Public Relations Tea To Be Given by Medical Auxiliary Members.

One of the important social events of the spring is the annual public relations tea to be given by the Klamath County Medical auxiliary on Saturday, May 2, at the home of Mrs. E. D. Lamb, at 501 Cypress street.

Officers of women's civic clubs and others prominent in civic and club affairs have been invited. There will be many out of town guests well known in medical auxiliary and federated club circles, among whom are Mrs. W. F. Patrick, state president of the Medical auxiliary, Mrs. Joseph Pettit, state chairman of public relations, Mrs. A. J. McLean, hygienic chairman for Oregon, and Mrs. George H. Bendahl, organizing chairman, all from Portland.

From Jackson county will come a group including Mrs. Charles T. Sweeney, of Medford, who is a past state president, and Mrs. H. W. Sliester, president of the Jackson county auxiliary, also a number of doctors' wives are coming from Bend where they have not yet organized a permanent club.

The medical council for the state of Oregon meets here on May 2, also, and the wives of the councilors will be guests for the day.

Mrs. Patrick is making a tour of the state and the group of medical women here is looking forward to her visit with a great deal of pleasure.

Besides the tea there will be a luncheon for the out of town guests at 12:30, and in the evening the councilors' wives will be entertained at dinner and in the homes of members of the auxiliary.

On Sunday morning several of the local women will accompany Mrs. Patrick as far as Bend where she and Mrs. Bendahl hope to organize a new auxiliary.

Local auxiliary members who are giving the tea on next Saturday are Mrs. George H. Merriam, Mrs. L. D. Gass, and Mrs. E. D. Lamb, assisted by Mrs. E. Jackson, assisted by Mrs. E. Johnson who has charge of the music.

SACRED HEART CHURCH SCENE OF WEDDING

Sacred Heart church was the setting Wednesday morning for the marriage ceremony which united Catherine Wade of Klamath Falls and Charles Weible of Chiloquin. Rev. Felix Geis officiated at the nuptial mass, and about 300 guests were in attendance.

A wedding breakfast for the bride party and a few intimate friends was served at the Elk hotel following the ceremony.

The bride was attractive in a gown of eschale duchess satin, fashioned with long sleeves and a full skirt which hung in a graceful train. Her veil was arranged in a Juliet cap effect with seed pearls and lilies of the valley. She carried a wedding bouquet of calla lilies.

Mrs. William Milkey, the bride's only attendant, wore a frock of lilac crepe, a transparent gold hat and gold slipper. Her bouquet was of tallman roses.

Mr. Milkey acted as best man, and the bride was given in marriage by Martin Tighe, a close friend.

The wedding march was played by Sister Paschalis of Sacred Heart academy, and the wedding music sung by sisters of the academy.

Guests at the wedding breakfast included Rev. Geis, Mr. and Mrs. William Milkey and daughter, Alice, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Tighe, Miss Nellie McNulty, Mrs. Charlotte Girard of Dunsmuir, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Jack Peppers of Chiloquin, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Anderson of Chiloquin, Miss Ethel Roth, Bob Clark, Ralph Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Miller, Mrs. L. A. Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Petersen and William Delury.

As a pre-nuptial courtesy to Mrs. Catherine Wade, whose marriage to Charles Weible of Chiloquin took place Wednesday, a number of her friends entertained at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. William Milkey on Monday evening.

A mock wedding ceremony was a feature of the evening, and Mrs. Girard, Mrs. Milkey's mother from Dunsmuir, Calif., presented two vocal numbers.

Guests of the evening included Mesdames Leslie Hubbard, George Dougherty, Gray, Frank Crawford, Kunz, Martin Tighe, William Bishop, J. A. Kennedy, R. A. La Londe, K. Petersen, William Milkey, L. Vaughn, Dick Miller, W. Ramsay, William Kruger, McNulty, Charlotte Girard, Joe Mahoney and Brick.

Another event in honor of Mrs. Weible, who is government supervisor for the WPA sewing project here, was given by 80 women employed in the work early last week.

A potluck luncheon was enjoyed, and many gifts were presented to the bride.

Favorite Songs Heard At Final Program For Library Club.

The final program of the year, as arranged for members of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club by Mrs. Don Zumwalt, music chairman for the year, was exceptionally well attended Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the main auditorium of the library when an "olio" or medley of songs was presented.

Many old favorites such as "The Blue Danube" waltz, three scenes from "Love Tales of Hoffman," and selections from "Madame Butterfly" were presented for the pleasure of the members and their guests.

Those who took part in the program arranged by Mrs. Zumwalt were: Lillied Olson Hill, Dorothy Stevens Kuykendall, Miss Aagot Frigaard, Mr. Cecil Fox, Mrs. D. E. Van Vactor, Mrs. J. Royal Shaw, Mrs. W. E. Lamm and Mrs. Leslie Avrit.

The four latter women presented two eight-hand piano numbers. The girls' glee club and the boys' glee club of Klamath Union high school, under the direction of Miss Lillie Darby, were introduced in two numbers, and dancers, directed by Miss Ella Redkey, assisted in making the program successful.

Mrs. E. D. Lamb, president of Library club, announced the nominating committee for the election of officers. The committee includes Mrs. R. C. Groesbeck, chairman, Mrs. M. R. Rideout and Mrs. John Houston. The committee will report at the annual election Monday, May 11.

In addition to the business meeting at that time, a spring flower show will be held with Mrs. G. L. Black, chairman. She will name her committee.

An invitation to all officers of the Library club, was given to attend the Medical Auxiliary tea to be given May 2 at the home of Mrs. E. D. Lamb on Cypress street from three o'clock until six o'clock.

A ballot was taken to determine whether or not the dues of the Library club would be raised from $1.00 to $1.50. By a vote of 46 to 14, the motion to raise the dues was passed.

The amount was increased in order to present better programs for the coming year by introducing well known outside artists, speakers or readers.

HAZEL EVERETT BECOMES BRIDE OF EARL WHITLOCK

At 5:30 o'clock Friday, April 17, at the Earl Whitlock home at Sixth and High streets, Hazel I. Everett became the bride of Earl Whitlock.

LOCAL AUTHOR ADDRESSES WRITERS

By Ruth E. King
The Klamath-Lake Chapter of the League of Western Writers met at the home of Mrs. E. K. Loomley on 1922 Manzanita street, Tuesday afternoon, April 21.

Ida Momery Odell, Nellie C. Whitlatch and Rose Otey Soule were appointed to draw up a set of bylaws for the chapter.

After the brief business session, Roger Torrey, who has been successful in writing for some of the most popular pulp magazines, addressed the group and made many helpful suggestions for its progress. Torrey has recently completed his novel, "A Shroud Has No Pockets," which is in the hands of the publishers. He gave a brief outline of the story.

He broke into the writing game in 1932, and sold the second story he wrote. He has made rapid strides in the fiction field, and met with a measure of success during the four years he has written, and has won honorable mention in The Writer's Digest.

Mrs. O. E. Schupp entertained the Thursday Contract club at her home on Roseway Drive this week.

An afternoon of bridge was enjoyed by Mesdames Sue Morrison, C. O. Dryden, Charles Yorkland, Virginia Caseman, W. H. McPherson, Glen Hewitt, and a special guest, Mrs. Frank Cooper.

High prize was given to Mrs. Morrison, who also won the traveling prize. Mrs. McPherson received second high. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Otto Wabbles.

Past Matrons of O. E. S. Entertained Friday At Luncheon.

Eighty-two past matrons of the Order of the Eastern Star gathered at a charming luncheon table Friday when members of Aloha Past Matron club were hostesses to past matrons of Lakeview, Medford and Ashland at Masonic temple in Klamath Falls.

Present and past grand officers of the Eastern Star were present, and these honor guests included: Mrs. W. H. McGowan of Medford, past worthy grand matron, Mrs. Ida Umbach of Lakeview, Medford, past grand matron, Mrs. Laura Willits, past grand matron, Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg, past grand warden and Mrs. Charles J. Martin, also a past grand matron.

Mrs. Oscar Peyton, president of Aloha Past Matron club, presided, and introduced the above named grand officers who were seated with her at the head of the table.

Secretaries of the four past matron organizations were seated at the foot of the table.

The luncheon table was beautifully decorated with white streamers from a center bowl of hydrangeas and carried to each place, where they were fastened with maidenhair fern and sweet peas.

Place favors were tiny candles in holders.

Original pep songs were led by Mrs. C. E. Dennis, and Mrs. H. G. Wortley, vice president of Aloha club, pinned on each guest her name and city so that each one present could identify the wearers.

Following luncheon, bridge and travel games were in play. Honor scores in bridge went to Mrs. Porter of Ashland, Mrs. Barnes of Medford and Mrs. Umbach of Lakeview. Miss Alice Hanley of Medford won the travel prize.

A musical program was presented during the afternoon as follows: Vocal solos by Mrs. L. Graham, accompanied by Mrs. Neva De Spain, and violin numbers by Miss Barbara Powers.

Mrs. J. H. Poppy was in charge of arrangements for the luncheon, and Mrs. Charles Martin was chairman of the decoration committee.

In addressing the group, Mrs. W. H. McGowan of Medford stated that this was the largest

A.A.U.W. Elects Officers For Ensuing Year At Saturday Meeting.

The A. A. U. W. members enjoyed a luncheon last Saturday preceding the business meeting, and an interesting book review, "Facing Two Ways," by Baroness Ishimoto, was presented by Mrs. Ralph W. Stearns.

The committee in charge of the meeting was composed of the following: Mrs. J. C. Johnston, chairman, Mrs. Varne Owens, Mrs. Harold Teale, Mrs. Arthur Larsen and Mrs. Clarence Humble.

On Saturday evening, April 18, Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mrs. Herbert Landis, Miss Virginia West, Miss Mary McComb and Miss Dorothy Schupp motored to Medford, where they attended the installation banquet for the new Medford chapter of A. A. U. W.

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Wallace of Portland were guests in Klamath Falls Friday, when Mr. Wallace, who is a member of the state game commission conferred here with C. E. Riley, local member of the commission.

Mrs. Wallace was Mrs. Riley's guest at the Reames Golf and Country club for luncheon and bridge Friday afternoon.

They left Saturday morning for Portland.

Director of Girl Scout Camping Visits Here This Weekend.

Miss Esther Ansel, who is regional director of Girl Scout camping in Oregon, Washington and California, has been the guest this week of the Klamath Falls Girl Scout council.

The building of a permanent camp for Klamath Falls, is being planned and to this end Miss Ansel's visit at this particular time has been most helpful to the members of the council and camp committee.

Miss Ansel also met with the leaders association and discussed with them Girl Scout policies and principles and their practical application. She stated that the need for character building organizations had never been so great as now, and that people were coming more and more to recognize that fact.

She said, also, that taken from the unselfish standpoint of community service there could be no finer work for women today than leadership in groups of girls such as Girl Scouts, campfires, and other similar organizations. From what might be called a selfish viewpoint she said, there is no other work that can be so much real fun in the doing.

The Girl Scout hot cross bun sale held just before Easter proved to be most successful. First prize went to Kathryn Kelly of troop No. 7, who sold 52 dozen. Second prize to Janice Bubb of troop 5 with 52 dozen to her credit.

Other prize winners were Gladys Killian of troop 6; Stella Bowne of troop 4; Rose Haden, troop 6; Jean Wiesendanger, troop 5; Marsha Dixon, troop 8; Hazel Halferty, troop 3; Gwendolyn Glubrecht, troop 8; Mary Audrey Radcliffe, troop 5, and Yvonne Peterstetter, troop 2.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gordon returned home this week-end after enjoying a vacation visit at Richardson Springs, Calif.
