

Topnotch Acorns Losing in Coast Circuit

SEATTLE TAKES NIGHT BATTLE

Portland Finally Wins From Sacs, 4 to 3; Seals Winners

By Associated Press
The topnotch Oakland Acorns are losing ball games in the Pacific Coast league as consistently as they won them before bumping into the supposedly crippled Mission Reds a week ago.

They went down for their eighth straight defeat last night, 9-1, before the powerful pitching arm of Lou Koupal, pride of the Seattle mound staff.

Seattle's win and the Mission's 4-3 defeat of Los Angeles put the Reds and the Indians just two games back of the Oakland club, which had long been in a class by itself.

For the first time in ten days there were no changes in the circuit's kaleidoscopic standings, as Portland finally won from Sacramento, 4-3, in the third night game, and San Francisco smothered San Diego 12-0.

Jimmie Gordon, the Oaks lead-off man, got three of the five hits Koupal allowed, including an eighth inning homer for the Acorns' only rally. Art Hunt hit for the circuit for the tribe, with none on, as the Indians pounded out 14 slabs.

John Clabaugh's ninth home run of the season ended the Beaver-Senator game after he had staked Sacramento to most of its runs with a pair of errors. Bill Posedel was responsible for only one run, as he fanned 17 Senators and allowed eight scattered hits.

A ninth-inning rally was choked off by Max West's smart catch of Jimmy Reese's long fly to retire the side. Pitcher Walter Beck aided and abetted the rally with a pair of errors.

With three doubles in five times up, Frank Gira led the San Francisco 17-hit attack on three Padre hurlers. Gira drove in four San Francisco runs. Little Ken Sheehan kept San Diego's seven hits so well scattered they could not make them count.

Klamath Basin League Lists Three Contests

Three games will be played in the Klamath Basin baseball league Sunday. The schedule is as follows:

Big Lakes vs. Dorris.
Tulelake vs. Eastside-Ewauna.
Merrill vs. Malin.

Vincent Lopez Defeats Lutze

SALT LAKE CITY, May 30 (AP)—Vincent Lopez, Mexican mauler, last night defeated Nick Lutze, Venice, Calif., when he captured two straight falls in the feature event of a wrestling card here.

Lopez won the first fall with a hammer lock in 18 minutes and finished off the bout with an elbow slash in four minutes.

Other results: Ira Derr, Salt Lake City, defeated Richard Stahl, Germany; Del Kunkel, Salt Lake City, downed Wild Man Zim, Hollywood; Ted Sarria, Detroit, drew with Tiger Jack Nelson, Chicago.

Hector Thomson Wins Golf Title

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, May 30 (AP)—Hector Thomson, 22-year-old Scottish amateur champion, won the British amateur golf championship here today by defeating James Ferrier, Australian amateur champion, two up.

Even at the end of the first 18 holes, Thomson played the first nine holes of the afternoon in 35 strokes, despite a driving rain, and was two up at the 27th. He held this advantage to the 35th hole, where he had it cut to one, but he rallied on the last hole to finish the match.

PORTLAND, Ore., May 30, (AP)—Puddle jumper? No, a cliff leaper!

That more nearly describes a runaway automobile which hurtled down a hill, sailed over a 25-foot bank and smashed a big hole in the side of a house, moving the entire structure about three inches, complained W. H. Nolan, the owner.

The brakes weren't much good to begin with, said the owner as he drove the car away on its own power.

Tophole Golfer Is Sir John, 63

As adept on the links despite his 63 years as he is before the bar, Sir John Simon, eminent British home secretary, displayed some choice driving during a tournament among Parliament members at Surrey, England. The statesman has been nominated captain of the Royal and Ancient Golf Club, Britain's highest golf honor.

Lewis Finishes Goodwin in One Round at N. Y.

NEW YORK, May 30, (AP)—John Henry Lewis of Phoenix, Ariz., the light heavyweight champion who has filed an application for a shot at Detroit's Joe Louis, has advanced one very good reason for moving up into the heavyweight division.

That is that the 175-pounder can give him very little opposition and not much more in the way of financial returns for his appearance in the ring.

Lewis proved both points at Madison Square Garden last night when he stopped Bob Godwin of Daytona Beach, Fla., in one round on an over-weight match.

Not more than 3,000 cash customers turned out—possibly because of the effects of the pre-holiday exodus from the city and the competition offered by the Leroy Haynes-Primo Carzera bout at Ebbets Field two days before.

The ones who did appear found more entertainment in Balharzar Sanchilli's victory over Lew Faber in a special ten-rounder.

Aussies Favored to Win Matches in Cup Net Play

PHILADELPHIA, May 30 (AP)—The championship doubles combination of Jack Crawford and Adrian Quist was favored to carry Australia to victory in the Davis cup zone finals against the United States beginning today at the Germantown Cricket club.

In the first singles match, Quist will oppose Wilmer Allison, American singles champion, and following this battle Donald Budge, the Oakland, Calif., red head, will be pitted against Crawford, captain of the Anzac's.

The selections were announced today when Davis cup tennis officials, team managers and other representatives met at the Racquet club and drew the schedule.

The draw means that on Monday—the final day of the tournament—Allison will face Crawford, and Budge will take on Quist. Under Davis cup rules, there can be no change in the singles selections.

In the United States, more than 160,000 divorces are granted annually.

GAMES SUNDAY
Red Sox vs. Grants Pass at Grants Pass.
Glendale vs. Pelicans at Klamath Falls.

While two of the co-leaders—Grants Pass and the Klamath Falls Red Sox—battle it out at Grants Pass for a hold on the Southern Oregon league's top rung, the other league leader, Glendale's Loggers, will journey to Klamath Falls to battle the cellarite Klamath Pelicans in the fourth game of the schedule. Both battles are slated to start at 2:30 sharp.

In the first crucial game of the season, that at Grants Pass between Ken Williams' Merchants and Vernon Francis' rollicking Red Sox, all signs point toward one of the most brilliant pitching battles in many years. Curve ball Clyde Carlstrom, on the mound for the Red Sox, will attempt to duplicate his great work of last Sunday, when he let the Merchants down with three scattered hits. Against the heavy hitting Sox, who boast eight regulars clouting .300 or better, Ken Williams will start his young south-paw find, Bob Hardy. Hardy pitched the final three innings against the Red Sox last week, allowing only one hit, and is almost certain to get the starting call over Lanning, who was hit hard.

At Klamath Falls, the much defeated Pelicans will attempt to remove the "doornail" stigma from themselves with either Molatore or Oakes on the mound and Deering back of the plate. Bill Willis, Glendale manager, will send the brilliant Merl Johnson to the rubber and Thompson behind the bat. In three games so far this year, Johnson has allowed only 14 hits, the best record of any hurler in the league.

Neathammer, shortstop, was given his release from Grants Pass by Ken Williams last week, straightening up a slight misunderstanding on the part of Glendale concerning the signing of new players.

With the exception of the Pelicans, all teams have hung pretty close to the rosters they turned in at the start of the season. In an attempt to strengthen their team into pennant contenders, the Pelicans have tried out many different combinations, but without much success. They need more hitting strength and better pitching to seriously threaten the three leaders, and have several strings out at present for just that.

Stocky Stecker May Bring Dude Chick Trouble

Just as it was last week and the week before, Dude Chick's record in Klamath Falls will be at stake Tuesday night.

The cowboy this time meets a newcomer, Al Stecker of Canada. Stecker is now only as far as this season is concerned. He is a main eventer at the old Legion hall shows a year ago.

In Stecker, the cowboy tackles a veteran. The man from Canada formerly held the middleweight belt and then was forced to relinquish it when he entered the heavyweight division. He is short and powerful and has an inclination toward roughness.

Oregon Staters Defeat Webfoots 8 to 2 on Friday

EUGENE, Ore., May 30, (AP)—Weak support behind the fine pitching of Don McFadden, veteran Oregon chucker, making his final collegiate appearance, gave Oregon State an 8 to 2 victory over the Webfoots here yesterday.

The contest several times threatened to develop into a riot as coaches and players of both teams protested decisions by Umpire Spec Burke.

PULLMAN, Wash., May 30, (AP)—The Washington State college baseball team, with the northern division conference title already clinched, took advantage of errors and stretched its lead with a 3 to 7 victory over University of Washington.

Five errors contributed toward the downfall of the Huskies yesterday.

NEW PITCHERS WINNING TILTS

Smith, Moore and Phillips Get Laughs on Older Mound Men

By Associated Press
Three more-or-less question marks of the major league pitching fraternity, particularly Lefty Smith of those surprising New York Giants, are laughing at a lot of their more established brothers these days.

Smith ranks at the head of the trio because of the calibre of his latest conquest—a two-hit 15-0 triumph over the Boston Bees yesterday. But not far behind are "Indian Chief" Euel Moore of the lowly Phillies, and Clarence Phillips, the Tigers' righthand rookie from Texas.

Smith, who has turned out a sound investment for Manager Bill Terry's faith in him over the last two years, attacked up against Ray Benge at the start of yesterday's Giants' game, but Ray last-

Austin Injured in Tennis Match

PARIS, May 30 (AP)—H. W. (Bunny) Austin, English Davis cup star, was forced to quit his match with Marcel Bernard of France, in the quarter-final round of the French hard court tennis championships today when he pulled a ligament in his right leg.

Austin had won the first set 6-4 and was training 0-1 in the second when he doubled up after making a difficult return shot. A masseur massaged his leg on the court but Austin declared he was unable to go on.
