TO DISILLUSION any person that may have anything other than a true slant regarding my business relations with W. T. Dean, I wish to say: That I have found Mr. Dean a man of executive ability, an exceptional accountant, and his integrity and fairness beyond reproach. Mr. Dean is very conscientious in his dealings; and never at any time did so much as a ripple occur between us during our entire association in business. I am not making this statement merely to satisfy the recipient, as is often done, but am stating facts as I found them. Signed, Geo. W. McCollum.
