Congressman, Son Sentenced To Jail Terms

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11. (UP)—Representative John H. Hoepfel, democrat, California, and his son Charles were sentenced Friday as a result of their conviction on charges of conspiring to sell a West Point appointment.

District Supreme Court Justice Daniel O'Donoghue overruled a motion for a new trial. Samuel T. King, brother of the Utah senator, argued for four hours in favor of the motion but the justice overruled him and pronounced sentence.

King also argued that the West Point cadetship did not constitute a public office and therefore the charge of conspiracy was not covered by the statute. The defense also presented an affidavit signed by Mrs. Marie K. Kaynes, a juror, claiming she had been ill during the trial.

The Hoepfels were convicted last month.

Spinster Shoots Lover for Failing To Keep Promise

PORTLAND, Jan. 11. (UP)—Laura E. Stevens, 55-year-old spinster, who she said had "never been interested in men" until she allegedly was criminally attacked last February by Myron Hulet, killed the 77-year-old timber cruiser with a revolver Friday because he would not marry her.

Miss Stevens stood near the body with the gun in her hand when police arrived and attempted to shoot herself, but an officer grasped her arm and the bullet struck a wall instead of her head.

Miss Stevens said Hulet came to the home of her nearly blind father, a boarder in January, 1935, and a month later dragged her into his room and assaulted her.

He promised to marry her, but went east on a visit. After his return last July they lived together, Miss Stevens said, with Hulet always evading the marriage issue. Today she again demanded the ceremony be performed, he refused, and Miss Stevens killed him.

The woman was charged with murder.
