Beavers Go Slowly But Surely

Oregon State May One Day Enter Big Crew Classics—Washington Dominant Team In Country This Year.

The slow but apparently certain development of the Oregon State college oarsmen has done considerable to turn the attention of the state to the great crew classics of the country.

In years to come the Beavers probably will be strong competitors on the Pacific coast and it is not far off until they will be bidders at Poughkeepsie.

Washington and California have dominated far western and national racing events for many years. Perhaps one day another coast crew—the Beavers—will be in national prominence.

As often in the past, attention is once more directed to the Washington Huskies who on three races from California at Lake Washington last Saturday.

With Washington at the top of the favorites' list this season are Cornell and Yale. These three schools are the chief contenders to represent the United States at the Olympics in Berlin. Next July they will enter the trial at Lake Carnegie in the east.

Dick Glendon, Columbia's famous crew coach, has this to say about the coming Olympic trials:

"Al Ulbricksen's Washington varsity crew warned that it would be a threat in all competitions this summer when it beat California's shell. It broke the three mile course record on Lake Washington in doing it.

"Here's an important angle about that Washington crew: Although Ulbricksen's Huskies finished third in the varsity at Poughkeepsie last June, don't forget that Washington freshmen crews won at Poughkeepsie in 1935 and 1934. And now Ulbricksen has both those crews practically intact for his varsity, Washington should have a great crew this year."

Glendon seldom pops off with opinions about the merits of crews outside his own hull. He learned to be reticent with his views during nearly 30 years of coaching navy crews before landing a hand to his son, Hubert, head coach at Columbia. Sweepers and crew pilots are very toughy to handle, he says, in excellent humor because of Columbia's varsity and junior varsity triumphs over navy Saturday. So he stretched a few points.

The river man who closely resembles venerable Connie Mack next considered Cornell. He emphasized that Cornell was such a close second to California in last year's Poughkeepsie varsity that many expert observers thought the big red crew had won.

"Up there at Cornell, Coach Jim Wray has a fine squad of men, and it's important to remember that most of them are 23 or 24 years old. Seasoned oarsmen. Unless I'm badly mistaken, they'll give a good account of themselves this season."

And Yale—which does not compete in Poughkeepsie regattas—always has a good crew, according to Glendon. Of course several other college crews and probably a few non-college shells will try out on Lake Carnegie. Glendon understood that Cornell, of Philadelphia and the Duluth, Minn., boat club would enter. Also there were rumors that University of Pennsylvania might send a graduate crew.

Pelican Team Will Compete Against Bend

The Pelican track team will invade Bend Saturday afternoon for the first important meet of the season.

Leslie Avritt, head coach, announced Tuesday the squad would not compete in the annual Alturas meet but would take on the strong Lava Bear team instead.

The Bend athletes will return to Klamath Falls next month to compete in the Fifth Annual Southern Oregon-Northern California meet scheduled for Modoc field.

Trials for the Bend meet were to get underway Tuesday afternoon.

CONFERENCE RACE OPENS
EUGENE, April 21, (AP)—The baseball race in the northern division of the Coast conference in Oregon will get underway here Friday, with Oregon State college lining up against last year's champion, the University of Oregon. A half-hour has been proclaimed by Mayor Elsieha Large. Practice game results favored Oregon over the Staters.

YANKS, TIGERS SUFFER DEFEAT

Uprisings in Lower Ranks Feature Opening of Week's Play.

By The Associated Press
The Philadelphia Athletics and the St. Louis Browns, American league underdogs, are crowing today after having jumped into the win column for the first time in the new season.

Each with five straight defeats against them, they took the field Monday to topple two of the mightiest powers of the circuit. The Athletics, displaying artillery reminiscent of a better day, downed the New York Yankees 13-11 while the Browns defeated the champion Detroit Tigers 9-6, belting Tommy Bridges and Schoolboy Rowe from the box in the process.

Yanks Hit Hard Also
These uprisings were the prime features of a day on which the Pittsburgh Pirates at last ended the jinx that Roy Henshaw held over them and Dixie Dean, although touched for nine hits, recorded his first victory of the season.

It took a pinch single by Lorraine (Chubby) Dean with the bases loaded in the ninth to bring the victory smile to the lean features of Connie Mack. The A's hammered Walter Brown and Bump Hadley for 14 hits but they were hard put to outscore the Yanks who whacked 10 bingles off the slants of Doyle and Turbeville.

The Browns were trailing 4-0 going into the seventh inning when they opened the siege that resulted in a total of nine runs in two frames. The sight didn't help the condition of manager Mike Cochrane of the Tigers who was out of the lineup, suffering from eye strain.

Schoolboy Goes Down
Tommy Bridges retreated to the showers under that seventh inning strafing but Schoolboy Rowe, who has pitched the only two games the Tigers have won thus far, suffered a similar fate in the eighth. Elton Hogssett and Clarence (Red) Phillips saw duty on the hill for the Tigers before the carnage was over.

A mighty home run flout by Gus Suhr, captain and first baseman of the Pirates, was necessary to banish the jinx that has seen Henshaw win seven straight games against the Pirates.

The homer, the fourth of the game, came with two aboard and two out in the last half of the ninth and gave the Pirates a 9-8 margin over the Cubs. It was a fitting end to the reign of Henshaw who with two run margin was confident he was starting where he left off last year. Henshaw yielded 14 hits, Lavagetto and Pep Young also hitting for the circuit. Chuck Klein got his fourth homer for the Cubs.

Dean has Manager Frankie Frisch to thank for his first victory, an 8-7 win over the Cincinnati Reds. The Cards scored five runs in a ninth inning rally that was started by Frisch when he belted a double to send home three runs. An error and a single by Ducky Medwick accounted for two more and the victory. Of the nine hits against Dixie, one was a homer by Bill Myers, one a triple and three were doubles.

In the first doubleheader of the season the Washington Senators and the Boston Red Sox broke even, the Sox winning the first game 6-5 and losing the second 6-2. Pete Appleton spiked the guns of the Red Sox in the ninth, allowing but five hits. Ed Link and Jimmie Foxx each connected for homers in the morning encounter.

The four-hit pitching of Vernon Kennedy was the feature of the White Sox's 5-1 win over the Indians while the Giants drove George Earnshaw from the mound as they took an 8-4 decision from the Brooklyn Dodgers. Four straight hits topped by Moore's homer spelled Earnshaw's downfall. The Giants dropped their first game in six starts to the Phillies 7-5, despite Mel Ott's homer with two on in the ninth.

ROOSEVELT LUCK HOLDS

If President Roosevelt could find time to witness each of the Washington Senators' games this year, the Nata would be a cinch to win a pennant. The chief executive never has seen the Capital team lose a game, and his luck held as he viewed the season's opener against the Yankees, which the Senators capped 1-0. Here's the president, with Manager Joe McCarthy of the Yankees, center, and Sucky Harris, right, Nat's boss, as Mr. Roosevelt threw out the first ball.

Portland Fans Will Turnout for Ceremonies

PORTLAND, April 21, (AP)—The fans who root for Portland's entry in the Pacific coast baseball league get their first chance today to see what kind of a team Max Bishop, scrappy club manager, has put together for the 1936 season.

The Beavers open the season here at 2:45 p. m. against the San Francisco Missions, who are riding in second place in league standings against fifth for Portland.

Bishop, new second baseman-manager from the Philadelphia Athletics and Boston Red Sox, said he would pitch lanky Tom Flynn, formerly of Sacramento, against the Mission crew.

Manager Willie Kamm, also making his managerial debut in the Coast league after 13 seasons with the Cleveland Indians and Chicago White Sox, chose Frank Lemanski, a left-hander with a world of speed, to face the Beaver bats.

Earle Brucker, Portland 360 slugger, will catch and Joe Springs will backstop for the Missions.

The Beavers arrived in Portland, apparently just warming up after a slow start at the opening of the season in California two weeks ago. They took five out of six games from Los Angeles last week, cutting their distance from the Missions down to 3 1/2 games.

A homecoming crowd of more than 10,000 is expected. The opening day last year saw 11,125 in the stands.

The ceremonies will consist of a welcome by City Commissioner Riley, formal flag-raising by a detachment of the 7th Infantry regulars from Vancouver Barracks and a parade of teams to the flagpole.

SPORT SHORTS

By EDDIE BRIEZE
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, April 21, (AP)—What's going on in sports? Well, for one thing, the hottest wassail in'lar in years is brewing. All because Dick Eklat flopped Dan O'Mahoney and won the heavyweight title when he wasn't supposed to. Whether Dick got his signals crossed, or just decided to give the "trust" the works and to the devil with it, doesn't matter. The "trust" is out to get him in a big way. Right now they are trying to force Dick into a match with any one of a half dozen tried and true "truststers" who might be able to dispose of the German as easily as they could have licked O'Mahoney—had they been given the nod. Looks like a hectic summer.

You should have seen our jints hustling and hollering against the Phillies yesterday. Even "Ole Hoss" Travis Jackson gives you the impression he'd try to steal a base on the slightest provocation. Is Ned Irish, the basketball impresario, going to bolt the Garden and hook up with Mike Jacobs? The Washington Senators are on their way—maybe not this year, but watch them in 1937. Herr Max Schmeling is due today. . . and Herr Joe (Yussel der Mussel) Jacobs promises plenty of "prostis" aboard the Bremen. Some of the lads insist the tennis powers pulled a boner in leaving Eunice Dean of Texas off the Wightman cup lineup—as an alternate, anyway.

The Messrs. Dean are showing one and all just how badly they miss that early spring work. You can't get in shape for baseball playing golf or pitching hay. Barney Ross demands $40,000 to defend his welterweight title at Eb-

WILSON MEETS ARAB TONIGHT

Ex-Grizzer Seeks to Overcome Trail of Bad Luck Here.

George Wilson should win his main event wrestling match with Prince Mihalakis tonight if he doesn't run into the hard luck characterizing his last two appearances in Klamath Falls.

Misfortune has dogged Wilson in Klamath Falls. Against Dude Chick, the Wyoming cowboy, and before the huskiest crowd ever to see a match here, Wilson was hurled through the ropes when he missed one of his hard football tackles. The injury he received cost him the match and forced him to limit his activities for several weeks.

Last Tuesday night Wilson, who appeared on his way toward a main event victory, ran afoul of Pete Belcastro's fists and was knocked out. Although he recovered in time to vent his anger against the junior heavyweight champion of the coast, the match was over and Belcastro was the official victor.

Mihalakis should give Wilson as tough a main event as he has had. The clever Arabian has not yet lost a match in Klamath Falls. Barney Coneck, Illinois heavyweight, edged him out of a win when they wrestled to a draw several weeks ago.

Belcastro, unbeaten since his return from California, will strive for revenge over Dan Savich, Utah, in the one-hour semi-windup. Belcastro, who depends chiefly upon his drop kicks to bring him a decision, lost to Savich here last December. Both grapplers are young and should offer considerable in the way of action.

Frank Taylor of Ohio, a gentleman until last week when he turned rowdy in his match with Mihalakis, tackles Tony Postello, Italian, in the opening bout. Taylor is a slight favorite. Postello is making his first stand in Klamath Falls.

Four Schools Will Compete on Wednesday

Four high schools of the Klamath county will meet in a track event scheduled for Dorris Wednesday afternoon.

The competing teams will be Dorris, Malin, Chiloquin and Tulelake. All squads are well-matched, and a close run for first place is expected.

Tulelake, the weakest team of the four, has done considerable work in the past week to bring its strength up to par.

The outstanding athletes from the four schools are: Malin—Erik Reber, Ken Holbrook, Orr Kirk, Patrick, Harry Hundley and Roy Kunz. Chiloquin—Majors, Kinney and Dumme. Dorris—Jay Evans, Toby Patterson, John Olds, Ray Beem. Tulelake—Hardmen, Wright and Brown.

All four schools are listed for the Alturas meet next Saturday.

Baseball Meet Set for Friday

Because of insufficient attendance, no action toward organizing for the baseball season was taken at a general meeting of team managers Monday night.

Another session will be held at the Bowlers' Garden this coming Friday at 7:30 o'clock.

Beavers Battle Mission Reds in New Series

By The Associated Press
Tuesday the baseball picture shifted to the Pacific Northwest with Portland and Seattle making their home town debuts. Flushed by a five games to one series victory over Los Angeles, the Beavers will make their bow in the Rose City against the second place Mission Reds who barely won the odd game from Branch Rickey's lowly Sacramento Senators.

The tribe's big stick men will try to boost their batting averages at the expense of the San Diego Padre mound crew.

Down in Los Angeles the Senators and Angels will engage in a cat and dog fight over whose turn it is to be in the cellar. The series opens with the Angels a half game farther down than the St. Louis Cardinals' chain store clerks.

"Lefty" O'Doul stepped forward today with his talkative tongue and his San Francisco Seals as the self-appointed giant killer of the Pacific coast league.

With the aid of his Seals he is going to break the serious habit of the league-leading Oakland A's. That's what he says. Smile if you want. He made the same sort of prediction about the Seattle Indians, in second place before they met the 1935 champions. With that series won 4 to 3, O'Doul crowed.

"We did it! and we'll do it to the Oaks, too!" He will get his first crack at the A's, who have a habit of winning by a single point, under the lights of his own ball park tonight.

Pilots Enter Annual Relays at University

EUGENE, April 21, (AP)—For the first time in nine years the University of Oregon and Oregon State college will face an outside threat in their annual relay meet Saturday.

The powerful University of Portland squad, which ran away against five Oregon college teams, will compete against the state universities.

It will be the first time that a third team has competed with the two state schools since they began their track feud in 1928.

Colonel Bill Hayward, Woodfoot coach, said the addition of the Portland squad made the prospects for some new track records bright. He said he expected to see several of the marks in the ten scheduled events fall.

Since the competition began, Oregon has won four meets, Oregon state three, and one ended in a tie. If the meet produces any records, they will be the first since the 1932 competition.

America Prepares for Cup Defense

NEW YORK, April 21, (AP)—In defense of the Walker Cup, which it has never lost, the United States will send five veteran golfers and six newcomers against the English team September 2 and 3, at Clementon, N. J.

The team, announced yesterday by the U. S. G. A., will be captained by the veteran Francis Ouimet, Brookline, Mass., chosen for his experience rather than his last year's record. He has played in every Walker Cup match, in the twosomes four times, tying two and losing two. The other members of the team are: Walter Emery, Oklahoma City; John Fischer, Cincinnati; George Dunlap, Jr., New York; Harry Givan, Seattle; Johnny Goodman, Omaha; Reynolds Smith, Dallas; George Volter, New York; Ed White, Bonham, Texas; Charley Yates, Atlanta, and Albert (Scotty) Campbell, Seattle.

"STOMACH GAS SO BAD I COULD HARDLY BREATHE," STATES A EUGENE LADY

Van-Tage Put Quick Stop to Gas and Indigestion Pains and Cleared Poisonous, Sickening Bile from System and Now Mrs. Ferebee, of West Seventh Ave., Eugene, is Feeling Fine.

MRS. G. A. FEREBEE, of Eugene who says of VAN-TAGE: "Here is one medicine that really helps a person. I gladly endorse it to all other poor sufferers."

Hundreds of people in Klamath Falls and vicinity are now "singling the praises" of VAN-TAGE, which is the "Mixture of Nature's Medicine" now being introduced to crowds daily in this city by druggist at Everbody's Cut Rate Drug, 508 Main street. Among these many men and women, none is more enthusiastic about Van-Tage than Mrs. G. A. Ferebee, of 1096 W. Seventh avenue, Eugene, Mrs. Ferebee is a long-time resident of Eugene. She is a member of the Christian church and Macabee lodge and has hundreds of friends here and what she has to say about Van-Tage will be read with interest throughout this city and section. Read her statement through and through. Find out what Van-Tage can do. This remarkable testimonial reads as follows:

Awful Stomach Gas Nearly Shut Off Breath
"Most of my life I had been a victim of liver and stomach trouble," said Mrs. Ferebee. "In the last few years this suffering got very bad. My stomach was upset continually. My food caused terrible indigestion pains, gas and swelling. The bloating even extended up into my chest, which got tight and stuffy and I could hardly even breathe. Any little exertion would exhaust me and take my breath away. My liver was in awful condition, in fact, my system seemed full of bile and I had terrible headaches and felt sick and worn out continually, and always got up in the morning as tired as when I went to bed. Seemed like there wasn't any energy left in my body."

Cleansed Sickening Bile Out of Her System
"Now, all this time, I kept trying medicine after medicine, but nothing helped me. I surely was discouraged. Then recently I heard about Van-Tage. It seemed to be doing so much for others that I made up my mind to try it, so I got it and started taking it. Will say that that was about the wisest decision I ever made, for this medicine was what I always needed. It acted on my stomach and worked away the gas and bloat and now I eat my meals with a relish and no suffering afterward. Even that tight feeling in my chest and terrible shortness of breath is gone. It also has a great action on a person's liver, and it worked the old, poisonous bile right out of my system, and now the awful headaches are practically a thing of the past, and the sick, worn out feelings have vanished, in fact, I have more energy now than in years. Go to bed, and sleep all night and get up in the morning feeling fresh and fine. Here is one medicine that really helps a person, and I gladly endorse it to all other poor suffering people."

Acts On Bowels, Stomach; Helps You in General!
VAN-TAGE contains over 30 ingredients. It is like several medicines in one. So it helps you IN GENERAL. Some of its herbs cleanse the bowels and clear gas and pain from the stomach. Others enliven the liver and relieve biliousness, "muddy" complexion and sick headaches. Still others invigorate the kidney action and stop backache and night rising. Another thing—due to immense volume in which it sells, the price of Van-Tage is reasonable. Despite its many ingredients, you can actually take this Amazing Formula for just a few cents per day. So don't hesitate. Get Van-Tage NOW—and start taking it.

The druggist is at Everbody's Cut-Rate Drug, 508 Main street, Klamath Falls, daily meeting crowds of people and introducing and explaining this remarkable compound.
