Cowboy May Return to Rodeos

Chick Will Go Back to Wyoming for Month of Conditioning. Holds Best Wrestling Record in Klamath Falls.

Dude Chick will retire temporarily from wrestling this summer and return to rodeo competition.

The cowboy-wrestler, who formerly rode for Senator Warren of Wyoming, says he will be back in his home state probably by July for a month of conditioning preparatory to a trip over the wild-west circuit.

It's eight years since Chick was a top hand in some of the big western shows. He has competed at Pendleton, Cheyenne, Calgary—all the big roundups—and lifted major prize money in roping, bull-dogging and riding.

For a man who has lived at the 6000-foot level in Wyoming most of his life, the high altitude here made it pretty difficult for the cowboy last Tuesday in his draw with Pete Belcastro.

There were a couple of times in that long, one-hour match, Chick said, when he was in need of all the energy he could muster to resist his young, strong opponent.

With one match here under his belt and several days of training, the cowboy doesn't expect any more trouble with the high altitude condition.

Chick would like to meet Belcastro again, but he wants the match on at least a two-hour limit. Either a two-hour limit or a no time limit basis.

He is pretty sure he can outlast the junior champion of the coast in a longer struggle.

Chick still has the best record of any wrestler performing in Klamath Falls. He has had something like seven matches without a defeat. Two matches, one with George Wilson and the other with Belcastro, ended in draws.

Most startling of all, however, is that the cowboy has lost only one fall. George Wilson bounced him onto the mat with a flying tackle. Had Chick not been so generous in that first meeting with Wilson, whom he later defeated here, his record would not have included the loss of a single fall.

After giving Wilson an airplane spin, he allowed the ex-University of Washington football player an extra five minutes to recover.

Chick will be the favorite over Danny Savich, Utah, in the main event next Tuesday. Savich, though, is young and rugged and should be good for a hard match. The Utah wrestler, although he has never met Chick, is familiar with his opponent's style and, like Belcastro, may be able to avoid those deadly spins.

3 COAST CLUBS TIED FOR THIRD

Double Plays, Three Seal Errors Settle Issue for Beavers.

(By the Associated Press)

With the aid of four double plays and three Seal errors the Portland Beavers smothered San Francisco 11-5. Six Beaver runs were unearned as the Seals bobbed the ball three times. The game tied the two clubs with the Missions for third.

Felding, bad and good but mostly bad, decided two other games, trebled the score of a third and threw three clubs into a tie for third.

Padres Earn Sacs

Only one earned run was scored as Fay Thomas of Los Angeles won a 2-1 pitcher's duel from Dick Barrett of Seattle last night. Each nine muffed the ball twice to give their opponents a free run. Barrett allowed six hits and one run while Thomas should have a shutout for his five-hit job.

San Diego won the other night game 9-6 from Sacramento in the only game where hits—13 each for each team—accounted for all but one run.

Walter Beck allowed only seven Oak hits and fanned six only to lose 2-1 to Oakland as his Mission teammates kicked the ball about twice. Willie Ludolph, ace Acorn moundman, allowed the game's only earned run and 12 hits.

Two Draw Suspensions

Manager Willie Kamm of the Missions was suspended for three days for yanking the mask off umpire Paul Genesla Wednesday night. Genesla was indefinitely suspended by league president Wilbur Tuttle for "drinking a little."

Thursday Genesla was considered "too sick" to call them and his duties were performed by Bernie Devivieros of the Oaks and Walt Stewart of the Reds.

CARDS, TIGERS BUCKLE DOWN

Championship Fights of Two Years Ago Recalled by Victories.

(By the Associated Press)

Faint echoes of the thunderous 1934 world series have begun to rumble through the major leagues as the Tigers and Cardinals are showing something like their championship form of two years ago.

The Cards have been running along in front for a couple of weeks but it took a day in second place to make them buckle down to work in dead earnest and wallop the Giants 4 to 2 Thursday to regain the lead. Meanwhile the injury-ridden Detroit team has started the same sort of comeback it made after a poor start last year, turning the Yankees 10 to 9 and moving into third place with their sixth consecutive victory.

Foxs Hits Home Run

The triumphs of these two old enemies were the high spots of the big league program Thursday, too. Jimmie Fox belted his tenth home run of the season and Johnny Whitehead, the White Sox sophomore, and Harry Kelley, the Athletics' freshman, duelled for 14 innings before Kelley cracked and the Pirates wound up a six-run ninth inning rally with a homer by Woody Jensen with two aboard to beat the Phillies 7-4.

Wes Ferrell, knocked out in two innings Wednesday, went right back at the Browns and hurled seven-hit ball to win 6-2. Fox's homer, coming with two aboard in the third, gave him invaluable aid. Lanning, up from Knoxville, pitched a four hitter for the other Boston team and came out ahead of the Reds and Lee Stine, 3-2.

Henshaw, the Cub midget, curbed the Dodgers into submission with seven hits, winning 4-0.

Solons Beat Cubs

Whitehead, who was even more of a sensation last year than Kelley has been this spring, came close to being the day's hard luck victim. He didn't allow an earned run but his mates made five errors behind him. He finally won 3-2 in the 14th when Kelley gave three straight walks and then a single to Luke Appling.

The Senators found their experiment of shifting Cecil Travis from short to right field a successful one when the youngster contributed a home run to a 7-4 triumph over Cleveland.

KEGLING QUEEN

Hugh Hartman, Grants Pass first baseman, enjoyed a perfect day against three Pelican pitchers last Sunday and as a result, went into the Southern Oregon league batting leadership. The husky school teacher batted out five hits in five trips to the plate, including a double and triple, to give him a mark of .625.

Mulatore, Pelican center fielder, and Granger, Red Sox receiver, lead their teams with marks of .429, while Tanner, right fielder, heads the Glendale club with an average of .400.

Three Grants Pass players, Reble, Chapman and McCarthy, and Roy Wheeler of the Red Sox, are tied for the lead in the run scoring department. All have crossed the plate three times.

Twenty-seven players in all are hitting .200 or better and fifteen are in the charmed .300 circle.

Lanning, Bob Hardy and Clyde Carlstrom head the pitchers with one win and no losses. The first two are with the Grants Pass Merchants and Carlstrom is the Red Sox ace.

Players hitting .200 or better follow:

Starting Time Set for Open Golf Tourney

NEW YORK, May 22. (AP)—The first big golf of the 1936 national open golf tournament to be played over the Baltusrol (N. J.) course June 4-5, is scheduled to boom at 7:50 a. m., the opening day.

At that hour Henry Picard, the Hershey, Pa., pro, who has been installed as pre-tournament favorite, is due to tee off for his first round with Herman Barron of White Plains, N. Y., as his partner.

Thirty-five minutes earlier, Jack Munger, the flashy Dallas amateur, and Zell Eaton of Oklahoma City, recent recruit to the pro ranks, are slated to open the tourney.

At five minute intervals after the start, 84 other pairs, comprising the largest starting field in the history of the event, will send their tee shots down the fairway in an effort to capture the crown won last year by the "unknown" Sam Parks Jr., of Pittsburgh.

Parks, although the defending champion, is rated no better than a 50 to 1 shot to repeat this year. He made a poor showing in the winter tournaments and the veterans still figure his win last year was a fluke. Picard is quoted at 9 to 1 in the advance odds. Parks will hook up with Johnny Revolta of Chicago, the professional champion, for the opening round, starting at 10:15 a. m.

The field of 170—ten more than started at Oakmont last year—includes 32 amateurs and virtually all the pros whose records qualify them as possible winners. A few stars, notably Lawson Little, the former amateur king, failed to survive the sectional qualifying tests.

Ted Longworth, Portland, is the Pacific Northwest's representative in the tournament.

France May Refuse to Send Team to Berlin Olympics

PARIS, May 22. (AP)—Uncertainty whether France will send a team to the Berlin Olympic games has thrown sporting circles, government officials and the public into an uproar.

The chamber of deputies has failed to vote the Olympic budget of 1,890,000 francs, equivalent to about $118,500. The Sarraut cabinet postponed approval until the new Leftist government comes into office in June.

French resentment at Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler's military reoccupation of the Rhineland is behind it all. The landslide to the left, bitter opponents of nazism, in the elections, made the controversy all the hotter.

Armand Massard of the French Olympic committee pleaded that "sports and politics are distinct and should be kept distinct" but Leftist politicians objected to spending French money in Nazi Germany.

Massard pointed out that the Olympic games "will be held just the same even if France refuses to go," but the left answered that at least France would save 1,890,000 francs.

Salmon Fishing Reported Good on Rogue River

Salmon fishing in the Grants Pass section of the Rogue river reached its highest point this season during the present week. Limit catches were common occurrences.

Conditions were favorable, weatherwise anglers said, because of overcast skies. Most catches were made early in the morning. "Rainbow" spinners, of many hues, were bringing results, as were spoons of hammered brass.

For the first time, the river below the mouth of the Applegate yielded its quota. Previously the water has been too muddy because of mining.

Fair weather appears to be the forecast for Sunday anglers.

Klamath's Pelicans Flee From Spokane

SPOKANE, Wash., May 22. (AP)—It takes a heap of clip-pin' to ground a pelican, keepers at the Sportsmen's exposition found Thursday.

Two big white pelicans tired of the artificial pool and waterfall where they were being displayed, tried out their clipped wings, found they still worked, flapped over the fence and headed southward toward Klamath Falls, Ore., from where they were brought for the show.

Schools Battle For Net Title

PORTLAND, Ore., May 22. (AP)—Semi-final and final matches remained on the menu today for the Oregon State high school tennis championships at Reed college.

Representatives from 16 schools participated in opening rounds yesterday.

Doubles teams surviving initial matches included Macklin and Bertilson, Salem, who won from Settler and Jackson, Chemawa, 6-1, 6-1 and from Linn and Robins, Bethel, 6-3, 6-0. Brand and Laird, Roseburg, who defeated Erwin and Hampton, Pendleton, 3-6, 6-3, 6-6 and Kruger and Horner, Corvallis, 6-0, 6-2.

Winner in initial singles matches included Dillingham, Grants Pass, who won from Mann, Jefferson of Portland, 6-2, 3-6, 6-1. Fies, Roseburg, who defeated Seward, Chemawa, 6-1, 6-1; Hatcher, Corvallis, who won from Mitchell, Pendleton, 7-5, 6-7, 8-6; Knopf, Grant of Portland, who downed Guterstadt, Salem, 6-4, 7-5, and Lloyd, Benson of Portland, who won from Platt, University High of Eugene, 6-1, 6-1.

Full Program Of Sports Set This Weekend

A heavy sports schedule is listed for teams and organizations in the Klamath country.

Three baseball leagues have a full day's play ahead. Continuation of the golf tournament at Reames and a tennis match are also listed.

The Klamath tennis team will play its first match against Bend, in the Southern Oregon league the Grants Pass Merchants will meet the Red Sox on Modoc field while the Klamath Pelicans go over into the valley to meet the Glendale Loggers.

Eastside-Ewanna will play Merrill in the Klamath Basin league. Malin meets Big Lakes and Dorris plays at Tulelake.

In the Crater Lake league Pelican Bay tackles Modoc Point, Sprague River meets Chiloquin and Algoma crosses bats with Southern Pacific.
