

EASTER SENDS TRADE NEAR 6-YEAR PEAK

NEW YORK, April 10 (AP)—With Easter buying supplying fresh momentum, retail trade closely approached a six-year peak during the past week, Dun & Bradstreet reported today in their weekly business summary.

At some points the volume was cut down by adverse weather, and wholesale markets were less active because occupied chiefly with last minute filling requirements and urgent replacements for flood-damaged stores, it was stated.

"Rain, cold weather and tornadoes conspired against the extension of the previous week's gains in retail distribution," said the summary. "While sales of apparel went 20 to 25 per cent over last year, surpassing totals back to 1929, the estimated volume of retail sales for the country as a whole was only 12 to 18 per cent ahead of that for the comparative 1935 week."

"Shoes, millinery, dress accessories, children's apparel, women's wear and men's clothing predominated in the demand, but sales of toys, gift items, candy, jewelry and sporting goods contributed heavily to the total."

Warehouse Entered Thursday Night

The Schuss company's wine warehouse at 732 South Sixth street, was entered Thursday night, and nearly $50.00 in currency and silver stolen from a hiding place in which it was placed by the bookkeeper about 11:00 p. m., according to police reports.

Several of the company's employees worked late Thursday evening, the bookkeeper being the last to quit, and hiding the money before he left, reports stated.

About 2:30 o'clock Friday morning a night watchman discovered the alley door open, and called the police car. Charles Schuss, manager of the company was called and a search of the place made, but nothing appeared to have been molested.

Theft of the money was discovered Friday morning when the establishment was opened for the day's business.

Sets Spanking Pace for Movies

Right between those two ebony Scottie pups you'll find a face for which a Hollywood movie studio has contracted to pay from $400 to $1000 a week for the next six years. Of course, you recognize it! It belongs to mischievous, 7-year-old Spanky McFarland of Our Gang comedies, hair combed and suit pressed—at least while a Los Angeles judge approved the new contract, recently.

ROTARIANS HEAR OF EARLY DAYS

"Main Street Thirty Years Ago," was the topic of an amusing talk presented by E. B. Hall to members of the Rotary club Friday.

Anecdotes of early days, old-time pictures and tales of the youth of 19 Rotary club members who lived in Klamath Falls 30 years ago, were features of Hall's talk.

He told of laying of the rails for the old Linkville street car, and how C. R. DeLap unlocked the door of the first school house here and rang the bell more than 49 years ago.

Members of the Rotary club who were here at the time of which the speaker told included: J. E. Hodge, J. Hardin Carter, J. A. Gordon, Jackson F. Kimball, D. V. Kuykendall, Charles J. Martin, John Martin, Fred Murphy, Charles Roberts, W. O. Smith, James Swanson, C. H. (Major) Underwood, Earl Whitlock, Fred Fleet, Dr. George H. Merryman and Mr. and Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt. Mrs. Zumwalt, who is pianist for Rotary, was included in the list as a courtesy member.

Remains of an insect 2 1/2 feet long were found in Elmo, Kan., and not, as you might imagine, in a New Jersey swamp.

Delay Occurs in Pension Program

Delay at Washington, D. C., in sending money to Oregon for the old age assistance program has held up delivery of checks to beneficiaries of the program in Klamath county, according to Rhylia Harton Whittlesley, county relief director.

Mrs. Whittlesley said that the relief agency is giving what assistance is necessary pending the arrival of the checks.

Under the new plan, the federal government provides half the money and the state the other half.

MANY ENTER CONTEST

PORTLAND, Ore., April 10 (AP)—Two hundred contestants, 50 of them from New York, have entered the competition for the contract for Oregon's proposed $2,500,000 statehouse at Salem.

Alton John Bassett, secretary of the Oregon capitol commission, said today.

4-H WILL HOLD BANQUET SATURDAY

Members of the 4-H county council will enjoy a banquet at the Willard hotel Saturday evening at 6:30 o'clock. This will be the last meeting of the council before the spring fair, and the close of school.

County School Superintendent Fred Peterson will act as toastmaster and master of ceremonies. L. J. Allen of Corvallis, popular assistant state club leader, will be present, and will discuss many topics of interest to all teachers and leaders.

Included on the program will be musical numbers presented under the direction of Miss Mary App, a play, given by members of Mrs. Evelyn Quinn's 4-H club, written by these members, and acrobatic dancing by members of Mrs. Maud Melton's class.

The Oregon Hill Billies of Albany will give a program of "good old mountain music" during the evening. This organization has played several times at recent functions here, and is proving to be a popular attraction.

In addition to the entertainment there will be open forum discussions of plans for 4-H club achievement day and the spring fair to be held May 8 and 9, as well as plans for summer projects and summer school.

Clifford C. Jenkins, county club agent, has also announced several surprise features for the evening, and urges all teachers, council members and those interested in 4-H club work to attend the banquet.

It is said that there are only 35 really skilled ventriloquists in the United States.

Concrete Pouring Work Started

Work of pouring concrete on the Klamath river bridge and the Southern Pacific over-crossing, both on the Midland road, was begun Friday morning, according to an announcement from Jack Almetier, manager of the local office of the federal re-employment bureau.

C. J. Montag & Sons are the contractors for the Klamath river bridge, and Barham Brothers hold the contract for construction of the over-crossing.

President Back in Washington

WASHINGTON, April 10 (AP)—President Roosevelt reached the capital at 1:30 p. m. (eastern standard time) today after a 20-day fishing trip in the south.

The president, appearing in excellent health and humor, was met at the station by Mrs. Roosevelt, Vice President Garner, and five members of the cabinet: Secretaries Hull, Morgenthau, Wallace, Dern and Attorney General Cummings.

Germany's Envoy to England Dies

LONDON, April 10 (AP)—Leopold von Hoesch, German ambassador to Great Britain, died in London today from heart disease.

The 55-year-old ambassador, who had been busy with Joachim von Ribbentrop in conferences and negotiations with Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden since Germany's occupation of the Rhineland, retired last night, apparently in good health.

Instead of girdles, Youngstown women are using adhesive tape, which makes it a bit awkward for police investigating the source of blood-curdling screams.
