

CITY BRIEFS

Champion Pullet—C. R. Grove of this city, has received word from his sister, Kate Long of Foster Cove road, Olympia, Wash., that one of her White Orpington pullets has produced a record egg, measuring 8 1/2 by 9 1/2 inches. The egg is really two, having one perfectly formed egg with a shell inside the outer shell. The egg is on display in Olympia.

Reports Accident—George P. Donahue reported to the sheriff that the car he was driving was involved in an accident with another operated by L. C. Cochran, Portland. The damage, he said, was slight. O. Wabbes and Otto Hallin were drivers of cars involved in an accident, according to another report at the sheriff's office.

Fort Klamath Visitors—Among the Fort Klamath visitors in Klamath Falls Thursday were: Mr. and Mrs. Jack Horton, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Horton, Mrs. Guy Page and Mrs. William Hackler. Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Horton, who have been visiting Mr. Horton's parents for the past three weeks, left Friday morning for their home in Santa Barbara, Calif.

Candidates Chosen—From the six girls nominated to act as queen of the annual Gold and Green ball of the L. D. S. church to be held at the Willard hotel on Friday, February 7, the following three have been chosen as finalists: Thelma Smith, Lucile Smith and Beverly Beck.

Back From Valley—R. B. Hadley of Klamath Falls has returned from Eugene where he was employed by the state to move buildings on the University of Oregon campus. Hadley said 17 inches of rain had been recorded at Eugene in the past 40 days.

No Permit, Charge—Leonard Monroe has been named in a misdemeanor complaint, filed by the district attorney, charging failure to have a proper Public Utility Commissioner's permit on a vehicle.

California Guests—Mrs. J. B. Brown and son Clarence, of Roseville, Calif., have arrived in Klamath Falls to enjoy a visit with Mrs. Sam Walker. Mrs. Brown's sister, of 615 Walnut avenue, they plan to remain here for five weeks.

Return Home—C. W. Miller and C. R. Grove have returned home after three weeks' visit in Olympia, Tacoma and Seattle, Wash. They visited Mr. Grove's mother who is 95 years old, during their trip.

Bicycle Stolen—Millard Pedigo of the Evans apartments, reported to police bureau Thursday evening the theft of his bicycle, which he had left in front of the Western Union offices.

Railroad Man Here—I. G. Poole, fuel supervisor for the Great Northern, is visiting the local offices from his headquarters in Spokane, Wash.

Held Party—The Women's auxiliary of Canton Crater held a pleasant meeting Wednesday evening at the L. O. O. F. hall. Refreshments were served at the close.

Here from John Day—Mrs. Walter "Shirley" Foster of John Day, Ore., is spending a week in Klamath Falls visiting with relatives and friends.

Seattle Visitor—P. J. Pohl of Seattle, Wash., is a business visitor in Klamath Falls. He is car service agent for the Great Northern.

Medford Officer Here—Lieut. A. G. Dunn, state police officer stationed at Medford, was a visitor in Klamath Falls, Thursday.

Plaintiff's mortgage on defendants' real property declared a prior lien, mortgage foreclosed and property ordered sold to satisfy claims. Decree by default.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 24. (AP)—The city council faced a new problem relative to Oregon's liquor control law when Miss Edna Jean Fox, 19, applied for license to operate a beer parlor.

The council took the matter under advisement before making recommendation. No age limit for operators is set in the Knox law, although sale is restricted to those over 21 years of age.

CHURCH CLASSES CLOSE ON SUNDAY

Miss Sybil Leone Tucker of Portland, who has been giving instruction in worship and in the principles of teaching, to classes in the First Methodist church, will conclude her visit here on Sunday, taking part in the opening service of the church school and in the junior church beginning at 10:55 a'clock. This service is intended to meet the needs of boys and girls of elementary school age.

The Epworth league of Chilquin will attend the services of the evening. These services will begin with a social hour at 4:30 p. m., followed by the Epworth league devotionals, in which Miss Tucker will take a leading part, beginning at 6:30 p. m.

The Fellowship service of the 7:30 hour will begin with a period of song, under the direction of R. E. Patterson, assisted by the men's chorus of the church, followed by interesting features for worshippers of all ages.

A children's service will be held in the First Methodist church on Saturday afternoon beginning at 2:30 o'clock. Miss Sybil Leone Tucker, director of religious education in the Portland district, who is working in this church with groups in the study of worship and the principles of teaching, will have charge of the service.

This hour should be of interest to the children of the community because of Miss Tucker's long experience in working with children in junior church services and in other children's meetings.

Parents are asked to tell their children of this service.

Church Auxiliary to Give Luncheon

The Women's auxiliary of the First Presbyterian church is to hold a luncheon in the church dining rooms on Thursday. In order to accommodate as many as possible the luncheon will be served from 11:30 in the morning until 1:30 in the afternoon. Mrs. J. H. Poppy is the president of the auxiliary and will be personally in charge.

Each member of the three circles of the auxiliary is to assume responsibility for at least one table of four. Mrs. Alfred Peterstetter is president of Bethany Circle, Mrs. Calvin Peyton of Porras, and Mrs. Logan Black of Miriam.

While the ladies are putting this luncheon on, it should be understood that both men and women will be welcomed. Anyone who cares to come may attend. The price is only twenty-five cents.

Mary Designated as Queen Mother

LONDON, Jan. 24. (AP)—King Edward designated the widowed Queen Mary, his mother, as "The Queen Mother," today thereby ending a controversy as to her proper title.

By Edward's special command, the prayers in the order of service for all churches in England during the late King George's funeral Tuesday, read in part: "We commend, O Lord, to thy goodness, Mary, the Queen Mother, and all members of the royal family."

Our great guns, fine tail ships, fast, sturdy airplanes and enormous industrial plants would be no more than so much scrap metal if the men behind them lacked the moral factor—Henry L. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy.

A GENTLEMAN treats whiskey as he does a friend. He chooses it with care. He enjoys it thoroughly. He respects it too much to abuse it.

Paul Jones has been made by the same family for four straight generations to gain the appreciation and respect of just such men.
