

MANY PLANNING TO ATTEND BIG FASHION EVENT

Ticket sales for the Business and Professional Women's style show to be presented at the Pelican theatre tonight have been gratifying, according to Hilda Park, chairman of the ticket committee, and a large crowd is expected.

The revue promises to be one of the most colorful and beautifully planned fashion shows ever staged in Klamath Falls, and will be the sixth annual spring fashion display to be presented by the B. and P. W. club.

Beautiful stage settings have been arranged as a background for the fashion parade, and the feature film will be "The Jones Family."

In addition to gay frocks for the maid and matron, smart togs for youngsters and growing girls will be presented by Montgomery Ward and Adriennes.

Adriennes' only delectable Thursday to display children's clothes, and the models have been announced as follows: Charlotte Carter, Bobby Goetsen, Barbara Richardson, Jane Durbin, Celeste Rikers and Dona Marie Rodi.

Coffees for all the models for Adriennes will be created by Adrienne's Studio of Beauty.

BONANZA

BONANZA Ore.—The Bonanza town council met in regular session Monday, March 2. It voted to allow the Women's club of Bonanza $50 for library expenses, etc.

The Bonanza grange met in regular session Friday, February 28. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Maxwell were voted to become members of the order. Guest lecturer, Mae Holloway, with the aid of the grange, rendered a very unique play, entitled "Memories of the Old Stage Barn." The men as well as the women are making fast progress on the old barn, and hope to have it entirely down by the end of the week.

The ladies of the grange met at the home of Mrs. Irene Hartley last Thursday afternoon to organize a Home Economics club. Charter members included Mesdames Vlasta Hannon, Lizzie Schmor, Mary Sparks, Naomi Pepple, Daisy Hartley, L. Rena Slack, Fannie Marchant and Irene Hartley. Officers elected for the ensuing year were L. Rena Slack, president; Fannie Marchant, vice president; Irene Hartley, secretary-treasurer. They are at present making a wool comforter of the grange colors, blue and sun yellow, to be raffled off in the near future.

Herbert Marchant and son Ray transacted business in Klamath Falls Friday.

Merrill Stewart is the proud owner of a new coupe.

Ruby Marchant-Phillips spent Thursday night with Laura Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Slack of Lakeview were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Slack, and attended the dance sponsored by the Bonanza grange Saturday night, February 29.

Dunn and Baker, construction contractors for the new highway between Bonanza and Dairy, started setting up camp in Bonanza Friday.

Mrs. Graden of Portland is visiting her daughter, Mrs. William Holloway.

Bonanza is very fortunate in having a new paper, "The Bonanza B," edited and circulated by Lloyd Beebe, owner of Beebe's Monopole store, in conjunction with his weekly advertising sheet.

Mr. Meyers, foreman of CCC Camp Bonanza, is the proud father of a baby daughter. Both mother and daughter are doing nicely.

A. D. Slack and wife accompanied Ray Marchant to Olene last Wednesday evening, where they attended the installation of officers at the newly organized Lost River grange.

CONFUSION ENDED ON BRAN

New Ruling Makes Labels Accurate

To protect the buying public, the United States Food and Drug Administration has advised that every package of cereal labeled "Bran" state on the label exactly what it contains.

Before this ruling, even part-bran products were sometimes mistakenly referred to as "Bran." It was not easy for the purchaser to distinguish between a cereal that was entirely bran, or all bran with flavoring, and another that was mostly wheat.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is labeled "ALL-BRAN Deliciously Flavored with Malt, Sugar and Salt," a statement which discloses the product fairly and honestly.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has won millions of friends because it corrects most types of common constipation safely and pleasantly. It furnishes generous "bulk"—needed to promote normal elimination.

However, ALL-BRAN is not a "cure-all." Certain types of intestinal disorders should be treated only on a physician's advice.

When you buy a bran cereal, for the relief of constipation, read the wording on the package. The facts are there! Make sure by asking for Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. It furnishes "bulk" in a form for satisfactory results.

for appendicitis at the Hillside hospital Friday, March 7.

The F. F. A. banquet held last Tuesday evening, March 3, was attended by about 58 parents and guests, and 17 F. F. A. members. A very delicious supper was served and many fine talks were given. Special mention should be given to Bob Croft, who so ably served as toast-master for the evening.

WOOL MARKET CONTINUES SLOW

BOSTON, March 13. (AP)—The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow:

"The market continues slow; possibly, it is a bit slower than a week ago. Taking their cue from a quieter piecegoods market, wool buyers have been moving with caution. Prices are generally firm.

"In the west there has been some scattered buying of the new clip at prices which show little change. Buying has not been general in any section.

"The foreign markets are very strong and possibly a bit against the buyer. London opened generally par plus 5 per cent over the January closing and has been fully maintained on the opening basis. The Australian markets are closing the season at the peak.

"Mohair is held by most growers in Texas at 60 and 70 cents, following sales at 57 1/2 and 67 1/2, respectively, for adult and kid."

The Bulletin will publish the following quotations:

Secured basis:
Oregon: Fine and F. M. staple 90-91; fine and F. M. clothing 83-85.
Mohair: Oregon, 55-57.

SHASTA VIEW

Farmers are busy in the fields in this section even if it is early March. The weather is ideal for such work.

Halbert and Emeline Wilson, Orville Kirkpatrick, Iola and Juanita Haley attended the basketball game at Ashland Saturday evening.

C. B. Brown and wife visited Mrs. Brown's cousin, Mrs. N. Y. Stoddard and family at Modoc Point, the first of the week.

Est Poterok injured one of his legs quite badly Friday and is using crutches.

C. S. Pope recently purchased the Brandenburg ranch and is preparing to build a new house.

Earl and Halbert Wilson, Orville Kirkpatrick of this place and Fred Gilbert of Klamath Falls attended the basketball game at Corvallis between Oregon State and the University of Oregon. They also went to Portland, returning via The Dalles and visited Orville's sister, Mrs. Beth Jackson at the sanatorium. Beth seems to be on the gain.

John Herzfeldt has sold his ranch to the Kittredge and Lakey turkey farm and will move his house to Malin soon.

C. M. Kirkpatrick is ready to begin farming with his new John Deere tractor.

Otto Sultz and wife spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Brown.

C. W. Hamilton and wife and Mrs. B. B. Hornbeak were visitors at Klamath Falls Friday.

Beth Gilck, Florence Sanders, Iola Haley and Emeline Wilson enjoyed a picnic lunch in the hills Sunday.

A birthday party was given at the Toiffel home Saturday evening in honor of John Herzfeldt.

C. S. Pope, C. B. Brown and Mr. Mackey have the poles set preparatory to installing electricity in their homes. Shasta View is still improving.

CHURCH OFFERS MUSICAL PROGRAM

A special musical program will be presented at the Klamath Temple Sunday night, beginning at 7:45. Local and outside talent will feature songs, especially old time hymns.

The Klamath Temple men's quartet will give several numbers, including "Minute by Minute," "Why Not Tonight?" and "There is a Fountain Filled With Blood." The quartet will sing "Seeking the Lost" and "My Anchor Holds." Rev. E. J. Bulluck of Vallejo will sing with guitar accompaniment, "As You Sow You Will Reap." Bulluck will also sing some southern melodies and negro spirituals. This minister has traveled in the old country and sang his own compositions with great success. A musical treat awaits those who can attend. The pastor, Rev. Fred Hornshuh will deliver the sermon at the close of the program on "The Bible, Up-to-Date or Obsolete."

Congressman O'Connor asks, "Is there some invisible force working in the senate?" No, but he can find it by asking anybody who has tried to locate a cop in a hurry.

In making a blood transfusion from a donor to a patient, 500 cubic centimeters, or a little more than a pint, is usually transferred.

Liquor Board Names Runte Administrator

PORTLAND, March 13. (UP)—The Oregon liquor control commission Thursday named Otto J. Runte permanent administrator. Runte had been acting administrator since the resignation of Jack Allen.

John Holden, supervisor, and E. E. Crout, chief clerk, were placed on a permanent basis.

Licensees Refused
The commission revoked the distributor's license of Albert's Products company, when the firm was cited for price cutting to retailers in violation of commission regulations.

The beer license of Alden and Anna E. Fenwick, operating the Rendezvous, 2323 South Sixth street, Klamath Falls, was suspended for 10 days.

Licenses were refused to L. M. Requin, El Capitano, Klamath Falls, and Dean Kall, Oastis, Klamath Falls.

WASHINGTON, March 13. (UP)—The bureau of reclamation announced Thursday it will open to settlement 9679 acres of public land on three projects in Montana and Oregon. The area will provide homes for 152 families on farms irrigated by the government.

The first group of new farm units was opened recently on the Sun River project in Montana. The next two groups on the Vale and Owyhee projects in Oregon will be made available in the next few weeks.

Boy, I'm glad THAT'S OVER

No fooling, I was disgusted. Even grumbling at the breakfast table. And when you begin the day wrong . . . well, you know how everything seems to go haywire. My wife wasn't satisfied with the coffee either. I'll bet Ann used a dozen different brands in trying to find a coffee that would suit both of us. Then we discovered Hills Bros! Or rather, Ann did.

I came down to breakfast one morning and there it was. Boy! I was tickled. And when Ann told me it was Hills Bros. Coffee, I told her to go ahead and pay the difference. "The joke's on you," Ann said, "because there's hardly any difference. Hills Bros. costs almost the same as the coffees we've been experimenting with. And when you figure the cost-per-cup, and the extra flavor and richness, Hills Bros. is really a bargain!"
