The Easter cantata, "Alleluia," by R. M. Sulta, presented at the First Presbyterian church last Sunday evening, is to be repeated this Sunday evening at a union service of the First Methodist Episcopal church and the First Presbyterian church at the usual hour of worship, seven-thirty o'clock.

The preliminary program includes the organ prelude of "Jubilate Deo" by Carl, the Processional, "Jesus Christ is Risen Today," the singing of the attributed to John of Damascus and arranged from J. Michael Haydn, the invocation, and scripture reading. Following this the cantata itself will be presented. The program is:

1. Organ Introduction.
2. Opening Chorus, "Hearts and Voices Heavenlyward Raise," by the choir.
3. Soprano Solo, "The First

Day of the Week," by Mrs. A. J. Hemmingson.
4. "In Vain With Stone the Tomb They Barred," by the choir.
5. "The Empty Sepulchre," Mrs. Hemmingson, Miss Augusta Parker, Mr. George Myers, and choir.
6. "Jesus, Our Risen King," tenor solo, Mrs. Ernest McKinney and choir.
7. "Woman, Why Weepst Thou?" Mrs. Hemmingson, Miss Parker, Mr. McKinney, and choir.

13. Closing Chorus, "Alleluia," by the choir.

Mrs. J. E. Clannahan is in charge of the choir and Mrs. George McIntyre is the organist. It is expected that many unable to attend on last Sunday evening, will welcome this opportunity of hearing this inspiring cantata. Not only will all connected with the Methodist congregation, which is cooperating in this service, but the general public will be cordially received. It is requested that those attending be seated by the opening, so that the audience and choir may be undisturbed by late comers. Every effort will be made to accommodate all who come. The only limit is the size of the auditorium.

Although only eight of the 73 breweries in Canada are located in Quebec, this province produces approximately half of the total output of the industry.
