

Coast Basketball Conference opens Tonight

More Boys Playing Basketball

Intramural System in Grade Schools Brings Sport to Scores...

More boys are playing basketball in the grade schools of Klamath Falls this year than at any time in the past.

The reason for the change, of course, is to make the game available for more boys.

The intramural contests by no means eliminate the competitive spirit.

Much progress has been made in grade school basketball over a period of years.

Webfoot Giants Smother Oilers

EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 10. (AP)—University of Oregon's booming basketball giants used their height to advantage and walloped the smooth Union Oil basketball team of Portland 55 to 21 here last night.

It was the final pre-conference game for the Webfoots who open their northern division coast conference season against University of Idaho here Monday and Tuesday night.

Howell and Patterson led Oregon to a 23 to 12 half-time lead, and then Coach Howard Hobson sent in his reserves who speeded away from the tiring Oilers.

Howell, Oregon forward, led the scoring with 11 points, five of which came from the gift lane. Patterson scored 10 for Oregon.

Sam Liebowitz, shifted from guard to forward, flipped in eight points.

Benson Quintet Beats Yearlings

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 10. (AP)—The Benson high basketball team flashed the same form which carried it to the city championship last year, and defeated Willamette university frosh 30 to 23 here last night.

The Techmen were out ahead 14 to 11 at the half.

High scoring honors went to Gregg Benson forward, with eight points. Pierce scored seven for the Bear Cubs.

BEAVERS MEET IDAHO VANDALS

Cougars, Huskies Will Play First Game At Seattle.

(By The Associated Press) The Pacific coast conference basketball season opens tonight with eight teams battling to move out ahead with first game victories.

In both the north and south divisions the teams as a whole are ranked above those of last year.

Beavers Play Vandals Oregon State college, last year's northern division champion, which some observers rank 10 points better this season, opens tonight and tomorrow night at Corvallis against University of Idaho.

University of Oregon's fast-breaking, talented basketball Giants rest until Monday and Tuesday's games at home against University of Idaho.

Oregon Opens Monday University of Oregon's fast-breaking, talented basketball Giants rest until Monday and Tuesday's games at home against University of Idaho.

Townies Victorious in Lengthy Contest

MALIN, Jan. 10.—In a basketball marathon, Merrill's town team eked out a 37-35 victory over the Malin high hoopers, Tuesday night in a criss-cross game in which Coach Park's substitutes had an opportunity to try their mettle.

Several times in the 75 minutes of play, Parks sent in his first string to retrieve lost ground. With energy of both teams dwindling in the last minutes of play, Stewart, center for Merrill, tossed three baskets for the challengers.

E. Reber, H. Hundley and Don Smith tallied eight points apiece for the high school quint.

Girls' Playday Set for Saturday

Girls in all the city grade schools will compete in a volleyball playday at Fremont school Saturday afternoon at 1:00 o'clock. The event will take place in both the boys' and girls' gymnasiums.

The entries will be divided into color teams for the tournament.

Members of the girls' physical education staff will have charge of the play.

Man's greatest productivity in creative work comes at the age of about 35, psychologists believe.

Stanford's Winning Touchdown

The red horde of Stanford struck swiftly against the Texas Mustangs from Southern Methodist University in the celebrated annual game in Pasadena Rose Bowl, before 85,000 spectators.

Hoppe Leading Cochran for Billiard Title

CHICAGO, Jan. 10. (AP)—Willie Hoppe of New York, gray-haired and 48-years old, still is the boy wonder of billiards.

The famed New Yorker, who has played championship billiards 29 years through three generations of sport stars, today had a lead of 25 points over Welker Cochran, San Francisco, in his challenge match for the world's three cushion billiard championship.

This afternoon and tonight they play their third and fourth blocks with the finals tomorrow afternoon and tomorrow night.

Back in 1907 when Ty Cobb was trying to keep a first year job with Detroit, before Jack Dempsey crossed a right, or Babe Ruth had even hit a home run, Hoppe was playing championship billiards.

Holder of all other championships, Hoppe has never been able to annex the three cushion crown.

Stanford to Play Dartmouth Eleven STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Jan. 10. (UP)—The Stanford University board of athletic control announced approval of an invitation received from Dartmouth university officials for a home-and-home football arrangement in 1937 and 1938.

It was considered certain that the invitation would be accepted.

No definite action on the agreement will be possible until next year, when schedules for 1937 are adopted, it was said.

Seahawks Blank Portland Bucks

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 10. (UP)—Seattle's Seahawks Thursday blanked the Portland Buckaroos, 2 to 0, in a northwestern ice hockey league game.

The teams played an overtime tie at Seattle last night.

McAden, Seattle center, scored both goals, one in the closing minutes of the first period, and one late in the third period on a pass from Tabor, Seattle defenseman.

IN CUE BATTLE

The three-cushion billiard champion, Welker Cochran, left, of San Francisco, meets Willie Hoppe, of New York, 18.1 ballline champion, right, in defense of his crown in a three-day tournament in Chicago, Jan. 9-11. Cochran also is 18.2 ballline title holder.

More Protection in High School Football Sought

CHICAGO, Jan. 10. (AP)—Ways and means of providing additional protection for prep football players were under consideration today as the rules committee of the National Federation of High School Athletic associations met for its annual two-day session.

It was likely, said Henry V. Porter of Chicago, secretary of the committee, that the intermission time between periods would be lengthened.

Porter said statistics indicate that most of the serious injuries of prep gridiron occur near the start of the second half.

Eastern Oregon Gains Victory LA GRANDE, Ore., Jan. 10. (AP)—Goeding College took a 59 to 17 walloping at the hands of the Eastern Oregon Normal quintet last night when the latter dedicated its new gymnasium.

Surprising News for Racing Fan

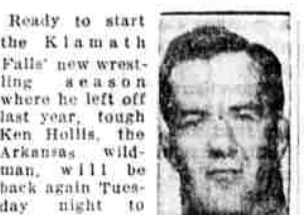

LYNN, Mass., Jan. 10. (AP)—The police were still in the shop they had raided as a horse race betting establishment when the phone rang. Sergeant Lawrence Nihan answered.

"Who won the fourth race?" a woman asked.

"Disgranted," Nihan replied. "Who was ahead in the fifth?"

"The cops—," was all the sergeant could answer before the connection was broken.

Unreformed Hollis Returns Here Tuesday Night

Ready to start the Klamath Falls new wrestling season where he left off last year, tough Ken Hollis, the Arkansas wild-man, will be back again Tuesday night to wrestle a main event against Dude Chick, Oklahoma cowboy.

Not much need be said for Hollis, who is well remembered for his series of brawls in December.

Medford Defeats Salem Prep Team MEDFORD, Ore., Jan. 10. (AP)—Salem high's basketball quintet, after playing Medford on even terms throughout last night's game, lost 22 to 18 when Lewis tossed in two quick baskets with less than a minute to play.

Stanford Player Put in Hospital SAN JOSE, Calif., Jan. 10. (AP)—Dale Beedle, Stanford university football player who helped his team to victory in the Rose Bowl New Year's day, is in Roswell state hospital today, committed to the institution on an insanity warrant after examination by physicians.

Beedle, 195-pound right tackle from Miami, Ariz., was removed from a north-bound train here yesterday on complaints of disturbing passengers throughout the night by acts of violence, hallucinations and irrational talking.

Clubmen Tackle Bearcat Quint

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 10. (AP)—The bolstered Multnomah club basketball team travels to Salem tonight to meet Willamette university's speedy young ball club.

Comparative scores favor the Bearcats who defeated University of Oregon, which in turn beat the Clubmen three times. However, in their last meeting Multnomah club led most of the way only to be nosed out by Oregon at the end.

Wheeler Defeats State Champions

ASTORIA, Ore., Jan. 10. (AP)—The Wheeler High basketball team whipped Astoria High 34 to 21 at Wheeler Wednesday night.

O. S. C. Students Ask Voters to Pass Fee Bill Oregon State college co-eds deliver filled-out petitions signed by students asking Oregon voters to pass the bill authorizing student activity fees at state higher educational institutions.

Many Klamath Teams to Play

Pelicans, Members of B Conference in Action Tonight.

High school basketball comes to the fore in this section of Oregon tonight with major contests in both the A and B divisions.

The Klamath Pelicans, the county's chief candidates for state honors, are in central Oregon this afternoon awaiting the start of their contest against the Lava Bears of Bend.

Other county games will see Keno at Bonanza; Henley at Malin and Dorris at Tulelake.

Saturday night Chiloquin, one of the leading "B" teams in the county, will play the Lava Bears at Bend.

Woman Scorned Kills Bartender

SEATTLE, Jan. 10. (UP)—Mrs. Josephine Bowen, 28, angered when she believed her bartender lover was preparing to leave her, entered his hotel room with a shotgun Thursday, fired a charge of slugs into his body, then killed herself.

Physicians said A. S. Steen, 46, shot through the side, was near death.

The young woman entered the hotel where she and Steen had been living, police said. She broke the glass in the door of Steen's room, apparently when he locked her out, and started shooting.

Eight Drown While Observing Eclipse

BELGRADE, Jan. 10. (UP)—Eight persons were drowned Thursday when the boat which a family of nine was watching an eclipse of the moon capsized after the passengers all crowded to one side. The sole survivor was an 8-year-old boy.

ALLISON TOPS TENNIS RATING

Leading Candidate for Davis Cup No. 1 for Second Time.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10. (AP)—Wilmer Allison, despite his recent defeat by Arthur Hoad, young Florida player, again led as a candidate for the United States Davis Cup team today after topping the national tennis rankings for the second year.

The rankings, marked by a wholesale revision in the "first ten," also placed the youthful Donald Budge of Oakland, Calif., and Bryan M. (Hitt) Grant of Atlanta in the forefront of cup team prospects.

Budge, ranked ninth last year, his first time in the big ten, was advanced to second place, and Grant was moved from tenth to third.

Saturday night Klamath goes on to Redmond where another tough game is expected.

In Klamath Falls tonight the Wildcats meet Merrill in a Klamath-Siskiyou conference engagement.

Shields and Wood, who is in a Iowa hospital after an emergency appendicitis, also are considered likely candidates for Davis Cup berths, as is the youthful Parker.

Allison and John Van Ryn, the No. 1 doubles team, probably will get the call for the international competition.

The rankings, which will not become official until the formalities of approval is completed by the annual United States Lawn Tennis association at Philadelphia next month, list Helen Hull Sorenberger of Berkeley, Calif., as No. 1 woman player for the fourth successive year.

Queen Helen Unranked Her only rival for the place, Mrs. Helen Williams Moody, was unranked because of insufficient data. She played only in England last summer, winning the Wimbledon championship.

Mrs. Ethel Burkhardt Arnold of Los Angeles, another recent convert to the professional game, was ranked second, followed by Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Fabyan, Cambridge, Mass.

INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE

Table with 3 columns: Player, Points, Total. Includes names like Hershberger, Thorson, B. Martin, Sornberger, Geiger.

Table with 3 columns: Player, Points, Total. Includes names like Peterson, B. Strong, Wilson, Ross, C. Strong, Hdep.

Table with 3 columns: Player, Points, Total. Includes names like Diskin, Young, Grove, Reister, Haight, Hdep.

Table with 3 columns: Player, Points, Total. Includes names like Milne, Backes, Allen, Bowerman, Smith.

Table with 3 columns: Player, Points, Total. Includes names like Stumpf, Mayberry, Skates, Alamater, Lewis.

Table with 3 columns: Player, Points, Total. Includes names like Moore, George, Arnold, Smith, Balsiger.

Table with 3 columns: Player, Points, Total. Includes names like Moore, George, Arnold, Smith, Balsiger.

STRIKES TO SPARE

INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE Weyerhaeuser Box

Table with 3 columns: Player, Points, Total. Includes names like Hershberger, Thorson, B. Martin, Sornberger, Geiger.

Table with 3 columns: Player, Points, Total. Includes names like Peterson, B. Strong, Wilson, Ross, C. Strong, Hdep.

Table with 3 columns: Player, Points, Total. Includes names like Diskin, Young, Grove, Reister, Haight, Hdep.

Table with 3 columns: Player, Points, Total. Includes names like Milne, Backes, Allen, Bowerman, Smith.

Table with 3 columns: Player, Points, Total. Includes names like Stumpf, Mayberry, Skates, Alamater, Lewis.

Table with 3 columns: Player, Points, Total. Includes names like Moore, George, Arnold, Smith, Balsiger.

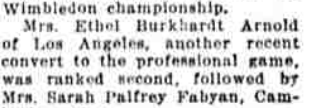

Table with 3 columns: Player, Points, Total. Includes names like Moore, George, Arnold, Smith, Balsiger.

NORMAL TEAM WINS

MONMOUTH, Ore., Jan. 10. (AP)—The Oregon Normal basketball team won 37 to 26 last night from the Grand Theatre team of Salem.

The United States produces approximately 900,000,000 barrels of oil annually.

Better for any MIXED DRINK

HOOD RIVER 'Old Delicious' APPLE BRANDY

—it blends perfectly!

This fine, smooth Hood River apple brandy is a pure fruit product—a natural affinity for most ingredients used in mixed drinks!

It has a velvety smoothness and bouquet that equals liquors years older—and it sells at a far less price! That's because it's just pure distilled juice of famous Hood River apples, with nothing added. Aged in new charred oak casks. Try a bottle—you'll be delighted.

Full 90 proof AVAILABLE IN OREGON No. 413C FULL PINT 90c No. 413A FULL QUART $1.75

DRINK A GOOD APPLE A DAY

Eight Drown While Observing Eclipse

BELGRADE, Jan. 10. (UP)—Eight persons were drowned Thursday when the boat which a family of nine was watching an eclipse of the moon capsized after the passengers all crowded to one side. The sole survivor was an 8-year-old boy.

Steam-Heated Golf Course

A golf course such as the one at Rotorna, on the north island of New Zealand, would be held in esteem by golfers in the northern part of the United States and Canada. The reason is that it is steam-heated. Underground springs and boiling mudholes furnish the steam, which is ejected through stone canals. Two of them are shown here offering hazards to the shot maker.

Peppers Vote Cut for Membership

By BERTHA HAASE (High School Correspondent) That membership of the Pepper organization of Klamath Union high school would be reduced from the present quota of 48 members to 36 beginning next fall was voted at the meeting held Thursday.

The group decided that they wanted individual pictures for the annual.

Permanent seating arrangements in the gymnasium were made by Billie Dodge, president.

Miss Dorothy Schupp, adviser, enumerated many "dons" which she observed at the last basketball game.

The meeting was closed with a few yells led by Ruth McNulty and Geneva Kennerly.

Apple pies were called "apple sticklin," "apple twelin," and "apple hogun" by the old English housewives, and they were baked 600 years ago in the same manner as today.

O. S. C. Students Ask Voters to Pass Fee Bill

Oregon State college co-eds deliver filled-out petitions signed by students asking Oregon voters to pass the bill authorizing student activity fees at state higher educational institutions. More than two-thirds of the 3,135 students signed the petition during a brief campaign conducted by student leaders.