

Three-way Deadlock Broken as Red Sox Lose

GRANTS PASS WINS, 5 TO 2

Merchants Capture Game From Klamath in Valley Sunday.

The three-way tie for the leadership of the Southern Oregon league was broken Sunday when the Klamath Falls Red Sox went down to a 5 to 2 defeat at Grants Pass.

The result left Grants Pass and Glendale, which won from the Klamath Pelicans, in joint possession of first place.

Southpaw Hardy, ace hurler on the Merchant nine, was successful in stopping the Red Sox. It was just a week ago that the Sox were equally successful in putting an end to the Merchants' winning streak.

The tall Grants Pass boy, who has been hurling for the Southern Oregon Normal school, carried them past the Klamath batters and allowed only three hits.

The Klamath club made its only threat in the sixth inning. Granger and Bernadou gained passes and Martin struck out. Granger scored on a passed ball and then Bernadou came home when Haley hit a long fly to deep center field.

Brown started for the Sox and lasted until the fourth inning. His successor, Carlstrom, stepped into the hold and for the remainder of the contest the Merchants gained neither hit nor run.

The summary:

South-end Game Goes to Merrill

The traditional rivalry between the two south-end entries in the Klamath Basin league was one of the features of Sunday's baseball schedule.

Merrill came through with a 11 to 9 victory over Mallin.

Stewart Lenox

STEWART-LENOX, Ore.—Mrs. Ted Son is suffering from a broken leg acquired Saturday, May 23. She was in the hospital a short time, but has returned home now. Bobbie and Marian, children of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shierstein, have whooping cough.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Steele, residents of Pendleton, Ore., were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. John Beebe May 22.

Anton Ekstrom has an infection in his eye, caused by sawdust. Mr. Oran Smith has moved to California to join her husband, who is employed there. Her home was purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Metzger.

Tuesday night, June 2, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cramblitt will entertain any residents of Stewart and Lenox, either in Moore park or at their home on Lakewood drive, depending on the weather. Those persons interested in the Stewart-Lenox church and young people especially are urged to come.

Clinton Gravel has moved to Bly. Rex Harvey of Orville, Calif., has purchased his home. Monday night, June 1, the S. and L. Community club will meet at the home of Mrs. Mary Son.

Mrs. Ted Dry and children are moving Wednesday to Cherry Creek.

Once Unbeatable Acorn Club Takes Drubbing From Tribe

(By The Associated Press)

The once exclusive Oakland Acorns had the company of the Seattle Indians at the top of the Pacific coast league, after taking the worst shelling of the circuit has seen this season.

Only one game of an eight game series was salvaged by the Acorns as the Seattle tribe swept the Sunday double-header 8-5, 16-4. It was the second series the Oaks have lost this season.

The one game the Oakland club won was the Saturday nightcap which saw Art Hunt, Seattle outfielder, get two of the four home runs he hit during the week-end. Throughout the week the Oaks, highly prized moundstaff proved easy prey for Seattle's hitters who gathered 33 Sunday, including six homers.

Missions Go Down

Los Angeles also knocked out 23 hits as they showed the San Francisco Missions down to third by winning Sunday 8-4, 7-5. Big Wes Schulmerich swung the big stick with a four-bagger, three doubles and a single. His .500 batting average for the day was shattered by Steve Mearner, Carl Dittmar and Arnold Stutz. The Missions won the series 5-3, the same margin scored by the San Francisco Seals in winning from San Diego Sunday 5-3, 5-2 and by Sacramento in Portland's double header with Sportland 5-0, 0-2.

Portland fans enjoyed a pair of pitching duels as Nathan Andrews kept eight hits well scattered to shut out the Beavers in the opener and Ad Liska hurled three-hit ball in the nightcap to blank Sacramento.

Player, Pilot Tangle

Errors helped the Senators to two runs in the opener as George Caster and Donald French allowed them seven hits, including a homer by Narvon with none on. The Beavers made their five hits in the brief second game count.

Manager Lefty O'Doul tangled with big Manuel Salvo, San Diego hurler, in an added attraction to the opening game. Frank Shellenback, Padre manager and the only spitballer left on the coast, returned to the diamond after a two weeks' layoff because of illness, to turn in a fine job of relief hurling after the Seals had won the 7-inning nightcap from Ed Wells. Win Ballou allowed the Padres only four hits in that affair.

Red Sox Play St. Louis Team Here on Tuesday

Hoping for a comeback after dropping a decision to the Grants Pass Merchants Sunday, the Klamath Red Sox battle the invading St. Louis Blues on Modoc field Tuesday afternoon, 5:30 o'clock.

The Blues will be the first professional team to visit Klamath Falls this season. The all-negro outfit is regarded as one of the strongest clubs on the road this year.

Meyer Receives Racing Prize For Third Time

INDIANAPOLIS, June 1. (AP)—For the third time in eight years Louis Meyer of Huntington Park, Calif., will step to the front tonight when his name is called and receive the $20,000 first prize check for having won the 500-mile Memorial day automobile race at the Indianapolis motor speedway.

Prizes for the first ten finishers and the consolation awards for all starters in the race will be presented to the drivers at the annual speedway dinner tonight.

Meyer raced to victory here Saturday in the record breaking time of 1:09.069 miles an hour. The previous record for the long grind was 1:04.240 set by Kelly Teitilo, of Huntington Park, Calif., last year.

Trailing him to the finish line were Ted Horn of Los Angeles, second; Doc MacKenzie of Edgington, Pa., third; Mauri Rose of Dayton, O., fourth; Chet Miller of Detroit, fifth; Ray Plakey, of Fullerton, Calif., sixth; Wilbur Shaw of Indianapolis, seventh; George Barringer of Houston, Tex., eighth; Zeke Meyer of Germantown, Pa., ninth and George Connor of Los Angeles, tenth.

Meyer won the race in 1928 and repeated in 1933. He is the only man ever to win three times.

Chiloquin Beats Southern Pacific

Southern Pacific dropped another ball game Sunday afternoon when it met Chiloquin.

The Chiloquin outfit out-batted the Espes to the tune of 4 to 1. The game was played at Chiloquin.

Pacifist Arrested at Seattle Parade

SEATTLE, Wash., June 1. (UP)—Mrs. June Lydersen, 38, who said she graduated from Eugene, Oregon high school last June, was jailed Saturday charged with distributing handbills without a license during a military Memorial day parade.

The handbills advertised the northwest congress against war and fascism, which is in session here. The girl's husband, Clayton, whom she said she met when she came to Seattle to attend the first congress last year, was attempting to raise bail for her.

INDIANS GAIN ON SOX, YANKS

Cleveland Pulls Up From Fifth to Third Position.

(By The Associated Press)

Those Indians from Cleveland are on the warpath.

Tomahawks swinging, they're hot on the trail of the American league's leading and most highly priced scalps—the New York Yankees and Boston's million dollar Red Sox.

Pulling up from fifth to third place last week, the tribe camped today only half a game back of the Sox, after stretching its winning streak to five straight with a 7-5 victory over the Chicago White Sox Sunday.

Yanks Win Again

The Indians' surprising showing in the last several days, particularly in a generally better performance record by the Cleveland pitchers, was climaxed Sunday by a whole landslide of surprises all down the line in both leagues.

For instance, in the American, the hapless St. Louis Browns upset the Detroit Tigers 11-10 for the third straight time, and the Yankees, with Joe Di Maggio again in the hero's role at bat, made it three out of four in a week over the supposedly mighty Red Sox with a 5-4 triumph.

Rounding out the day for the league, Pete Appleton, in a six-inning relief trick, outpitched three members of Connie Mack's up-and-down Athletics, hurling staff for a 6-4 win by Washington.

Giants Go Down

The unexpected was even more marked in the National league. The daffiness boys from Brooklyn handed Bill Terry's Giants, who seem to be cracking as expected, a 4-3 setback, their third straight at the Dodgers' hands. The Boston Bees, after taking four losses on the chin from the Phillies, turned on the heat and came through with a 6-5 win in 11 innings; Dizzy Dean was belted for 19 hits by the Cincinnati Reds, but the Cardinals slugged three members of Connie Mack's staff for a 6-4 win by Washington.

Linfield Defeats Whitman Track Men

WALLA WALLA, Wash., June 1. (AP)—Linfield college scored 56 1-6 points to upset Whitman for the northwest conference track and field championship.

Whitman, defending champion, scored 54 points in Saturday's meet, followed by College of Idaho, 20 1/2; College of Puget Sound, 19; Pacific 12 1-3; Willamette 3, and Albany 0.

New conference records were: Leiballe, Linfield, 22 feet 8 3-4 inches in broad jump; Graham of Whitman, 20.9 seconds in 220-yard dash; Baker, Whitman, 138 feet 8 inches in discus, and Linfield mile relay team, 3 minutes, 30 seconds.

Washington State Wins Golf Title

PULLMAN, June 1. (AP)—Washington State beat out the defending champion, University of Oregon, for the northern division conference golf championship today by a margin of 21 strokes, 586 to 607. The scores represented the gross cards over a 36-hole route for four-man teams.

Washington took third place, 622 strokes, Oregon State fourth, 651, and Idaho fifth, 681. Two Washington State players, John Beck and Gus Damaskos, with individual cards of 143, tied for the individual title, beating out Leonard Anderson, of Oregon, by three strokes.

Hard-hitting Wrestling Due at Armory Tuesday

Two bouts of first class main event calibre and a third that should be 7-1 of hard hitting wrestling will be offered Tuesday night at the Klamath armory by Mack Lillard, promoter.

Al Stecher, hero for the first time since last summer, battles Dude Chick of Wyoming in the main event. Pete Belcastro, junior heavyweight champion of the Pacific coast, accepts the challenge of Cecil McGill, Los Angeles, in the semi-windup.

Two wrestlers will seek to protect their records for victory. Dude Chick has never lost a match in Klamath Falls and Pete Belcastro is unbeaten here this season.

Although these athletes will not meet Tuesday night, each will be interested in the outcome of the other's match. After wrestling a draw two weeks ago, Lillard still is hopeful he can get them together again in the near future.

Stecher's last match in Klamath Falls was a draw with the popular Leslie Wolfe of Texas. Since then he has appeared in the major wrestling centers of the country. He is a veteran and his roughness may mean trouble for the cowboy.

Swift and clever, McGill may be just the man to stop Belcastro's winning streak. He has a dropkick as good, if not better, than his opponent.

The third match sends Dan Savich, Utah, against Bob Kenniston, Gold Hill, in the curtain raiser. The men are about an even match.

SPORT SHORTS

PORTLAND, Ore., June 1. (AP)—The University of Portland baseball team wound up its season with a record of 14 victories and eight defeats.

SALEM, Ore., June 1. (AP)—Vinnie Harriman scored in the ninth on Bill Moye's single to give the Salem Senators a 1 to 0 victory over Blitz-Whainham, Portland semi-pro champion, in a Memorial day game here. Bill Bevans hurled two-hit ball for Salem while Covert yielded only five hits to Salem on his slow "nothing" ball.

EUGENE, Ore., June 1. (AP)—The University of Oregon frosh had a mediocre track season, although several promising performers were uncovered. The Oregon State college took down the frosh in both the relay meet and the annual track and field meet.

Ben Marty, high and broad jumper from Fresno, Cal., was one of the outstanding men. Donald Barker, miler from LaGrande, was another featured performer.

NEWBERG, Ore., June 1. (AP)—Hirter's nine-hole golf course near here which will be formally opened next Saturday, went into use today. The course is 3,154 yards long and has a par of 36.

Cougars Capture Northern Section Baseball Title

(By The Associated Press)

Back in 1927, Buck Bailey, the roaring Texan, came to Pullman as Washington State college's baseball coach.

Buck had some pretty fair material, including Ted Rohrer, Gerald Exley and Guy Di Julio, and he piloted the Cougars to a Northern division coast conference championship.

Bailey wasn't able to repeat the feat, however, until this year. But this year Bailey had the pitching, the catching, the fielding and hitting. The Cougars, with 12 victories and four defeats, breezed through to the 1936 championship, and once again that broad Bailey smile lights up the Palouse country.

The Cougars clinched the title even before their last two-game series against their old foes, Washington, when Idaho clouted the Huskies out of the running at Moscow.

W. S. C. then won its first game from Washington for good measure, and closed the season by losing 6 to 3, Saturday, due mainly to effective relief hurling by Daly of Washington.

The Huskies finished tied for second place with the 1935 champion, Oregon. Oregon defeated Oregon State Saturday, 10 to 5, to split the season's four-game series.

PELICANS LOSE ANOTHER GAME

Glendale Loggers Overcome Klamath Team, 7 to 6.

The Klamath Falls Pelicans fell deep into the cellar of the Southern Oregon league Sunday afternoon. The team, still without a victory after the fourth week of schedule, was tripped once more by the Glendale Loggers on Modoc field.

The final score gave the visiting club a one-run advantage, 7 to 6.

A rally in the late innings of the contest gave Klamath a strong boost, but the runs fell short of a victory.

Glendale jumped into the lead by grabbing three runs the first time at bat. Two more were scored in the third frame and one each in the fifth and seventh.

The Pelicans scored two in the second and one each in the sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth.

O'Connell Named Ashland Mentor

ASHLAND, June 1. (AP)—Ashland high school's new coach and athletic director will be Forrest "Skeet" O'Connell, former Oregon State college basketball star.

He will succeed Coach Don Faber who moves up as head coach and director of physical education at Albany college.

O'Connell, former Portland athlete, was coach at Woodburn, Ore., high school the past school year.
