

CITY BRIEFS

Basket Social—An overall and sack apron basket social will be given Friday evening, January 24, by the Latter-Day Saint Sunday school. Elmer Smith, superintendent, will be in charge of the affair, which will be held in the library auditorium starting at 7:00 o'clock. All the women are asked to bring a basket which will be sold at a set limit. Old-time and modern dancing will be held. A small charge will be made. There will be good music. The public is invited to attend.

Correction—W. D. DeBow declares that Wednesday's Evening Herald was misinformed in reporting an accident involving five cars occurred when he stopped his car on the highway and another car, driven by E. E. Rees of Vancouver, Wash., pulled up behind him, precipitating a crash with still other vehicles approaching from the rear. DeBow says that it was the Rees machine that was originally parked on the highway and it was his own car that first pulled up behind.

Royal Neighbors Install—Installation of officers of the Royal Neighbors of America will be held Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock at the I. O. O. F. hall. Every member will be allowed to bring a guest. Entertainment and dancing will follow the installation ceremonies. A business meeting of the Royal Neighbors will be held Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the I. O. O. F. hall.

Townsend Play—A three-act play, sponsored by Klamath Falls Townsend club number two, will be presented tonight (Thursday) at 8:30 in the auditorium of the Mills school. The cast is composed of members of the Mutual Improvement association of the Church of Latter Day Saints.

Attempted Burglary—An attempt to enter the Quality Beverage shop on Main between Fifth and Sixth street, was made Wednesday night according to police reports. The would-be thieves, who were evidently frightened away, attempted to enter the shop through the transom over the front door.

Dinner Postponed—The dinner planned for the regular February meeting of the Jolly Neighbors has been postponed. The meeting will be held at usual. It will be at the home of Mrs. Ralph Aubrey, 1133 Lincoln street.

Hit and Miss—The Hit and Miss club of the Women of the Moose will meet with Mrs. Betty Wood, 942 Prospect street, Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock for a potluck luncheon and birthday shower for two members.

Court House Records

(WEDNESDAY)

Funeral

LEWIS J. KING

Funeral services for the late Lewis J. King, who passed away in this city January 11, 1936, will be held in the chapel of the Earl Whitlock Funeral Home, Pine street at Sixth, Friday, January 24, 1936 at 3:00 p. m., with the Rev. Mrs. C. M. Timms of this city officiating, to which friends are invited. Commitment services and interment Linkville cemetery.

Townsend Meeting—Klamath Falls Townsend Club No. 3 held its regular business meeting, followed by a pinocle party and refreshments January 20, at Altamont school. Mrs. Meggs and Mrs. Ed Packett won first and second prizes for ladies and Clarence Crapo and Leon Crapo won first and second for men. Traveling prize was won by Marie Dufosse. A series of these pinocle parties is being planned and will be announced at a later date.

Benefit Bridge—On Thursday afternoon, January 30, members and guests of the Klamath Falls Women's Library club will meet in the main auditorium of the library to enjoy a game of bridge and tea at the annual Doernbecher Memorial hospital benefit. All women in the city are invited, cards to be played from 2 o'clock, and tea from 4 o'clock until 6 o'clock.

Drunken Driving—Glenn William Loucks, Lakeview laborer, was fined $104.50 and sentenced to 30 days in jail, when he appeared in Lakeview justice court to answer to charges of drunken driving. Loucks was unable to pay the $104.50, and was ordered to serve out the fine in jail.

Installation Set—The Thimble club of Neighbors of Woodcraft will hold their regular business meeting with installation of officers at the home of Mrs. Henry Krandsburg at 535 North Third street, Tuesday afternoon, January 28, at 2 o'clock. All the members are urged to be present.

Reckless Driving—Hearing on charges of reckless driving filed against C. H. Hanzel was scheduled for Thursday afternoon in police court. Hanzel, who was arrested at 3:50 a. m. Thursday at South Sixth and Adams street, left his car at police station in lieu of bail for his appearance.

Visit in Klamath—Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Prohaska of Portland, were weekend guests in Klamath Falls at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Graybell on Alameda street. Mr. Prohaska is executive in charge of the state corporation department under Judge Carey. He transacted business while in this city.

To Present Recital—The National Institute of Music and Arts will present a group of Klamath Falls pupils in recital at the Christian church Sunday, February 26, at 2:30 p. m. All are cordially invited to attend.

Friendship Club—The Friendship club will meet Friday, January 24, at 2 p. m., at the home of Mrs. R. D. McGhee at Riverside addition. The regular business meeting will be held, followed by a social hour.

Bicycle Stolen—Theft of a bicycle from the back porch of the Chase residence at 2429 Orchard street, was reported to police bureau Wednesday evening by Luther Chase.

Women of Moose Drill—The Women of the Moose will drill Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the K. C. banquet hall. All members of the drill team are requested to attend.

Eagles' Auxiliary—The Eagles' auxiliary will sponsor a card party at the home of Mary Lewis, Lakeview road, Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. The public is invited.

In Hospital—Deputy Sheriff Rex McMillan is in Klamath Valley hospital, suffering from a bad cold.
