at Session

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 6, (UP)—Rep. John H. Hoepfel, California congressman convicted of conspiracy in a case alleging attempted sale of a West Point appointment, was not in his seat when congress met Friday night, it was learned Saturday.

His absence delayed a dispute over his right to hold the seat until final judgment in his case is made. Hoepfel has an appeal pending.

Speaker Joseph Byrns said as long as Hoepfel remained off the floor no question would be raised. "Otherwise some member might object," the democrat leader said.

Hoepfel and his son Charles were convicted on the conspiracy charge in the District of Columbia supreme court. They have filed a motion for a new trial.

Ship Strike Causes Shortage in Lumber

SAN FRANCISCO Jan. 6, (UP)—Contractors Saturday reported a growing shortage of lumber as a result of the dispute which has tied up at least 5 steam schooners, the lumber-carriers of the Pacific coast.

They reported several hundred thousand feet of lumber needed for the San Francisco-Oakland bay bridge had not been delivered.

The dispute centered on demands of sailors that they be paid on the basis of a six-hour day for work performed in port.

Two Italian Fliers Shot Down, Killed

ROME, Jan. 6, (UP)—Two Italian aviators were shot down and killed in a flight over the Cafta region of northwestern Ethiopia, near the Sudanese frontier, an official announcement said Saturday.

The plane was reported to have exploded and fallen in flames after an Ethiopian rifle bullet hit its bomb rack. Italian planes flew over Cafta today and dropped a wreath on the fallen plane.

A heavy concentration of perhaps 5,000 Ethiopians was reported in the region. Five squadrons of Italian bombers, led by a scouting plane, flew over and dropped bombs on the Ethiopians, who replied with strong fire, despite heavy casualties.

Guardsmen Protect Plant in Minnesota

CLOQUET, Minn., Jan. 6, (UP)—Resignment of embattled laborers against the joint offer of lower wages and longer hours simmered under bayonets of 100 national guardsmen in this cold northern Minnesota town Saturday.

Laborers determined to destroy the plant in which they refused to work last November 4 at wages reduced from 40 to 37 cents an hour and for a work week extended from 40 to 44 hours.

Adjutant General E. A. Walsh in St. Paul dispatched 100 guardsmen from Duluth to Cloquet, 20 miles away.

The milling pickets dispersed the plant and reported the situation "well in hand."

France Undergoes Goldfish Shortage

PARIS, Jan. 6, (UP)—Application of sanctions against Italy has caused an acute shortage of goldfish in France.

France has always imported all her goldfish from Italy. With the application of sanctions, the fish are hard to buy anywhere in France.

French fish dealers have tried to breed their own fish without much success.
