

SAN FRANCISCO PARTY TURNED INTO HORROR

Dullea, captain of police inspectors after inspecting the place. "There was no air in the place. "There was only one exit and entrance at the foot of a steep stairway with an abrupt right angle turn. "All the windows were boarded up. "I am going through every night club in San Francisco to see if such conditions exist elsewhere. "Mrs. Marler, one of the victims and wife of Bob Forest Marler, who owns the Club Redwood near Petaluma had come to San Francisco to visit old friends at the Shamrock and "for a good time."

Fine, Sentence Imposed by Judge

A fine of $100, and a jail sentence of 40 days were imposed upon Jack Wayne by Police Judge Clinton Richmond Wednesday, when the defendant appeared before him to answer to charges of sale of liquor to an Indian. A similar fine and jail sentence were imposed upon Jack Kerrigan, and were later suspended providing Kerrigan leaves town within six hours. Dial Chiloquin, Klamath Indian, was fined $10 for drunkenness. A. A. Casenier was lodged in jail Wednesday morning on charges of driving without an operator's license.

Motion Denied for New Trial

Circuit Judge Arthur D. Hay on Wednesday denied a motion for a new trial in the case of Grace and J. G. Patterson against the Horsely Irrigation district. The plaintiffs won a judgment in a trial held here several weeks ago. He also denied a motion for a judgment for the defense notwithstanding the verdict for the plaintiffs. Judge Hay amended the cost bill to make it total $320.75.

Groesbeck Speaks at Ad Club Event

The Advertising club, observing guest night at its weekly meeting Tuesday night at the Elk hotel, heard a discussion of the higher education system of Oregon presented by R. C. Groesbeck, attorney. C. E. Reavey, manager of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph, entertained the members and guests with tricks of magic.

CLOSING DAYS OF CAMPAIGN STIR VOTERS

course, nominated on the democratic ticket, the fall legislature race will be over before it starts. That is presuming, of course, that there is no independent candidate. Much interest is centering around the contest between Mae K. Short, incumbent, and George Chastain, for the democratic nomination for county clerk. There has been a good deal of talking sides at the courthouse in this race, and some hot controversy has developed among supporters of the two candidates over various matters. Word comes from Claude McCulloch, candidate for democratic national committeeman, who is in Portland finishing up his campaign. He said, in a wire to this newspaper: "Newspaper men at the state capital are predicting my election as democratic national committeeman provided I get substantial vote in Multnomah county of which I am absolutely certain due to my long residence and wide acquaintance there. I am hoping my friends will give me a big vote in Klamath county."

Several Klamath county lumber men have sent letters to people in the lumber industry over the state telling of McCulloch's interest in the welfare of the industry. Ben Dorris has a lot of upstate support for republican national committeeman. There seems to be a ground swell to take the major political offices out of Portland. Ralph Williams' supporters say that because Williams is a veteran party man he can't be beat, but Dorris men can't see it. In the second congressional district, it begins to look more like Roy Rittner of Pendleton than any of the four other candidates. Jack Allen seems to be gaining on U. S. Burt for the democratic nomination for state treasurer. Rufus Holman, incumbent, seems a likely winner of the republican nomination against W. E. Burke. Willis Mahoney ought to know the aged John Jeffrey under for the democratic nomination for the senate, although it may be a temporary triumph because of Mahoney's formidable opposition in the person of Charles L. McNary, the probable republican nominee for the post he now holds. Strength is building rapidly for R. H. Anderson, republican candidate for county commissioner. The other local races are still rather quiet.

Confidential Notes Barred From Court

WASHINGTON, May 13, (AP)—Chief Justice Alfred A. Wheat ruled today that confidential correspondence between President Roosevelt and Secretary Ickes could not be introduced as evidence in the District of Columbia supreme court. He upheld Jerome Frank, PWA attorney, who refused to produce the letters from the government files in response to a subpoena by Dean Acheson, counsel for private utility companies.

To the People of Klamath County

There is a story being spread to the effect that the auditor's report for 1935 shows that my office issued some $3,800.00 worth of warrants without any authority. This statement is a deliberate and malicious lie. The auditor's report does show some $3,800.00 worth of warrants were issued by me by order of Judge Ashurst in payment of such court expenses as jurors' fees, attorneys' fees, etc. This is the correct procedure for paying such circuit court expenses and the procedure followed by every Circuit Judge in the state of Oregon. There are on file in my office written orders, signed by either the county or circuit court, ordering me to issue every warrant that has been written during my term. The law definitely states that I must obey such court orders.

Here is what the written report of the auditor says about my office: "I HAVE FOUND THE CLERK'S RECORDS TO BE ACCURATE, SHOWING EXCEPTIONAL EFFORTS ON THE PART OF THE CLERK AND THE VARIOUS DEPUTIES."

Started out of a twenty year lethargy by the fact that I will show a saving of over $12,000.00 in conducting the clerk's office during my term, certain self-appointed campaign managers for my democratic opponent are trying to offset this fact by making the ridiculous statement that there has been less business during my term. THERE IS NOW A GREATER VOLUME OF BUSINESS IN THE CLERK'S OFFICE THAN EVER BEFORE IN THE HISTORY OF KLAMATH COUNTY.

The volume of business in the Circuit Court Clerk's office is three times greater than it was twenty years ago when George Chastain was clerk. Mr. Chastain became clerk of the circuit court in June, 1913, four years before the United States entered the World War, and from that day on employed extra help, mostly relatives, when there were only one or two cases a week filed in the Circuit Court. During my term one deputy handled THREE TIMES THE VOLUME OF BUSINESS AND NOT ONE CENT WAS PAID OUT FOR EXTRA HELP. The cost of the clerk's office per case under Chastain twenty years ago was $11.01. The cost per case during my term has been $4.03.

I will continue to protect the people's money.

COMMITTEE NAMED
Members of the executive committee who will administer the agricultural conservation program in Klamath county were elected Tuesday at a meeting held in the county agent's office. These directors have been announced as follows: Burrell Short, president; Fred Ruock, vice-president; H. J. Heardsley, third member, Lee Holliday, alternate; Assistant County Agent C. W. Henkle, secretary, and Leda Parker, treasurer.

FISHING BETTER

Bait and fly fishing in the south fork of the Sprague river, Anna river, Drews creek and Drake's creek, all in Lake county, are reported to be fair, according to members of the game division of the state police. Roads to these streams are also in fair condition. Camas, Mud and Silver creeks are all reported to be too high and muddy for fishing. Sets Hearing—Circuit Judge Lowelling of Marion county has set May 23 to hear motions to strike answers of the defendants in the case of Josephine Irwin versus Circuit Judge E. B. Anshurt, et al.

IT'S A SUPER-SAFETY TIRE!

The new
U.S. ROYAL Master
WITH CENTIPEDE GRIP

IT'S DE-SKIDDED
Hundreds of rubber fingers grip the road with each revolution of the wheel.

...A MILEAGE MAKER TOO!

THE TREAD WEARS LONGER BECAUSE—

- IT'S FLEXIBLE
- IT HAS DEEPER NON-SKID
- IT'S BUILT OF TEMPERED RUBBER

The flexible tread conforms to the road, instead of resisting it, greatly reducing abrasion and thereby increasing anti-skid mileage.

The U. S. Royal Master has an extra thick tread of tough Tempered Rubber... permitting the deepest non-skid ever built by "U.S."

Compounded with special "U.S." toughening ingredients, Tempered Rubber is world-famous for extra dependability and mileage.

SAFER from SKIDS... both forward and side
Hundreds of sharp-edged tread units wipe the road dry with a windshield-wiper action... tremendously reducing skids.

FLOWING, SILENT RIDE
Tire vibrations (greatly magnified), as recorded on a supersensitive machine, show how U. S. Royal Master rides easier. It steers easier, too.
