WRITER OF THREAT LETTERS SENTENCED

NEW YORK, Jan. 31. (AP)—Austin Phelps Palmer, retired electrical engineer of Park Avenue, today was sentenced to 90 days in the federal detention house for sending threatening letters to President Roosevelt. The maximum penalties which Federal Judge Robert P. Patterson could have imposed were five years imprisonment and a $1,000 fine.

The court imposed the sentence after a plea by Palmer's attorney that the 51-year-old man be extended "extreme leniency."

Palmer wrote letters to the president in which he blamed the government for his financial reverses and threatened to strangle President Roosevelt with his own hands.

"The receiver of such a letter can never know whether the writer is serious or not," said Judge Patterson in passing sentence.

Nettie and Nellie are well-bred little girls, so young Cooper had to make the first advances. He approached them along the station platform, they said, and told them that he was on the way to Portland with his father for a personal appearance engagement.

Are you serving enough "bulk" in your meals?

MILLIONS of meals served in American homes today lack the "bulk" needed for regular habits. Too often, these meals lead to common constipation, a cause of headaches, loss of appetite and energy.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN supplies generous "bulk" in mild form. Also vitamin B and iron. Scientific tests show it is a gentle, natural laxative food for normal people.

Try the sample. Either as a cereal, or in cooking. Then get the full-sized package from your grocer, so that the whole family may benefit from its use. Serve ALL-BRAN regularly for regularity. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

If you are not at home when our men call, and do not get your booklet and sample, write us and we will gladly send them to you.
